Paid Dog Tax With Costs.

Paid Him an Hundred Fold.

Two years ago Thomas Elliott purchased four bushels of Mammoth Cluster oats, paying what was considered an outrageous price for them. He kept one growing them, and has just sold 400 bushels to a well-known seed house in Toronto at a price that leaves him a good round sum on his investment.—Champion.

The death occurred on Monday at Clifton Springs, N.Y., of Judge John MacPherson Hamilton, formerly of Kingston. He was the eldest son of the late Hon. Five years ago superannuation was granted.

Bouquets Still Being Gathered.

While the sharp frosts of the past week or so have injured the tender varieties of flowers and plants, many of the hardier varieties of geraniums, petunias, asters and others continue to bloom in sheltered places. A large table bouquet of such flowers gathered outside at Moorecroft on the 15th October, adorns the desk in the FREE PRESS business office, and has been greatly admired by scores of callers and passersby.

Knox Church Items of Interest.

The pre-communion service was held last Thursday evening when Rev. Wm. B. Findlay, B.A., of St. Enoch's church, Toronto, preached an impressive and very appropriate sermon. Rev. J. C. Wilson, B.A., the pastor, preached at the communion service on Sunday morning. Several new members were received. .... The annual thank-offering meeting of the Guforth Mission Band of Knox Church, held on Monday evening, was a decided success. Mr. W. D. McDonald, of Knox College, gave an excellent address on his work in a mission field in Alberta during the summer. This, with solos from Miss McNabb, of Rockwood, and Miss Thompson, and selections by the orchestra made a very interesting evening.

Sermons by a Venerable Divine.

Rev. W. C. Henderson, D.D., of Guelph, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church last Sunday and preached very earnest and helpful discourses. In the morning the sermon was missionary in character and emphasized the duty of Christians as to personal work and support of the cause of God. The evening sermon was evangelistic in character and was an earnest exhortation to his hearers to turn to Christ. Dr. Henderson this year celebrated his jubilee as a Christian minister. He entered the work in 1857 and his first circuit was Port Hope. He was received into full connection and ordained at London in 1860, and was elected President of the London Conference in 1884. Dr. Henderson is still a man of strong mental and physical vigor, and is very active in Christian work.

Death of Mrs. Robert Wallace.

Just as the morning light was breaking yesterday the happy spirit of Mrs. Robert Wallace, Mill Street, fled from the pain-racked frame. Her end was great peace, but her bereft husband and family feel keenly the great loss they have sustained. Five years ago Mrs. Wallace was taken seriously ill and for weeks lay in a very low condition. She rallied, but a year ago was again stricken with painful heart and liver ailments and has since been gradually growing weaker. Loving hands ministered to her wants and she appreciated very fully all that was done for her. Mrs. Wallace was the daughter of the late Graham Macdonald, Nassagaweya, and was joined in wedlock to Mr. Wallace on the 10th October, 1877. They lived for seven years on their farm in Esquesing and came to Acton in 1884. Three daughters blessed their home, Misses Annie and Rubena at home, and Mrs. W. H. Garing, Wingham. Mrs. Wallace was a sincere Christian, a member of Knox Church from girlhood, and was possessed of a most lovable disposition. She was highly esteemed everywhere. Great sympathy will be felt for the family in their bereavement. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock to Fairview cemetery.

Many men have many minds, but not many of us are mind readers, all the same.

THEIR SILVER WEDDING DAY

Celebrated on Monday by Our Esteemed Citizens, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown.

BROWN-MATTHEWS — At the residence of the bride's parents, Acton, on Wednesday, 13th October, 1882, by Rev. William Bryers, William Brown, of Limehouse, to Emily Jane, eldest daughter of John Matthews, Esq.

The above announcement appeared in the FREE PRESS twenty-five years ago and told the story of the union of the hearts of two happy young people here. The event was celebrated in the house on Mill Street, now owned and occupied by Mr. Robert Moore and family. This was the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews twenty-five years ago.

For twenty-five years Mr. and Mrs. Brown have travelled life's pathway together, and while their life has been a very busy one, they have enjoyed very much of pleasure and blessing. After their marriage they settled on Mr. Brown's farm in the Scotch Block. Here they resided for ten years and celebrated their tin wedding. The next spring they came to Acton and for nearly fifteen years have lived on Main Street, just north of the Grand Trunk Railway.

Sunday saw the completion of their first twenty-five years of wedded life, and the event was celebrated on Monday by a very pleasant gathering of near relatives at a function formally known as a silver wedding, but which Mrs. Brown modestly refers to as a little family gathering. The afternoon and evening were most enjoyably spent, and the affair had a tendency to renew the youth of the popular bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were the recipients of many sincere evidences of goodwill from their friends.

The guests present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. James Brown and Misses Alice and Nellie, Acton; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Brown, Limehouse; Mr. Walter Devereaux, John and Misses Elsie and Laura, Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews and Miss Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fernley, Clarence, and Misses Edna and Hesse, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Matthews, Hamilton; Mrs. T. Somerville and Miss Ada, Acton; Miss Belle McLachlan, Toronto, and Miss Laura Rose, of the O.A.C., Guelph.

The FREE PRESS hopes Mr. and Mrs. Brown may be spared in continued happiness and prosperity to celebrate their golden wedding.

The shortest life is sufficiently long to feel regret in.

McKinnon, Principal of the Thessalon schools, says: "I am quite initiated in my new field in this part of New Ontario, and although the responsibility is rather great and the work hard there is sufficient fascination about it to make it enjoyable. I trust that everything in Acton is going on smoothly."

The friends have received particulars of the death on the 1st inst of Miss Jean Laurie Maclaren at the home of her uncle, John B. Laurie, purchasing agent of the Central Vermont Railway, St. Albans, Vt.
