Rev. Mr. Wilson Resumes Work

Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., pastor of Knox Church, has returned from his month's visit in Boston, where he spent a most enjoyable vacation. Rev. Mr. Wilson will occupy his pulpit again next Sunday.

New School Books After Vacation

The regulations of the Education Department of the Province require the introduction of the new readers in the Public Schools and certain new text books in the High Schools at the re-opening of the schools after vacation. The new books are considerably lower in price than those formerly in use, and are calculated to give the pupils a new zest in their studies and to better fit them for the various examinations from year to year.

The Halton Insurance Co. Prospering

The monthly meeting of Halton Union Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. was held in the town hall on Monday. President Jno. Ramsay occupied the chair and all the directors were present. The following losses were reported and passed and cheques ordered to be remitted for same: R. E. Hall, Trafalgar, barn and contents, $1000; Margaret Binnie, Erin, damage to contents of house, $5; Herbert Fletcher, Nassagaweya, three cattle killed by lightning $88; A. T. Mann, Esquesing, horse killed by lightning $15; Joseph Flynn, Esquesing, cow killed by lightning, $15; Ephriam Moore, Esquesing, steer killed by lightning, $25. The business of the company is prospering and a splendid surplus is shown at the end of the half year.

Mrs. Robertson as a Life Saver

By the explosion of a gas range in home of Mr. W. Evans, G. T. R. conductor, Stratford, one day last week, five persons were more or less seriously burned. With clothing on fire, Miss Kischel, one of the inmates, rushed across the street to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Robertson. The former met the blazing girl in the roadway, and saved her hair by snatching off her burning hat. Mrs. Robertson wrapped a quilt about Miss Kischel's body, extinguishing the flames, and saving the young girl's life. As it was, Miss Kischel was terribly burned. The house took fire, and an alarm was turned in for the fire brigade, which soon put out the blaze. All are suffering considerably, and Miss Kischel's recovery is still in doubt.—Herald.

Struck Gas at 1660 Feet

The Halton Oil & Gas Co.'s drill struck the granite last week at a depth of 1660 feet without having struck a flow of oil. Yesterday, Mr. Thompson, the driller in charge, together with Morgan Crewson, was in town and report having obtained a fine flow of natural gas, which becoming ignited is burning at time of going to press, flames therefrom reaching over 10 feet high. Mr. Thompson says it is difficult at this stage to exactly estimate the quantity of gas which can ultimately be obtained, but he is making preparations for capping the well. At a meeting of the directors held in Milton on Friday evening it was decided to remove the drilling outfit to Milton and try another spot close to the town, where indications for oil are considered very favorable.—Champion.

Kept Hotel Here 40 Years Ago

On Tuesday of last week Thomas Ward passed away at the ripe age of 85 years. Deceased was born in Belfast, Ireland, and came to Canada sixty years ago. He spent some time in Toronto with the firm of Howland & Fitch, wholesale grocers. In 1860 he came to Acton and became landlord of the California House, a hotel which stood on the site of the Stephenson blacksmith shop on Main Street, and was destroyed by fire about the year 1870. Mr. Ward conducted the hotel for three years and forty years ago went to Guelph where he took over the Crown Hotel. Later he purchased the Victoria Hotel near the post office, but disposed of the business when the Scott Act went into force in Guelph. He has since lived retired. Mrs. Ward and two sons, William and Edward survive.

The Moore-MacKay Wedding

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. MacKay was the scene of a pretty wedding last Friday afternoon, when their eldest daughter, Eleanor Elizabeth (Bessie), became the wife of Dr. Frank H. Moore, of Toronto. The ceremony was performed at 3.30 by the Rev. J. W. Pedley of Toronto under an arch of marguerites in the parlor. The bride was given away by her father and looked pretty in a dress of white lace over taffeta silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Frances MacKay, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Frank McKinley, of St. Catharines, supported the groom. Little Margaret MacKay made a pretty flower girl. About fifty friends and relatives were present and after the ceremony all sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner which was served on the lawn. After congratulations and best wishes for a happy and prosperous future from all present, Dr. and Mrs. Moore left by the evening train for a trip up Muskoka lakes. The bride's travelling suit was of striped broadcloth with hat to match. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful ring set with diamonds and emeralds, to the bridemaid and flower girl, signet rings, and to the groomsman a pearl stick pin. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents.—Georgetown Herald.

