Celebrating excellence

Steven Macdonnell Brookville

Steven, a Grade 8 student, is a very successful learner who excels academically and has excellent work habits. He is exceptional in his willingness to help others and he also looks for opportunities to extend his own learning by asking questions and thinking critically. His involvement in the school includes high academic achievement, sports teams, the music program and student forum.

*Madalyn Murray
Gardiner Public School*

Madalyn, a Grade 8 student, is an excellent student working tirelessly in all areas. She has been part of the school band and her school work is of the highest quality. She helps others, is kind, helpful and leads quietly.

*Ailish McDonald
Glen Williams*

Ailish, a Grade 5 student, was selected because of her exemplary effort, attitude and high academic achievement. She demonstrates all the components of the Tribes agreements and treats everyone with respect and courtesy. She is a positive role model for her peers and leader within the school. In addition, Ailish is one of the student representatives on our Safe Schools Action Team.

Benjamin Watson Centennial

Ben, a Grade 8 student, is a true leader and role model for his peers. He is well respected by both staff and students and is always positive and very enthusiastic. Ben is an honours student and is actively involved in numerous activities at school including: volleyball, track, Student Leaders, coaching, band and more. He naturally assumes a leadership role motivating others to achieve their very best both within the school and in the community.

*Caite Theodore
George Kennedy*

Caite, a Grade 5 student, is a well-rounded, hard working student and a wonderful role model for others. She achieves academically, maintaining good grades in all subjects areas. Caite participated on the IT

Crew, the musical, is a lunch monitor for younger students, a bus buddy for Kindergarten students and played on the basketball and cross-country teams. What impresses her teachers the most though, is her positive attitude and effort each and every day, because she is always willing to try her best!

*Mariah Domingos
Holy Cross*

Mariah's solid Catholic values are clear in her strong sense of commitment to her family, her school and the community. She is a model of our Catholic Graduate Expectations by her interactions with others and her focus on helping everyone in her community.

*Colin O'Hara
Harrison*

Colin exemplifies the 5 C's at Harrison (common sense, consideration, caring, courtesy, co-operation). He is mature, responsible, and always acts in a positive manner. The Grade 5 student is involved in extra-curricular activities and is an academically sound student who sets goals and always seeks to improve. Colin is also involved in activities outside of school.
