LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week.

—We have had ideal November weather this month.

—Next Thursday is Canada's national Thanksgiving Day.

—There was good skating on the power house pond yesterday.

—Farmers, are you advertising those stray animals about your premises?

—Do you realize that Christmas will be here in four weeks from next Wednesday?

—The Premier of the Dominion, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, celebrates his 60th birthday to-day.

—The farmers are still engaged in plowing, the frosts not having penetrated below the surface.

—Acton Fire Brigade will hold their first ball and supper in the town hall next Wednesday evening.

—Messrs. Reid & Co. have removed the balance of the B. Grennan Co. stock to their Hamilton store.

—Rev. J. K. Godden., M. A., will address meeting of the Bible Society at Rockwood next Tuesday evening.

—Every person living has cause for Thanksgiving. Stop and meditate upon it specially next Thursday.

—The annual meeting of the Western Ontario Hockey Association will be held in Berlin on November 30th.

—The Sunday Schools of Knox Church and St. Alban's Church are arranging for their Christmas entertainments.

—Oats are ruling higher in price to-day than for eight years past. They sold yesterday in Toronto for fifty cents a bushel.

—Rev. E. L. Fisher, B. D., of Nassagaweya, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church next Sunday, morning and evening.

—Mr. Abram Shoffer has now got comfortably settled in his remodelled house on Church Street. He has a very convenient and vastly improved residence.

—Mr. James Danny, has sold his farm lot 7, Con. 6, Chinguacousy West, 100 acres, to Robert Miller. Mr. Danny retains his homestead, lot 6, in the same concession.

—Patterson's delivery horse ran away again last Thursday and demolished the cartagainst an electric light pole. His pace down Mill street from Elgin to Main was terrific.

—The Junior Epworth League will give one of their unique social entertainments in the Methodist School Room on Friday evening, 29th inst., to which all parents and friends are cordially invited.

—The Methodist Sunday School is arranging for the usual Christmas entertainment for Christmas night. The scholars will provide the most of the programme which promises to be highly interesting.

—The citizens in the East End declare that if "Light-fingered Jim" does not cease his pilfering of their wood, fence boards, &c, at once they will refer the matter to the authorities and serious results to him may follow.

—T. P. Smith, eyespecialist, will be in Acton, Thursday, Dec. 5th, one day only, rooms at Agnew's Hotel. If you have any defect in your eyesight it will pay to call and see him. Examination free. Call early or you may make appointments at A. T. Brown's Drug store.

—Mr John Chaplin, of Cheyenne, Wyo., has the best thanks of the FREE PRESS for a copy of the splendid illustrated edition of the Cheyenne Daily Leader, a forty page paper showing the natural beauties and architectural attractions of Cheyenne and its environments in Wyoming.

—The anniversary services of the Methodist Church last Sunday were very successful. Rev. J. M. Hagar, of Acton, preached morning and evening, giving excellent sermons, and Rev. Mr. Hillyer of Bethany preached very eloquently to the young people in the afternoon.—Moorefield correspondent of the Palmerston Spectator.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and every item interesting.

Live Stock shipments This Week.

Messrs. Holmes Bros. have paid to the farmers this week between $2000 and $3000 for cattle, sheep, lambs and hogs, delivered at Acton station. Two cars were shiped to Toronto and one to Buffalo.

It Pleases Everywhere.

"The 12 page programmes with illuminated cover you just printed for our anniversary services, have arrived and we are all delighted with them. I enclose $17.85 the price for them.—H. G. M.—Toronto." The FREE PRESS job printing evidently pleased patrons in the city as well as in the town and country.

Cond Morrison's Widow Sues the G. T. R.

A writ for $15,000 was issued last Friday morning against the G. T. R. on behalf of the widow of John Morrison, G. T. R. conductor, so well known by all travellers over this division of the road, who was killed on August 27th last, near New Hamburg, while examining an air brake.

Generous Parishioners.

From the Shelburne Free Press, we notice that the members of Cranmer's Church, Honeywood, on the 12th inst. presented their pastor, Rev. P. W. Goodeve, M. A., with a beautiful fur coat, and a complimentary address. Rev. Mr. Goodeve is a son of our esteemed townsman, C. P. Goodeve, Esq.

Large Shipment of Honey.

Mr. Alfred Boomer of Linwood made a shipment of some 5000 pounds of honey on Wednesday, which he had previously sold to G. A. Deadman, of Brussels. Mr. Boomer's crop this year was an exceptionally good one, running up to fully 10,000 pounds. He is wintering over 100 colonies, all of which he reports to be fine condition.—Waterloo Chronicle.

Tug of War Challenge Accepted.

The challenge of Captain Donald Maun for the Limehouse team to Captain Neil Gillies and his team, published in these columns last week, for a tug of war contest for $100 a side, has been accepted. The Captains and representatives of the teams met on Tuesday evening and made final arrangements for the pull. It will take place in the park here on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving Day Services.

