

Walk pals

Devan Wheeler, 14, and Dreyfuss, 3, get ready Sunday at the start of the Purina Walk for Dog Guides hosted by the Georgetown Lions Club. One of 200 walks, the Georgetown Walk is organized by local volunteers and provides community members with a fun and meaningful way to positively impact the lives of Georgetown residents living with disabilities. It costs $25,000 to train and place a dog guide, but thanks to the funds raised by the walk, Canadians can receive them at no cost.
