EDITORIAL NOTES.

The new county council bill has passed the Legislature, giving counties the option of returning to the former system by which each municipality would be represented in the county council by its reeve, or of continuing the system now in vogue, by which the county is formed into four divisions, each electing two members. The present system has not been satisfactory so far as Halton is concerned. There has been a lack of the representation of the County Council which formerly obtained. A return to the system giving representation to each municipality would be more equitable, and would give both the county council and the municipal council which send it representatives a zest and an intelligent grasp of the local needs and interests which does not now prevail.

"I like to encourage a newspaper that upholds law and order, and denounces vagabondism and depravity; that opposes dissipation and tries to engender in the minds of the street corner lounger, and young men generally, a proper spirit of self-respect; that encourages enterprise; that invites competition and condemns narrowness and monopoly; that holds that public officials are the servants of the whole people and not the hirelings of the few, and that recognizes the principle of private rights. The Acton Free Press has done all this, and I am therefore pleased to renew my subscription, for which you will find an express money order enclosed herein." The above, from an esteemed subscriber of long standing in an American city, has just been received. We appreciate very much this candid expression. For a quarter of a century it has been our constant effort to make the Free Press a representative of the best interests of Acton and the County of Halton, and especially along the lines indicated above.

When the bill to incorporate the proposed new bank, The Alliance, was up for second reading in the House of Commons the other day Mr. D. Henderson, M.P., very wisely expressed the opinion that the time had come when a halt should be called upon further incorporations of this sort. Chartered banks were becoming so numerous that they had to go outside what might be called legitimate banking business to obtain the volume of business necessary to pay dividends upon the investment. They had to take to the business of stock brokers, and in this way encouraged speculation to a dangerous degree. A great deal of capital was sent out of the country on speculative business, and therefore he would move at a later date to insert the following clause: "Notwithstanding anything contained in the bank act, the said bank shall not, either directly or indirectly, lend money or make advances upon the security of, or take as collateral security for any loan made by it, the bonds, stocks and other securities and obligations of any company—or corporation or body corporate not incorporated by the Parliament of Great Britain, or by the Parliament of Canada, or Province of Ontario, until the consent thereto of the shareholders of said bank shall have been obtained at a general meeting of the said bank specially called for that purpose."

ACTON WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

A Delightful Afternoon and Evening on the Lawn at Moorecroft.

Seventy-six of the ladies of Acton and vicinity gathered on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. H. P. Moore to participate in the excellent programme of practical and social events provided by the Women's Institute. The ideal weather of a bright summer afternoon, and the grassy lawn and the grateful shade of the spreading trees contributed much to the pleasures of the day.

At the afternoon sessions, Miss Millar, of Guelph, gave a practical and thoroughly interesting address on "A Pound of Butter." Although there were comparatively few butter makers in the audience all present appreciated the address.

Miss Hill, of Toronto, gave demonstrations in cooking along domestic science lines. Her demonstrations were 1, cuts of meat and methods of cooking, 2, meat sauces, 3, fruit dressings. Miss Hill is an experienced demonstrator and gives lucid explanations as she proceeds with her subject.

At five o'clock tea was served on the lawn and an hour was afterward spent in social intercourse and strolling about Moorecroft grounds.

Shortly after seven the company was again called to order when Miss Millar gave an instructive address on "Our Institute Work," and Miss Hill emphasized very practically "the care and cleansing of cooking utensils."

The ladies present felt that many points of practical and adaptable value had been brought out during the day and that the social character of the gathering had been most pleasant.

Miss Maude Nelson, whose indefatigable efforts as president since the organization of the Institute have done so much to bring it to its present state of success, presided. As her term of office expired with this meeting Mrs. T. E. M. Secord was elected to succeed her.

MALE TEACHER AT HIGH SCHOOL

The Estimated Requirements For School Purposes This Year $3,200.

COUNCIL IS ASKED FOR ONLY $150 MORE THAN LAST YEAR.

Monday's session of the Board of Education was an unusually important one. Two large questions were considered—the estimates for the current year and the employment of a competent, experienced and well paid male teacher at the head of the High School Department. The estimates below show that with needed alterations and improvements to school building, and the proposed improvement to the staff of the High School Department the expenditures of the current year will reach $3,200. This, however, necessitates a requisition of only $150 in advance of last year from the municipal treasury, and more than that sum has already been expended for alterations and improvements to the school building. It will readily be seen by those who make a critical study of the financial matters of the school that this result has only been accomplished by very economical paring by the Board of all expenditures down to the lowest possible necessities. The High School Dept. is not proving a heavy burden; its revenues alone at a conservative estimate reaching this year the handsome sum of $165, and it is reasonably hoped that next year this will have increased to $800.

