BRIEF LOCAL ITEMS

—Monday next—Acton's Civic Holiday.

—County Council meets next Tuesday.

—Reeve Hynds has proclaimed Monday next, 8th August, as Civic Holiday.

—Quite a number of Toronto's citizens spent their Civic Holiday in Acton.

—Councillor Bell broke ground for his new residence on King Street on Monday.

—The new cement bridge on Main Street will be opened for public traffic next week.

—Mr. Roy H. Wanshrough's neighbors tested a car of brick to the site of his new residence at Cowsons Corners from town yesterday.

—President Forster, of Halton Press Association, has a fine day's outing for the members and their ladies in preparation for a date to be fixed next month.

—Mrs. Walter Jones, who mysteriously disappeared from Moffat last week, is still undiscovered. It is believed she went to Toronto but no trace of her has been found.

—The new steam road roller just purchased by the County Council was brought up the second line from Milton on Monday and was put to work on the new stone roadbed below Acton on Tuesday.

—A bevy of pretty maids in white drove to Norval on Friday and picnicked on the banks of the Credit below the mill. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Humphries and Rev. Mr. Danard, of Norval, enjoyed the afternoon with them and aided them in having an enjoyable time.

Acton Boy Booming Oakville

Hearing that there was some dissatisfaction over the laying of a cement walk in Tuxedo Park the Star man inspected the district last Thursday. This visit, we confess, changed our opinion absolutely and convinced us that Coun. L. P. Snyder had done and is doing altogether too much for Oakville for the townspeople to object to his having a little extra walk, for which the property pays half. Then again Coun. Snyder had previously laid quite a stretch of walk, wholly at his own expense. He has spent a lot of money in laying out the property, in building houses and in advertising. If our town is to grow we must be prepared to deal somewhat liberally with those who help us build up.—Oakville Star.

Halton's Successful Students

Following are the names of the candidates in Halton who were successful in passing the examination for entrance to the Normal School:—C. W. Adams, (honors), J. L. Alexander, M. Biggs, V. L. Currie, E. J. Cordingly, D. Dingle, P. M. Hanna, V. M. Hall, H. M. Kennedy, N. Kennedy, E. J. Lawson, M. M. Lillie, M. G. Moffatt, G. McGregor, E. M. McPhail, J. H. Noxon, R. E. Peart, H. J. Porter, E. M. Tuck. The certificates of successful candidates and the statements of marks of those who failed will be mailed to principals or the inspector in the course of a few days. Successful candidates who desire to attend the coming session of the Normal schools must make application for admission to the Deputy Minister of Education not later than Tuesday, September 6th. In the examinations for entrance into faculty of education the following Halton pupils were successful: G. S. Hume (part I), H. M. McGibbon (part II), F. C. Noxon (part II), Amy C. Speight (part I), Florence M. Speight (part I), M. M. Stubbs (part I and part II). Miss Winnie Grindell, of Fort William, a former pupil of the High School here was also successful.

St. Alban's Sunday School Picnic

Three loads of happy scholars, with their teachers, parents and the rector, left St. Alban's Church a little before two o'clock on Monday afternoon, in farmers' hay racks, for a hay ride to Bloomsbury Grove where the annual picnic was scheduled to be consummated. A heavy thunderstorm caught the happy caravan before they had covered more than half the distance to Bloomsbury, but Mr. Fyfe Somerville, with kind-hearted generosity, opened his spacious barn to the picnickers, and, although the plans were materially changed, every one concerned votes that the afternoon was spent in just as jolly a manner as could possibly have been the case if the grove had been reached and the weather of the most delightful character. There were a number of famous swings; there was fun galore in the hay mows; there were numerous games on the barn floor, and lastly there was the picnic tea. Everybody had a ravenous appetite, and the appetizing provisions were devoured with the avidity of hungry, happy picnickers. Not only was the barn placed at the disposal of the company but the house was opened as well. Those who had the misfortune to be caught in the shower were dried in the kitchen, and here the tea and coffee were brewed. It was a fine outing and the incident of the rain storm only added interest to the occasion.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Smallpox in Wychwood

In addition to the smallpox case from the Wychwood district, which is being cared for in Swiss Cottage Hospital at the expense of the township of York, three more smallpox cases have developed in that locality. Dr. Cameron A. Warren, of Wychwood, has charge of them, and they will be cared for in tents.—Toronto Globe.

