THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1910

BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

—The house cleaning season is on.

—There are more weddings on the tapis.

—Gardening operations have commenced.

—The lawns are showing pretty spring tints again.

—The roads never were better at this season of the year.

—Local Option comes into force four weeks from next Monday.

—Mr. Robert Lasby has removed to a farm at Moffat, in this county.

—The mercury registered 70° in the shade on Monday and 78° yesterday.

—Good Friday and Easter were both favored with delightful spring weather.

—The young folks have been playing croquet on the lawns this week. Just think of it, in March.

—Please examine the address label on your FREE PRESS. It shows to what date your subscription is paid.

—Mr. Robt. G. Brown has been engaged as manager of Postmaster Matthews' vegetable and fruit garden.

—W. J. Gordon, harness maker, received an order for two sets heavy harness to go out to Saskatchewan this week.

—Mr. Robert Gibbons has bought from Mr. James Dron the two lots he recently purchased from the Thos. T. Moore estate.

—Councillor A. T. Brown is having a neat summer house erected on his property at the corner of Arthur and Wellington Streets.

—Local Option may end the strike at Philadelphia. It is safe to say that the want of it has often been the cause of one.—Guelph Herald.

—Mr. T. P. Martin has purchased the bare which was on Mr. R. L. Gregory's lot on Church Street and removed it to his property across the street.

—Rev. R. W. Craw, B. A., of Fergus, preached a very impressive sermon at the preparatory service of Knox Church on Good Friday evening.

—Next Sunday is missionary day in the Methodist Church and Sunday School. Rev. K. W. Morgan, B. A., of China, will be the preacher of the day.

—The demand for houses in town continues. There are a score of applicants for every vacant dwelling and new families are coming to town every week.

—Mr. R. S. Cull, for thirteen years with D. E. Macdonald & Bros., Guelph, has opened a clothing and gents' furnishing business in the Thornton & Douglas stand on Wyndham Street.

—Mr. Will Snyder, of Churchill, was the first farmer to commence spring plowing reported to the FREE PRESS. He spent Good Friday in turning up the rich brown Churchill mold.

—Mr. Hugh McCutcheon has moved from the Reid farm on the third line to the old homestead. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McCutcheon, will continue to reside on the farm.

—The Burlington Gazette has commenced its twelfth volume. Under the business and editorial management of Mr. E. A. Harris the Gazette has enjoyed an era of continued prosperity.

—The C. P. R. station at Campbellville caught fire about midnight on Saturday and was destroyed, with a large quantity of wheat in a warehouse adjoining. The contents of the station, together with the agent's effects, were saved.

—The commendible enterprise and loyalty of Yorkton, Sask., Board of Trade to the town and district is manifested in the advertisement which appears in another column. Yorkton will no doubt attract many investors during the present season.

—Little brown bird your coverlid white melted away in the rain last night. What do I see just peeping through? Crocuses yellow, white and blue! Up above in a leafless tree a little robin sings to me: "Don't you know when I'm on the wing what to expect? The happy spring."

—Contractor Mackenzie went to Georgetown on Monday to commence operations for the erection of a fine new pressed brick residence for Mr. R. D. Warren on Main Street. The plans are very similar to the splendid residence of Mr. C. C. Henderson, cor. Bower Ave. and Willow Street.

A Great Builder.—"The D. & L." Emulsion is a great builder. It gives weight, adds healthy flesh, and altogether overcomes any downward tendency of health.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

Woman's Institute Meeting on Friday

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Institute will be held in the Council Chamber on Friday afternoon at three o'clock. The subject for the afternoon is "Recipes for Cool Dishes for Summer." All the ladies are invited to be present.

A Successful Poultryman

Ex-Reeve Williams has earned quite a reputation as a poultry fancier. He seems to have gotten the secret of successful work among his poultry, too, for his record shows that from thirty-five hens he secured 290 eggs in January, 296 in February and 515 in March. With eggs at from 25c to 35c per dozen poultry keeping on the above basis should be profitable.

