Withington on Suspended Sentence

Chas. Withington, who stole his wife's bank account, her jewelry and an overcoat from the American Hotel, was on Saturday afternoon allowed to go on suspended sentence, on all three charges by Judge Chadwick. Withington apparently had been out on a big drunk, when he had got into trouble and there was a strong petition from the neighbors and friends for clemency, which received full consideration from the bench. The prisoner also promised to make restitution as soon as possible for the amount he had taken from his wife's bank account.—Guelph Mercury.

The Methodist S. S. Banquet

The annual banquet of the Methodist Sunday School last Wednesday evening was an event of much interest and enjoyment—especially to the juniors. The scholars were there en masse. In many cases they were accompanied by their parents. There were also the members of the Cradle Roll and of the Home Department. The teachers and officers gave first attention to the comfort of the large company and they succeeded admirably. The beginners and primary classes had right of way and were served at six o'clock. From that hour until eight table after table was filled and ample justice was done to the abundance of good things provided. An interesting programme was then given in the auditorium. There were addresses by Rev. Dr. Antliff, the pastor, and H. P. Moore, superintendent; a liberal repertoire of orchestral music by the Sunday School Orchestra; vocal numbers by the King's Orderlies Bible Class; a male quartette; solo and chorus by Miss Bertie Smith and ten girls; a lullaby solo by Miss Stella McLean; cornet and organ duett by Misses Lottie and Hazel Mason; a reading by Miss Clara E. Moore, and a 'cello solo by Mr. C. W. Mason. The Superintendent referred to the splendid missionary spirit which permeates the school, and reported that while the amount aimed at for the year was $200, the sum of $214.42 had been contributed. The proceedings concluded at 9.30 with the benediction.

Nowadays every up-to-date woman has radiant hair.

In Paris most women have beautiful hair, and in Canada all women who use Parisian Sage have lustrous and luxuriant hair.

And any woman reader of the Free Press can have attractive and lustrous hair in a few days' time by using this great hair rejuvenator, Parisian Sage.

A. T. Brown sells a large bottle for 50 cents and he guarantees it to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is an ideal hair tonic, not sticky or greasy.

ACTON'S FIRST MINISTER'S WIFE

Widow of the Late Rev. John McLachlan Died in Toronto Last Week

FIRST LADY OF THE MANSE HERE

The death of Mrs. Maclachlan, widow of the late Rev. John Maclachlan, at the residence of Mr. John A. McAndrew, 51 Elm Avenue, Toronto, last Tuesday, removes one who in her lifetime saw the beginnings of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. She was the widow of the first settled minister of Knox Church, Acton, and came here in August, 1857.

The late Mrs. Maclachlan, who was Miss Anne McAndrew, of Argyleshire, Scotland, was in her 85th year, and had been a resident of Toronto for 40 years. Until shortly before her death she had devoted her attentions to the work of St. James' Square Presbyterian Church, of which she was one of the oldest members. The Board of Management of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society also counted her as one of its most valued members, as did the Board of the Industrial Refuge. The funeral will be held in Beaverton where the late Rev. Mr. Maclachlan is buried.

THE LATE REV. JOHN MACLACHLAN
First Minister of Knox Church.

One of the first missionaries to be sent to Canada by the Reformed Synod of Scotland was Rev. John Maclachlan, husband of the late Mrs. Maclachlan. He came first to Galt in 1846, where he was cordially received by a few covenanting families. His ministerial parish included the stations of Guelph, Galt, Requesing, Oneida, Hamilton and Toronto, and to show the nature of his charge and of the country requiring his attention, it is sufficient to say that in each of those places his custom was to preach a continued service of four hours, two of which were delivered in the English and two in the Gaelic dialect.

He shortly removed to Toronto where he occupied the old church which stood on James Street, near the present City Hall. The manse itself was situated near the James Street entrance to the T. Eaton Company's store. From Toronto he removed to Acton, remaining here until his removal to Beaverton, where he died in 1861. The Maclachlan family was, therefore, one of the pioneers in religious work in Canada. Back to Armady Castle, Argyleshire, Scotland, is a far cry, but none the less a true one, for it was there that the mother of Rev. John Maclachlan was born.

Madam, Stop Buying Your Flour on a Guess

Which do YOU buy, Mistress Housewife?
Flour on a GUESS?
Or
Flour on a GUARANTEE?
When you hand over the Hard-Earned—suppose you guessed wrong?

If you can purchase flour that is guaranteed positively surely you will not buy a "guess" brand which leaves you no recourse in the event of bitter disappointment or loss of good material.

As a thrifty kitchen manager, Madam, YOU will buy FIVE ROSES flour every time—the only "money-back" flour where you take no chance since every sack is guaranteed.

We know, Madam, FIVE ROSES will save you time, trouble, disappointment—ay, and MONEY too.

We know we can do it—for thousands of happy housewives in Canada, in England, in Scotland, even in South Africa.

A household help for 21 years.

The label on every sack or barrel is your absolute guarantee, as redeemable at a signed statement, that the flour is RIGHT, the packing right, the baking right, the results right.

When we say FIVE ROSES is right, we mean it is all right. Not one pound, or two pounds at the top of the sack, but the whole sack, the entire barrel from the first cupful to the very last grain at the bottom.

Even if it takes you six months to reach the bottom, the guaranty still holds—the strongest guaranty ever given by any miller anywhere.

FIVE ROSES, Madam, will "make good" every time. Try it for bread, cakes, biscuits, puddings, pies, puffs—anything you like.

Use it down to half the sack. Then if you don't want the flour after that, your grocer will take it back and refund the full price charging you nothing for the flour used.

Surely, that's fair enough, isn't it?

Do you know, Madam, why the LAKE OF THE WOODS MILLING COMPANY, a responsible and honorable concern backed by 21 years of "square" dealing, can give this binding pledge, which no other miller in Canada cares to give?

Because FIVE ROSES doesn't need a guarantee.

Decide NOW, Madam, whether to continue buying on a GUESS—Or—Get FIVE ROSES which guarantees YOUR success every time.
