EDITORIAL NOTES.

The banishment of playing cards and liquors from the Pennsylvania passenger trains, says The Chicago Interior, is another indorsement, from the plain business side of things, for the objection of moralists to these agencies of evil. The prohibition, it may be assumed, is based wholly upon the propensity of men who love gambling and men who love drinking to make themselves a nuisance in such a varied company as a railroad coach gathers together.

It is about settled that it is at present impracticable for the corporation to supply electric power to Mr. Noble for his elevator, or to any other users of power who might desire it. The cost of changing the present plant to supply both light and power satisfactorily would be greater than the amount received from those who might use the power would warrant. The present plant could not be changed to supply power without sacrificing the machinery, which is giving excellent satisfaction in producting current for lighting.

The great difference between The Canadian Magazine, on the one hand, and the other leading magazines sold in this country, is the national character of the contributions and contributors. The other magazines deal with topics especially interesting to residents of the United States or Great Britain; The Canadian Magazine discusses questions of importance to the people of this country, while its stories and poems reflect Canadian life and incident. The November number, for example, discusses only Canadian topics, and every contributor is a Canadian.

The workers of the Lord's Day Alliance have been greatly encouraged of late by the support received from some of the Roman Catholic clergy in the eastern provinces. Archbishop Bruchesi, of Montreal, recently denounced the wholesale Sabbath desecration carried on at Viauville—a suburb of Montreal—where games and sports are regularly carried on during Sunday afternoons. This episcopal letter, which was read in all of the Roman Catholic Churches interested, refers to the gatherings on the public squares and in the places of amusement, "violating without scruple the most sacred teaching of our holy religion" and "profaning openly the Lord's Day," and speaks of "the culpable tolerance of the municipal authorities." The archbishop denounces Sunday excursions for the benefit of benevolent undertakings as "badly disguised sacrilege," and forbids it most vigorously.

THE INFLUENCE OF THE YOUTH'S COMPANION.

The gospel of good cheer brightens every page of The Youth's Companion. Although the paper is nearly seventy-seven years of age, it does not look back on the past as a better period than the present.

The Companion believes that the time most full of promise is the time we are living in, and every weekly issue reflects this spirit of looking forward and not back.

To more than half a million American families it carries every week its message of cheer. Its stories picture the true characteristics of the young men and women of America. Its articles bring nearly three million readers in touch with the "best thought of the most famous of living men and women.

The Annual Announcement Number fully describing the principal features of The Companion's new volume for 1904 will be sent to any address free.

The new subscriber for 1904 will receive all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1903 free from the time of subscription, also The Companion Calendar for 1904, litographed in twelve colors and gold.

A RECORD COUNCIL MEETING.

The Municipal Council Sat for Exactly Twelve Minutes on Monday Evening.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Council on Monday evening was a record meeting. The docket was the smallest of the year and occupied but twelve minutes in passing it through the regular stages.

The Committee on Finance presented their 21st report and recommended payment of the following accounts:

John Harvey, express and cartage	$1 00
Henderson & Co., supplies	1 32
Richard Wilson, work on street	75
	$3 07

Moved by Geo. Hynds, seconded by H. Jeans, that the finance committee's report just read be adopted.—Carried.

The Reeve mentioned that a deputation of ladies had requested the use of the rooms at present rented as law offices for a public reading room.

The Council concluded that as Solicitor McLean has a yearly lease of the rooms no present action could be taken without his consent.

The question of Mr. Noble's request for power was referred to. The members present considered that the supplying of electric power was at present a question that could not reasonably deal with.

The Council adjourned at 8.12

The people of Acton extend to the delegates to the Convention a cordial welcome to the town, to our homes and hearts, and sincerely trust their visit will be profitable and enjoyable in all respects.

LIMEHOUSE.

Work has begun on the digging of the foundation of Mr. T. P. Ivens' new residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Moffatt, of Nassagaweya, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. L. Chisholm.

Miss Fannie Ivens, of Toronto, and Mr. W. Craig, of Brantford, have been visiting at Mr. T. P. Ivens'.

Mr. Albert Meredith is suffering from an attack of blood poison.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Moore, of the FREE PRESS, Acton, made friends here a brief visit last Thursday.

Mrs. John Moore and Mr. Albert Moore attended the great Harold Jarvis Concert at Acton on Friday night.

The Toronto Lime Co. are converting one of their big draw kilns into a coal burner. Power will be used from the mill.

Mr. Frank Moore, who has been on the staff of the Merchants Bank, Acton, the past year and a half, has been sent to Hespeler.

ROCKWOOD.

The forty-seventh anniversary services of the Rockwood Methodist Church will be held next Sunday, 8th inst. Rev. T. R. Todd, of Paisley Street Church, Guelph, will preach at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The Killin-Keough Concert Company proved to be first-class artists in every respect. It seems too bad that talent of this quality should lack appreciation in a place of this size, and the gentlemen who were instrumental in getting up this concert should have the support, at least, of their fellow-lodgemen.

The Traders Bank has opened a branch here under the management of Mr. Albert Black, who has offices in the Massey-Harris building near the station.