A union thanksgiving service will be held in Knox Church next Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. J. M. Hagar, M. A., will preach the sermon and Rev. H. A. Macpherson will have charge of the opening services and Rev. G. A. Gillispie of the closing. There should be a large attendance. ....Rev. J. K. Godden, M. A., will conduct thanksgiving services in St. Alban's Church, commencing at 10.30 a. m.

Dear Mistake! Does He Wait for you?

This is the latest on the young man who hangs around the church door on Sunday night waiting for his "steady!"—"Mary had a little lamb; it followed her to church, and then it stood around the door like an owl upon its perch. Why don't the little lamb come in? the watchful people cried; why, Mary told the silly thing to watch for her outside. So you, each gentle maiden, may one and all still find, some sheephead waiting near the door, if you admire that kind."

A Splendid Trophy of the Chase.

Yesterday morning's train brought to our townsman, Mr. James McLam, one of the finest specimens of antlered beauties that has reached Acton in years. It was shot the other day at Moon River, in the Parry Sound District, by Mr. Charles McLam, who spent the deer hunting season with a company of Midland friends. It is a buck of some five years; is in prime condition, and has beautiful antlers. The head will be mounted. The fine carcass has been much admired by a number of old sportsmen.

Sermons by an Afflicted Preacher.

Mr. Thos. Galloway, of Uxbridge who has been seriously afflicted with spinal disease for many years, but who is a most acceptable speaker and preacher, occupied the pulpit of Knox Church last Sunday morning and that of the Methodist Church in the evening. The subject of his morning discourse was "Individualism," and that of the evening, "The life to live and how to live it." The sermons were delivered with a force often lacking in preachers who are physically vigorous, and his subject matter was well thought out, clear and logical, possessed the ring of sound gospel truth and was impressive and helpful. Mr. Galloway left town yesterday morning with very kindly feelings toward the people of Acton.

Acton's Church Choirs.

A gentleman, who is constantly travelling and who spent last Sunday in Acton, said to the FREE PRESS on Monday morning: "I think Acton should be proud of her church choirs. I attended Knox Church yesterday morning and the Methodist Church last evening, and I have not in months heard such excellent singing, the size of the choir being considered. They sing with harmony, are well balanced, and manifest ability to properly interpret the music they sing. No doubt similar compliments could have been justly paid the other church choirs, had this musically-inclined gentleman heard them. The church choirs certainly deserve praise for their service, much more than is expressed.

Death of Rev. Father Haley.

Rev. Father Haley, a former pastor of St. Joseph's Church here, died at Valley City, North Dakota, on Wednesday last, and his remains were brought to his old home, Arthur, and interred in the family plot on Tuesday of this week. Father Haley was one of the first priests ordained by Bishop Dowling, after the latter's appointment. He was an assistant at St. Patrick's Church, Hamilton, for about a year, and was also for a short time on St. Mary's Cathedral staff. He came to Acton from Hamilton, and from here was transferred to Maxton. He went to North Dakota for his health. He was a pulpit orator of a high order, and an earnest zealous priest. Father Haley was father Feeny's predecessor here. A requiem mass was celebrated in St. Joseph's Church on Monday morning by Father Feeny.

The Eugene Page Concert.

The high-class concert given by the Eugene Page Concert Co., in the Town Hall last Thursday evening, under the auspices of Acton Cornet Band, was of a degree of excellence rarely to be enjoyed in a small town. Every number was high-class, but was withal of a character which every person in the audience could appreciate and enjoy. Each of the five members of the company was in truth an artist, and all parts were well taken. M. Eugene Page is a great artist on all manner of stringed instruments, and his title "The World's Greatest Mandolinist" seems to be most worthily bestowed. His mandolin numbers were brilliant indeed. Many earnest encores were given though the programme and they were generously responded to. As a concert company they cannot be excelled, for all being soloists a varied and superior result follows.

Halton Old Boys' Concert.

The association of Halton Old Boys in Toronto, encouraged by the success of their visit to Milton in September last, have arranged for their first annual concert to be held in Temple Building, Toronto, on Friday evening, Dec. 6th. An energetic committee has provided an entertainment, first-class in every respect. It is hoped that every section of the old county of Halton will be represented on this occasion. They will be heartily welcomed. Special rates by G. P. R. or G. T. R. to parties of 10 or more. Pipe Major Beaton, of the 48 Highlanders, will be on hand with the bagpipes. A first-class orchestra will furnish music for dancing. The following artists will take part in the concert: Mrs. Coutts Bain, Miss E. Boult, Miss M. Urquhart, Miss H. Wallace, Messrs J. Storey, R. E. Collins, J. B. Hotchins, Fred Kennedy, H. P. Blackey. An early application to the secretary, Mr. D. Bowman, 6 King St. East, Toronto, by those who propose to attend is desired.