Newmarket Citizens' Hotel

The Era says: The decorators are putting on the finishing touches in the new dining room of the Forsyth House, which will be one of the finest north of Toronto. There are ceiling lights as well as chandeliers, for special occasions. The improved premises will no doubt be greatly in demand for local functions. The business of the hotel continues to improve."

Communion Next Sunday

The first quarterly communion services of the present conference year will be held in the Methodist Church next Sunday. Love feast will be held at 10 a. m., to be followed at 11 with a sermon by the pastor. The evening sermon will be at 7 o'clock and the reception of new members and administration of the sacrament will follow the sermon.

Baptist Woman's Mission Circle

The Woman's Mission Circle of the Baptist Church had a very successful meeting on Wednesday evening. The programme consisted of singing by the choir and recitations by Miss Firstbrook of Toronto. The address of the evening was given by Mrs. John Firstbrook, of Toronto, which is referred to elsewhere. The recitations by Miss Firstbrook were excellent and were very much enjoyed by the audience.

Married at Hamilton

A very pretty and quiet wedding was solemnized on Saturday, 2nd July, at St. Mary's Cathedral, Hamilton, when Rev. Father Walters united in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Esther Grey to Joseph Kaley, son of Michael Kaley, Acton. The bride, who looked charming in an allover embroidery gown, was assisted by Miss Cowish, while Austin Carty supported the groom. The presents were costly and numerous, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held. Mr. and Mrs. Kaley left on the 10.45 boat for Montreal, amid showers of confetti and best wishes.—Times.

Married at Parry Sound

A quiet wedding took place at the family residence, "Glenholm," Parry Sound, on Wednesday, July 27th, when Miss Hanna M. Walton was married to John Leslie Moore, B. A., son of the late William Moore, Acton. The ceremony was performed by the Revs. C. W. Watch and Dr. T. Albert Moore, cousin of the groom. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. F. L. Walton, was becomingly gowned in lace and chiffon and wore the bridegroom's gift, a beautiful necklace of amethysts and pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of tea roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Galna, wore a beautiful gown of blue silk crepe carrying a sheaf of Killarney roses, while the three nieces of the bride and groom, Miss Jean Morrison, Miss Marjorie Walton and Miss Winifred Walton, made charming little bridesmaids in their pretty blue and pink organdie dresses, each carrying a basket of sweet peas. Mr. Morris, of Toronto, supported the groom. The maid of honor's gift from the groom was a pearl pendant, while the bridesmaids each received prettily chased bracelets. Mr. and Mrs. Moore left on the afternoon train amid the congratulations of their friends for an extended tour among the northern lakes.

Married Yesterday in Methodist Ch.

The Methodist Church was the scene yesterday afternoon at three-thirty o'clock of a very pretty wedding when Edith Minerva, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nicklin, J. P., Bower Avenue, one of Acton's fairest and best loved maidens, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Kerr McCallum, manager of the Traders' Bank, Saskatoon, Sask. It was very fitting that the service was held in the church, inasmuch as both the grandparents of the bride—the late W. H. Storey and the late Edward Nicklin—were members of the Trustee Board which erected the church in 1875-76, and the father of the bride is now Recording Steward. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Cooper Antliff, M. A., D. D., the pastor of the bride. While the guests were assembling Mrs. (Dr.) Mercer, of Silver City, New Mexico, aunt of the bride, sang with her old-time excellence the solo "Oh Fair, oh! Sweet, oh Holy," and as the bridal party entered the church and proceeded up the aisle to the altar railing Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. (Dr.) Dryden, of Guelph, aunt of the bride. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a dainty gown of duchess satin, trimmed with brussels lace, with bridal veil, and carrying a bouquet of roses and lily of the valley. Her sister, Miss Daisy, was bridesmaid, and was gowned in maize liberty silk with milan hat trimmed with roses. Mr. Charles Campbell, of the Traders' Bank, Clifford, was groomsman, and Messrs. Harold Nicklin, of the Merchants Bank, Tilbury, brother of the bride, and Mr. Lloyd Smith, of Victoria University, Toronto, were the ushers. During the signing of the register Miss Bertie Smith sang very sweetly the solo, "Oh, Perfect Love." A reception and wedding luncheon, provided by a caterer from Guelph, at the home of the bride's parents, followed the ceremony. It was served on the lawn, amid nature's attractive surroundings. Mr. and Mrs. McCallum left by the evening train for Toronto and other points, and will visit friends at various places in Ontario, prior to leaving for their home at Saskatoon. The bride's going-away dress was a French blue diagonal, with cream lace blouse, and Italian leghorn hat. The decorations of ferns, golden rod and flowers at both the church and the residence were profuse and artistic. The groom's present to the bride was a pearl and sapphire ring, to the bridesmaid a pearl pin, and to the groomsman and ushers pearl scarf pins. The heartiest congratulations and best wishes of the community follow the happy couple.