The school commencement concert is to be held on Nov. 9th. Mr. John Strachan, Mr. J. P. Downey, M. P., and other celebrities will be present, and a programme by the children will be as usual the great drawing card.

The Eckhart Family, bell-ringers, will give a concert on the 12th inst. under the auspices of the Public Library.

Some very funny Hallow E'en pranks were performed on the staid burghers on Saturday night, but as usual some did not realize when the limit of fun had been reached and did unnecessary damage.

THE HAROLD JARVIS CONCERT.

Provided by the Oddfellows Delighted a Large and Appreciative Audience.

A couple of months ago the members of Acton Lodge I. O. O. F. determined to provide the community with a high-class entertainment at popular prices. To this end they engaged at large expense, Harold Jarvis, the renowned tenor, of Detroit, and commissioned him to secure a first-class lady soloist, and a reader of well-known ability and repute. Mr. Jarvis' choice was eminently satisfactory, for Miss Helen Watson, contralto, Toronto, and Mrs. Helen Wyrick Shafor, reader, Detroit, won the hearts of the large audience in their respective numbers. To understand how thoroughly the people enjoyed the skilful efforts of this galaxy of entertainers it is only necessary to mention the fact that every number on the programme was heartily encored, and in every case the artists good-naturedly responded with selections equal acceptable with the numbers appearing on the printed programme.

It is said that music holds subject to its imperitive will every emotion, from the most reverent devotion to the wildest gushes of frolicsome joy, and it was so on this occasion. And this applied not only to the selections of the vocalists, but to those of the elocutionist as well, for there certainly was music in her sweet voice, ringing laughter and winning manner.

Mr. Jarvis was in splendid form. His powerful, well-trained voice, wide range and perfect articulation, enabled him to render his numerous numbers with a skill which charmed the audience. He is certainly a master of his profession. Miss Watson, the contralto, has a splendid voice. Her manner and dress induced the involuntary comment "sweet simplicity." Her rich, well-modulated voice gave evidence in every number of inherent ability and careful culture. Their selections were popular rather than classical, but they were none the less enjoyable nevertheless. The duett by Miss Watson and Mr. Jarvis showed a harmonious blending of their rich voices, and a sympathetic interpretation of the composer's music.

It is but fair to assert that Mrs. Shafor, the reader, occupied no second place in the estimation of the audience with the musical artists. Her execution was magnificent. Her happy manner was imperitively infectious, and her versatility was charming. The selections, like those of Mr. Jarvis and Miss Watson, had the merit of being new. There was not a chestnut among them; but there was variety, and there was an abundance of natural life-like delineations and well-told anecdotes and stories. Mrs. Shafor is without doubt one of the finest readers who has ever entertained an Acton audience.

By her dignified manner and skilful execution Miss Margaret Zoellner, of Berlin, proved herself an accompanist of ability. Mr. Jarvis complimented her highly and said her interpretation of his selections was everything he could desire.

The Oddfellows certainly deserve the thanks of all interested for presenting this first-class entertainment for the edification of the public. Although they set out with an expense which they hardly hoped to cover from the sale of tickets, so well patronized was their effort, that the treasurer finds himself with a small balance to add to the exchequer of the Lodge.

THE FARMER'S ADVOCATE EVERY WEEK.

From 1866 to 1883 the Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine was published monthly, establishing itself as the only national agricultural paper in the country. Since January 1st, 1893, nearly eleven years ago, it has been issued semi-monthly. Still in the lead, keeping abreast of the times, and awake to the growing demands of its readers, the publishers now announce that, beginning with the 1st of January, 1904, the Farmer's Advocate will be issued every week. The splendid record of the past thirty-eight years is a sufficient assurance of the increased practical service which its readers may expect. We congratulate the Advocate upon its enterprise, and advise our readers to send at once for a free sample copy to the publishers, London, Ont.

Aching Joints

In the fingers, toes, arms, and other parts of the body, are joints that are inflamed and swollen by rheumatism—that acid condition of the blood which affects the muscles also.

Sufferers dread to move, especially after sitting or lying long, and their condition is commonly worse in wet weather.

"I suffered dreadfully from rheumatism, but have been completely cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, for which I am deeply grateful." MISS FRANCES SMITH, Prescott, Ont.

"I had an attack of the grip which left me weak and helpless and suffering from rheumatism. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and this medicine has entirely cured me. I have no hesitation in saying it saved my life." M. J. McDONALD, Trenton, Ont.

The publishers of the Guelph Mercury have issued a beautiful three colored picture, suitable for framing, of the Ontario Agricultural College. The view is taken from a position south-west of the Poultry and Dairy Departments, and includes all the buildings, those of the new Macdonald Institute among the number. The picture is 11½ x 21 inches in size, and, when framed, will make a pretty and appropriate ornament in any farm home. Owing to the universal interest in the institution, and the really meritorious nature of the picture, the latter should add popularity to an already popular and well-conducted newspaper, such as the Weekly Mercury is. The subscription price is $1.00. Persons desirous of getting the Weekly Mercury and its picture, as well as the Acton FREE PRESS, should order through this office, and get the two papers and the picture for $1.75. Balance of the present year free to new subscribers.