Used Profane Language on the Street

On Saturday evening Constable Harvey arrested James Hamilton on Mill Street for being drunk and disorderly and using profane language. He was brought before H. P. Moore, J.P., at nine o'clock on Monday morning, pleaded guilty to the offence, and was fined $1.00 and costs or thirty days. The authorities are determined to put a stop to disorderly conduct and the use of bad language on the streets.

How It Represents the Town

A FREE PRESS subscriber, who was travelling through British Columbia last week, received a copy of the FREE PRESS en route. After reading it he left it on a chair in the parlor car. It was picked up by a couple of gentlemen in the car, one of whom was overheard to remark: "Where is Acton?" The other replied, "Well, I don't know the town, but, judging by this paper, it must be a clean, enterprising and desirable Ontario town."

Thoughts Concerning Easter

The address of Reeve Hynds, Superintendent of Knox Sunday School, at the Easter and Review Service in the Methodist School on Sunday afternoon, was most able and inspiring. His theme was "Thoughts Concerning Easter," and by means of very practical object lessons he skilfully impressed the great blessings of Easter in bringing us hope, joy, the Church of Christ, the Christian Sabbath and the Divine presence. The music of the orchestra during the service was both appropriate and impressive.

This is Clean-Up Time

Spring-time has come, the season of the year when a systematic cleaning up of all yards and outside premises becomes absolutely necessary. The dirt and debris that accumulates during the six months of winter is revealed in all its ugliness when the advent of spring removes the covering of snow. If the refuse is not removed before the April showers soak the ground, it is likely to become scattered and the work of removal becomes infinitely more laborious. Now is the time to commence the cleaning up process.

Death of Mrs. Benjamin Wallace

The death of Mrs. Benjamin Wallace occurred at midnight on Saturday after a long illness, at the family residence, lot 18, con. 7, Nassagaweya. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, the service at the house being conducted by Rev. A. N. Cooper, and at Fairview Cemetery by Rev. Dr. Antliff. Mrs. Wallace was born in Ireland and came to Canada when a child with her father. Her maiden name was Susanna O'Neill. She was married to Mr. Wallace fifty years ago the 10th of April. Besides her sorrowing husband, six children survive: Mrs. Wm. McLaughlin and Benjamin Jr., in Nassagaweya; Robert in Michigan; Miss Elizabeth, in Cleveland, Ohio; and Miss Susanna and Henry at home. The family has always lived in Nassagaweya, and for 31 years on their present homestead. Mrs. Wallace was a member of Ebenezer Methodist Church.

The Oddfellows At Home

The annual At Home of Acton Lodge I. O. O. F., No. 204, in the town hall last Thursday evening, was attended by a large company of guests. In addition to our own citizens there were visitors present from Milton, Georgetown, Erin, Toronto, Brampton and Guelph. The programme was very enjoyable, and was contributed by Markle's Orchestra, of Guelph; The Blue Ribbon Ladies' Quartette, solos by Miss Hazel Agnew, and Mr. Harry Holmes, piano duets by Misses Thompson and Leichman, Scottish humorous numbers by Mr. Alex. Munro, Scottish dancing by Miss Stikker. It was intended that Mr. I. Francis, P. G., of Toronto, should preside, but his train being very late, the programme was almost finished when he arrived. He was in time, however, to give a characteristic speech on Oddfellowship, which all enjoyed. Councillor Murray McDonald was the chairman.

D. McLaughlin's Sentence

On Thursday, Duncan McLaughlin, hostler at Donald Campbell's livery stable, at Acton, appeared before Judge Gorham, having been committed for trial by H. P. Moore, J. P., on a charge of stealing $103 from the person of his employer. Mr. Campbell swore that, on the night of Feb. 28th he was waiting in his livery office for the arrival of a rig, and lay down and went to sleep. In the morning he found that $103 was missing from his trousers pocket. Heard the prisoner was spending money freely and had him arrested. Witness identified a $50 bill and two $10 bills found on prisoner as his own. McLaughlin was sworn for defense, and said Campbell was under the influence of liquor on the night in question. He, McLaughlin, found $93 on the floor and put it in his pocket. Found later that it was Campbell's and intended to give it to him. The Judge found the prisoner guilty and sentenced him to one month in jail, with hard labor.—Champion.