The Board met in regular session at 8 o'clock p. m. Members present: W. R. Kenney, chairman; Dr. McKeague, W. H. Denny, R. B. Johnstone and H. Grindell.

Mr. J. S. Coleman, the newly-elected member, signed the declaration of office and took his seat.

The Committee on Finance presented their seventh report and recommended payment of the following accounts:

W. D. Anderson, repairs to coal room	$15 00
W. L. Worden, staining and varnishing seats and chairs	3 50
The Acton Free Press, chairman's receipt book	2 15

Moved by R. B. Johnstone, seconded by J. S. Coleman, that the report just read be adopted.—Carried.

Moved by S. A. McKeague, seconded by R. B. Johnstone, that the Property Committee be instructed to have the various rooms of the school renovated during the holidays.—Carried.

Moved by S. A. McKeague, seconded by W. H. Denny, that the secretary be instructed to advertise in the Mail and Empire and the Globe for a male teacher to take charge of the High School Dept., in which two teachers are employed, personal application to be preferred and applications to be received until 20th July.—Carried.

The estimates for the year having been considered in detail, it was moved by H. Grindell, seconded by R. B. Johnstone, that the estimates of receipts and expenditures for the current year be as follows:

RECEIPTS.

Legislative grant, Public School	$ 175

The Sad Condition of a Bright Little Girl Until Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Came to Her Rescue.

Many young girls, seemingly in the best of health, suddenly grow listless and lose strength. The color leaves their cheeks; they become thin, have little or no appetite, and suffer from headaches and other bodily pains. Such was the case of Bessie, youngest daughter of Mr. Chas. Cobleigh, Eaton Corner, Que. Speaking of his daughter's illness and subsequent cure, Mr. Cobleigh says:—"Up to the age of eleven, Bessie had always enjoyed the best of health, and took great pleasure in out-of-door play. Suddenly, however, she seemed to lose her energy; her appetite failed her; she grew thin and listless; slept badly at night, and complained of distressing headaches in the morning. We thought that rest would be beneficial to her, and so kept her from school, but instead of regaining her strength, she grew weaker and weaker. To make matters worse, she began to suffer from pains in the side, which were almost past endurance. At this stage we decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After a couple of weeks the good effect of this medicine was decidedly apparent. Bessie became more cheerful, her step quicker, her eyes were brighter, and she seemed more like her former self. We continued giving her the pills for several weeks longer, until we felt that she had fully recovered her health and strength. I honestly believe had it not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills our daughter would not have recovered, and I shall always have a good word to say for this medicine."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure all troubles that arise from poverty of the blood or weak nerves. Among such troubles may be classed anæmia, headache, neuralgia, erysipelas, rheumatism, heart ailments, dyspepsia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, and the ailments that render miserable the lives of so many women. Be sure you get the genuine with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around every box. Sold by all medicine dealers, or sent post paid, at 50c. per box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writing direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

On July, the 1st, the family of Mr. C. Swackhamer, and mostly all the family connection, assembled at the home of Mr. Austin Swackhamer, on lot 5, Fourth Line, Erin, whose family welcomed the nearly half a hundred relatives who assembled, and gave them the opportunity of spending the day in a sociable manner. After the good things were served and much enjoyed, the afternoon was spent in giving music and swinging, which was much enjoyed by the little folks. Both old and young went home satisfied that they had spent a day of enjoyment.

Dark Hair

CREWSONS CORNERS.

Statute labor is the order of the day at present.

Quite a number of the farmers in this vicinity have commenced haying.

A number from here took in the picnic at Dublin on the 1st.

Rev. W. H. Garnham delivered a sermon on the founder of Methodism, John Wesley, on Sunday, 28th inst. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Crewson, jr., returned home from Luther and Proton last week. Mr. Crewson was engaged in locating wells for farmers in those townships.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stephenson, of Burks' Falls, visited friends in this neighborhood last week.

It was with feelings of deepest regret that this community heard, on Monday morning, of the death of Mrs. W. Greives, of Toronto Jct., which occurred on Sunday, after a few months' illness from lung trouble, at the home of her father, Mr. A. Kingsbury, near Eden Mills. Deceased was well known in this vicinity, having spent the greater part of her young life here. Few of our young people were more loved or esteemed by young and old than was Mrs. Greives, nee Miss Jennette Kingsbury, and when she left here a few years ago as the bride of Mr. W. Greives she carried with her the best wishes of all. Deceased leaves a sorrowing husband and two children of tender years to mourn her loss. To her parents, brothers and sisters we also extend our deepest sympathy.

Miss Lois Crewson, of Everton, spent a few days at her home here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Havens, of Guelph, visited at Mr. B. Swackhammer's last week.

Miss Tena Moore, of Eden Mills, spent a few days last week at Mr. Jas. Moore's "Mount Pleasant" farm.
