Manitoba's new Provincial Government's Liquor License bill purposes some radical changes in the law. Of these the most important is one which the Liberals urged strongly during the last election campaign and which formed part of their platform. A majority, instead of a three-fifths vote, will hereafter, if the bill be passed, be sufficient to carry a local option by-law, and in case of the repeal of such a by-law two years are required to elapse before it can be re-submitted.

The majority of the members of the Ontario Legislature have presented to the House petitions from churches of all denominations, temperance societies and kindred organizations in all parts of the province, calling upon the government to alter the three-fifths clause in the local option section of the Liquor Act, while others go further and ask for the total abolition of the public drinking bar. The government has given no indication that it will do either, but, in the meantime, the Liberals of the province are discussing the advisability of adopting the banishment of the public bar as the big plank in their platform for the coming election.

A Visit to Acton After 40 years.

Mr. James Stewart, of Windsor, has been spending the past week with Acton friends, the guest of Postmaster Matthews. Mr. Stewart was for some time a resident of Acton back in the sixties of last century. He was then a clerk in the Post Office, and recalls many incidents of interest reminiscent of the early days. He was a member of No. 6 Company of the Volunteers, and it was him who received the telegraph message from J. C. Allan, then in St. Catharines in 1866, to the effect "The Fenians are coming; have our company come at once to the front." Mr. Stewart was one of the party of six who left Acton the same day and proceeded to Niagara Falls by way of Hamilton. He received his veteran's medal for this service, and felt much regret that he was too late in his visit to see Col. Allan again and have a talk over the stirring times of forty years ago.

St. Valentine's Carnival.

The fancy dress carnival announced for Friday evening was necessarily postponed owing to the mild weather and poor ice. It was, however, held on Monday evening and was a splendid success. The ice was good, the weather propitious, and the attendance large. There was a good representation of costumed skaters, among whom of course the Queens of Hearts predominated. Prizes were awarded as follows: Best lady skater in costume, Miss Jean Hynds, "Canadian girl;" best gentleman skater, Gordon Hayman, "Ah English gentleman;" best couple in costume, 1st, Miss Bessie Johnstone and Fred Graham; 2nd, Miss Eleanor Watson and H. H. Unsworth; best national costume, Miss Agnes Bell "Queen Elizabeth;" best costumed couple, Miss Jean McPherson and G. P. Hayman, bride and groom; boys' race, 1st, Austin Lehman, 2nd, Ralph Swackhamer; best clown, Ross Swackhamer. The judges were Messrs. I. Francis and Ed. Ryder. After the judging the ice was open to all comers and the crowd enjoyed themselves.

Death of Mrs. (Col.) Murray.

There passed away at the home of her daughter Mrs. (Capt.) Curry on the 10th inst., one of the pioneers of Esquesing in the person of Mrs. (Col.) Murray, at the age of 87 years. Mrs. Murray was the daughter of the late Capt. Alex. McNab and was born on the 14th of April, 1821, at lot 2, con. 2, Esquesing. When a child her father bought the farm now owned by Robert Noble Esq., of Norval, which place was called McNabsville until 1827, here she spent her girlhood. In 1844 she married Richard Tracy, Esq., of Stewarttown, the first Clerk and Treasurer of Esquesing, who died in 1855. Their family consisted of four children, two of whom are still living, Mrs. (Capt.) Curry and J. A. Tracy, the present Township Clerk. About 1857 Mrs. Tracy married the late Col. Murray who had succeeded Mr. Tracy as Township Clerk, which office he held till his death in 1892, (87 years). Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Murray, a son who died in infancy, and Mr. C. G. Murray, of Stewarttown. Since the death of her daughter, Miss Tracy, in 1897, Mrs. Murray has made her home with Capt. and Mrs. Curry. The deceased was a member of the Church of England and a true Christian woman. Her family mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother. The funeral which took place on Friday was largely attended notwithstanding the condition of the roads.

Trying Experiences on the Roads.

After the thaw and the ice storm the roads were almost impassible for a few days, and drivers have had many trying experiences in endeavoring to travers them. On Saturday night Mr. A. R. Bell, of Nassagaweya, received intimation of the critical illness of his brother Dr. J. M. Bell. He left home for Acton at eleven o'clock and did not reach here until five o'clock Sunday morning. His horse was so badly caulked in one of his feet that several stitches were necessary in dressing the wound...... On Sunday afternoon Rev. Matthew Wilson started to drive to Rockwood for his afternoon service at St. John's Church. After floundering about the road for a couple of hours he decided that the trip was impossible and returned to the Rectory.