LESLIES' SCHOOL

On Thursday evening, March 17th, Greenock Literary Society held their annual entertainment, the main feature of which was an oyster supper. There was a good attendance from the immediate vicinity, but owing to the condition of the roads people from a distance were unable to attend. After the oysters were served an excellent programme was rendered consisting of solos, readings, recitations, instrumental music and debate. The subject of debate was: "Resolved that Government ownership would be detrimental to Canada." The affirmative was supported by Messrs. W. P. Near and J. E. Pearen and the negative by Messrs. H. S. Leslie and J. L. Allan. The arguments on both sides were ably upheld by the speakers, each of whom spoke for twenty minutes. Decision was given in favor of the affirmative. The meeting closed by singing the national anthem.

HATS FOR MEN

For Sundays, Spring Days, Summer Days, and All Other Days

We are clearing about 100 Odd Sizes in Men's Soft and Stiff Hats at Half Price.

Fitting hats to man's heads—correctly—is not so easy a task as men sometimes suppose. Of course, anyone can go into a hat box, pull out the size of hat you wear—if it fits—all's well.

But—to "size you up" go to a certain hat box and get a certain style—one that will become you and fit you correctly, requires the skill of the experienced hat man. This is the hat service you are offered when you purchase your hat in the Macdonald Store. This hat service though, would not be possible unless we had the hats we have. That is why you can always find just the hat you want and ought to have at this store. Among the new hats that are especially favored are:—

The "SCOTT HAT" for which we are Sole Agents and priced at $1.50. It represents the very Acme of Hat Quality.

The "CHRISTY" HAT at $2.50 and $3.00. The Christy is one of the Most Popular Hats in our Department.—Other styles, The "GREVILLE," "KENMORE," "WAKEFIELD."

The "MOORE" and "IMPERIAL" HATS, priced at $2.00 and $2.50.

Soft Hats are destined to be very popular. As we've told you before, every new shape and color can be found in this splendidly equipped Hat Department. There is nothing else for us to say than ask you to visit This Store the very day you decide to buy your Spring Hat. Will you?

HATS AT HALF PRICE

Hats of every shape; Hats of every color; hats to become every man's face—that's the "size up" of our Hat Stock.

Does Your Flour, Madam, Whiten Through Kneading

We well remember our little chat with Mrs. B., an A1 breadmaker.

Said she; "After kneading my dough awhile, I often wonder how it whitens so noticeably under the hands. The more I knead and work it, the whiter it gets, more wholesome-looking, you know. That's a very encouraging thing in FIVE ROSES flour which I've sadly missed elsewhere."

Maybe, Mistress Housewife, you've noticed it, too.

But all flours, alas! are not FIVE ROSES.

With flour from poor quality wheat, poorly milled, there's no material improvement in the color of the bread due to kneading.

It's the gray that's developed, Madam, not the white.

It's whiter dough you want, whiter, the longer you knead it, and you want it so without having your elbows hinged and lubricated like John L. Sullivan's.

And FIVE ROSES, Madam, responds beautifully to the best exertion and in the morning your dough is up as light as a cork.

The strong, live dough crackles and snaps heavily as you knead it down. Then the snowy whiteness in the pans to be proved and baked!

From the oven your crusted golden loaves yield the aroma of freshly-barked hickory nuts that portends a tooth-teasing flavor irresistible.

And the kiddykins need no other call to breakfast, Madam; just follow their noses.

* * * *

Don't let your neighbor beat YOU at breadmaking. You can so easily do better, Mistress Housewife. By getting FIVE ROSES. So roll up your sleeves, Madam, and—

DO IT NOW.