Halton Jail Statistics

The report for 1909 of the Inspector of Prisons and Reformatories shows 11 prisoners sentenced in Halton, 1 less than in the previous year. The number committed was 176. The average cost per day for each prisoner was 18.19 cents, showing that the jail is managed economically. The average cost throughout the province has been 23.17 cents.

Struck by Lightning at Georgetown

During the thunderstorm early last Friday morning a small barn in the rear of C. H. Dayfoot & Co's shoe factory was struck by lightning and completely destroyed. In the building were stored a number of barrels and packing cases but the loss will not be heavy. The fire brigade turned out and put down a line of hose but did not turn on the water as none of the surrounding buildings were in danger.—Herald.

An Exciting Runaway

When Mrs. Thos. Cook, wife of ex-Councillor Cook, was driving into town last Thursday, the harness broke as she was coming down Main Street hill and the horse becoming frightened, ran through town at a good speed. Mrs. Cook, however, was equal to the occasion, and after an exciting run to the foot of Bradley's hill she got the animal under control without any serious damage being done. The horse in question was Prince C., who made a track record for himself at the matinee races here last year.—Georgetown Herald.

A Neighbor's Good Wishes

The Acton FREE PRESS has entered on its 38th volume. It is a journal in a class by itself, being a large four-page weekly, printed on calendered paper. It has always been a model typographically to the country printer; while under the able editorship of H. P. Moore it has achieved a standing seldom attained by papers far more pretentious as regards size and circulation. It always maintains a high moral tone, supports every good cause, and is outspoken against all forms of evil. Good Luck to the Acton FREE PRESS.—Elora Express. Thanks!

Georgetown's Splendid Water Supply

A private picnic was held by a carriage load of citizens at Georgetown waterworks reservoir on Saturday afternoon. This is a delightful spot and its surroundings are very attractive. Georgetown is surely to be congratulated upon its splendid water. The reservoir is full to the brim of pure sparkling water, coming from crystal springs. The water is cold and apparently pure, the reservoir being as clean and sanitary as a dinner plate, and having no vegetable matter whatever within its limits. The people of Georgetown should be grateful for their splendid water supply. Few municipalities anywhere have such magnificent water carried to them by gravitation with a head of 165 feet.

A Visitor After Fifty Years

Mr. Alex. Kennedy, of Chicago, has just spent a week in Acton, after an absence of nearly fifty years in Chicago, where he has been engaged in railway carpentry. For five years back in the sixties he resided with the late Duncan Kennedy on the farm at Kennedy's crossing, now owned by Mr. Thomas P. Watkins. He attended school in Acton and remembers many of the old residents. He evidently expected to see Acton still a hamlet with a few few hundred citizens, and was surprised to find a bustling up-to-date town of two thousand population; important lines of industry; mercantile establishments; five churches and attractive homes and home surroundings. Mr. Kennedy enjoyed every minute of his stay in town and visited numerous points of interest of his boyhood's recollection.