HE CASHED A FORGED CHEQUE

H. J. Reid Got $95 on a Forged Cheque and was Arrested on Presenting a Second One

HE ESCAPED TWICE FROM CONSTABLES.

On the 8th July H. J. Reid presented a cheque for $95, purporting to be signed by George Dade, Acton, and payable to the order of H. J. Reid, at the Merchants Bank, Georgetown, and received the cash therefor. When the cheque came to Acton branch it was found to be a forgery and the Georgetown branch was notified. Proceedings were taken for Reid's arrest, but he was not apprehended until Thursday morning last, when he visited the bank at Georgetown again and presented another cheque for $90.

Constable McDonald was notified and proceeded to the bank and arrested the young man. When he found the position he was in he fainted. Upon his recovery the constable took him up street to lodge him in the cells pending his preliminary trial. When near the town hall Reid sprang away from the constable and took to his heels. He made for the railway track with the constable after him and succeeded in effecting his escape. The constables at Georgetown and elsewhere were on the lookout for him but he succeeded in eluding their vigilance until Monday.

Chief Lawson of Acton had the suspicion that Reid might have returned to Toronto, where he had been staying lately, and went to the city on Monday morning. Accompanied by Detectives Newton and Wallace of the City Detective Department, Chief Lawson proceeded to Reid's boarding house on Victoria Street. Here he found him in bed, effected his arrest, and brought him to Acton by the 5.30 train.

At seven o'clock he was brought before H. P. Moore, J. P., for preliminary trial. The managers and ledger keepers of the Merchants Bank at Acton and Georgetown, Mr. George Dade, Acton, whose name was forged to the cheque, were examined, and ample evidence was adduced to prove the forgery. In fact, at the conclusion of the trial, when the opportunity was given the accused to make such statement as he desired, he said, "I am guilty."

The magistrate therefore committed the accused to the county goal to await his trial. W. I. Dick, County Crown Attorney, Milton, appeared for the crown, and A. J. Mackinnon for the Merchants Bank.

After the trial Chief Lawson took his prisoner into the room adjoining the cells and proceeded to lock him up for the night, intending to convey him to Milton on Tuesday morning. He had removed the hand cuffs, was relieving him of the contents of his pockets, and had turned to lay them on the table, when Reed, evidently watching for the opportunity, sprang through the open door into the hall adjoining and bounded out of the front door of the hall to the street. The constable and a number of others gave chase up Willow Street, over the power house dam and over the G.T.R. tracks, where he was lost in the darkness. He has not yet been apprehended, but the constables are on his tracks and expect to land him in a day or so.

NASSAGAWEYA

The Ebenezer Methodist Church garden party on the Church lawn on Tuesday evening was a very gratifying success. The programme was an excellent one.

Mr. Elwood Wilson, thresher, in preparing for the season's work has bought another engine and is going to be ready to fill silos and thresh at the same time.

Mr. Edward Darby and Sons commenced cutting wheat on Monday. They were the first this season in the neighborhood.

The prospects are pretty good for spring crops this year, after all.

Bannockburn's Success

The results of the Entrance Examinations are highly creditable to the pupils and teacher of S. S. No. 13, Esquesing. Of the six candidates prepared by Miss McMurchy, who wrote on the examinations at Acton, five were successful. Congratulations.

Removing to Rockwood

Mr. Grundy, the Main Street grocer, has purchased the Rockwood bakery business and will take possession in a few weeks. He is clearing out his business here.

Sunday School Hay Drive and Pic-nic

A committee of the Methodist Sunday School is arranging for the annual hay drive and pic-nic. The date will be fixed to suit the convenience of the farmers, who so generously provide teams for conveying the 300 or 400 picnicers on their drive. It will probably be held about the last week of August.

Oakville's New Waterworks

The demonstration by the fireman of new waterworks system, on Wednesday evening should be a great gratification to property owners. To see a stream of water being thrown within a few feet of the top of the Presbyterian church steeple was an eye-opener. And that with two streams off one hydrant. Such pressure is abundant for any city and should more than answer all requirements in Oakville.—The Star.