The New Books—Well Satisfied Readers

Miss Ettie Laird, the courteous and efficient Librarian of Acton Free Library, was in her glory last Saturday when the new addition of 250 new books were opened to her scores of grateful readers. She had the busiest evening of many months, and her deft fingers and quick eye were kept continually engaged during the hour and a half the Library was open, in disposing of the new supplementary catalogues and selecting the bright new books asked for by the readers. Monday evening was similarly busy and now the readers generally are raveling in the newest works in history, biography, voyages, travels and and adventures, the latest discoveries in science and art, new poetry, and the best new productions in general literature and fiction. Acton Free Library is free in fact as well as in name. The only cost to our citizens for the privileges of the nearly 2000 volumes on the shelves is the few cents charged for catalogues and membership cards.

The Norval Shooting Match.

In connection with the shooting match at Norval on Thanksgiving Day, arrangements are completed and a good day's sport is assured all who attend. The following are the rules and arrangements regarding the same: (1) Any bore of shot gun allowed; Shot to be used, No. 6! Shooting for the cup, any rifle used, all open sights. (2) Each man to be furnished with a fresh bullseye numbered to correspond with his number in the Secretary's book and the bullseye to be shown each man after the contest. (3) Size of bullseye for 100 yard range 3 inch; 200 yard, 6 inch; 400 yard, 8 inch; (4) Mr. F. Tout takes charge of the 100 and 200 ranges; Mr. R. Gollop o the shot gun ranges, and Mr. Hugh Cunningham of the revolver ranges. Classes will also be arranged for any style of rifle or sight used. Carriages will meet all trains up till 2 o'clock.

ROCKWOOD.

Mrs. Totten, recently of Acton, is visiting friends in this locality, before removing to her new home at Deafield.

Missionary services will be held in each of the Methodist Churches, of the Rockwood circuit on Sunday Nov. 24th. Rev. Dr. Cornish, of Toronto, will assist the pastor on that day.

The annual meeting of the Bible Society will be held in the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, Nov. 26th. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. Fleming, of Everton. J. K. Godden, of Acton.

BALLINAFAD.

Mr. Kentner is rapidly recovering from his recent threshing machine accident.

The event of the coming week for this section will be the meetings of Halton Farmers' Institute, at Ballinafad on Monday, November 25th.

At the afternoon session an address will be delivered on "Weeds and How to Destroy Them," by H. Glendenning, Manilla, an address on "Difficulties in Dairy Farming and How to Overcome them," by Miss Laura Rose, of the O. A. C., Guelph. Discussion will follow each address.

In the evening Miss Rose will deliver her address, "One eye in the field, and the other in the town," and Mr. Glendenning will speak on "Spraying for insects and fungus diseases. A good musical programme will be provided.

The meetings are free to all. A profitable time is expected. Come prepared to ask questions and take part in the discussions. Mr. Geo. Gastle, Milton, is president, and Mr. J. L. Warren, Acton, is the indefatigable secretary.

GEORGETOWN.

The illuminated lecture by Miss Clara Wagner, dramatic reader in the Baptist Church last Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Young People's Union, was one of the most interesting and impressive recitals ever held in this town.

The subject was "In His Steps," the wonderful book written by Chas. M. Sheldon. Every person present felt that the lecture had given inspiration for better truer living in the future.

Our sportsmen had splendid success in the Muskoka wilds. Most of them are home now and their friends are being favored with choice venison cuts.

Detective Murray was in town last week and received evidence that may lead to the apprehension of the parties who have been setting fire to buildings in and about town.

About a week ago three valuable colts, two belonging to Mr. J. B. Bessey and one to Mr. J. W. Bessey, were killed near the 5th line N. & N. W. crossing. Five of them had got out of the field and wandered to the spot and a freight from the north cut three of them to pieces. It is said that nearly $1000 worth of stock has been killed at this crossing during the past summer.—Herald.

Two esteemed citizens have been called to eternal rest this week. On Saturday morning Mrs. Robert Erwin, who has been in poor health for several years quietly passed away. For over thirty years she and her husband have resided here. Mr. Erwin, eight sons and one daughter mourn her loss....On Sunday morning Mr. H. Gane, one of our patriarchs of 85 years, fell asleep after five or six weeks' illness. He spent over forty years in Georgetown and was one of its best citizens. He leaves a widow full of years and fivegrown up sons and daughters.

The ladies intend giving the usual Thanksgiving Supper in the Methodist church on the evening of Thanksgiving day.

Miss Clara E. Moore, of Acton, recited very acceptably at the Epworth League meeting Monday evening.

The newly-established market has met with a good measure of success.

Building operations have commenced on the Arnold Glove Factory.

King's Evil

That is Scrofula.
No disease is older.
No disease is really responsible for a larger mortality.

Consumption is commonly its outgrowth

There is no excuse for neglecting it. It makes its presence known by so many signs, such as glandular tumors, cutaneous eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, ulcers, catarrh, wasting and general debility.

Children of J. W. McGinn, Woodstock Ont., had scrofula sores so bad they could not attend school for three months. When different kinds of medicines had been tried to no purpose whatever, these sufferers were cured, according to Mr. McGinn's voluntary testimonial, by which has effected the most wonderful, radical and permanent cures of scrofula in old and young.