Two Inspiring Missionary Addresses

Last Wednesday evening Mrs. John Firstbrook delivered a very interesting and instructive address in the Baptist Church, basing her remarks upon experiences and investigations during her recent missionary tour. Mrs. Firstbrook spoke particularly of the missions of the Baptist Church among the women of India. She showed the terrible condition of the women in that country, with the child marriages, the superstitions which have been bred into the people for centuries, the famine and poverty, and set forth in striking contrast the changed conditions where the gospel had been taken to the people by the kind-hearted, self-sacrificing missionaries, and in the mission schools and hospitals. On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Firstbrook addressed the Methodist Sunday School. He gave many interesting incidents of the journey across the Atlantic and the Mediterranean, through the Suez Canal, across Egypt and through India, China and Japan. Mr. Firstbrook also emphasized the degrading effects of the superstitious conditions which prevail in the various heathen countries. He said it was a great satisfaction to visit the various mission stations and witness the marvellous changes which had been effected among the people who had been reached with the gospel and its improving influences. He said that no person could visit the mission fields of the various churches and study results achieved without being deeply impressed with the value of missions. He had been asked as a business man if he really considered that it paid to support missions. In answer he had replied that if it were possible to entirely eliminate the spiritual considerations, it was well worth while to support missions for the vast improvements seen in social conditions, customs and surroundings; the people were benefitted in many ways and their manner of life and conduct entirely changed. When the spiritual results were computed the effects of missionary work are beyond all computation, and every contributor to missions may rest assured that every dollar paid for missions is doing grand work for God's cause and the people who are reached. Both addresses were highly appreciated by the respective audiences privileged to hear them.

Ernest Worden Hero of Runaway

The Guelph Herald says: Ernest Worden, of Glasgow Street, a C. P. R. boy, on Tuesday afternoon proved himself a hero by heavily stopping a runaway horse and saving a helpless lady driver in a manner that made all who witnessed the very sensational incident hold their breath in wonder. Young Worden was walking along Quebec Street when a horse hitched to a light buggy, and driven by Miss Bruce, of Eramosa, having taken fright at an automobile, ran away down the street in terror. Seeing it coming in his direction Worden ran out into the street and met the galloping horse fearlessly, just as it was up to him he jumped at its head and succeeded in catching hold of one rein near the bridle and succeeded eventually in stopping the animal, though he was thrown heavily against a telegraph pole in doing so.

Acton's Business Men 50 Years Ago

While in the office of the Canada Glove Works one day this week Mr. W. A. Storey, president, handed the FREE PRESS a forty-year-old copy of the reference book of the mercantile agency of Dun, Wiman & Co., in which is given a list of Acton business men in 1860 as follows: Robert Agnew, hotel; John Ahern, hotel; James Campbell, tavern; Wm. Cavorhill, blacksmith; Francis and John Coates, coopers, potash; Adam Dixon, tailor; Thomas Ebbage, pumps, etc.; Alex. Grant, shoes; Wm. Grant, wagons; John Hannah, baker; C. T. Hill, general store; David Maloney, shoes; Thomas Marshall, shoes; James Matthews, grocer, etc.; Dr. N. McGarvin, drugs; John McKee, grocer; Thomas Milburn & Co., patent medicines; Moses Rose, shingles, staves, etc.; Robert Morrow, M. D.; B. & E. Nicklin, millers; James Ryder, blacksmith; Mrs. S. A. Secord, general store; W. Sharp & Co., lumber; Charles S. Smith, shingles; John Speight, waggons, etc.; Michael Speight, blacksmith; W. H. Storey, saddler and gloves; O. and J. Symon, general store and lumber; G. and E. Tolton, millers and Charles Weiger, tin-smith. Of the thirty-six business men here represented two only, Thomas Ebbage and James Matthews, remain in Acton. Of the remainder all but two or three of them have deceased.

Even people who are usually healthy occasionally require some kind of a food tonic. Ferrovim, that excellent combination of beef, iron and sherry wine, if taken when the system is run down from overwork or a slight cold, will prevent a more serious illness. Ferrovim gives strength to convalescents and all thin-blooded people. $1.00 a bottle.
