EDITORIAL NOTES

AN IMPORTANT MEETING of the leaders of temperance and moral reform will be held in Milton to-morrow to discuss the present situation in the County. In the past Halton County was one of the leading temperance Counties of the Province, and should to-day be occupying a much more advanced position on the temperance question than it does. The meeting will probably decide whether further Local Option Contests shall take place in the several parts of the County under license, or whether it shall be a Canada Temperance Act Contest for the whole County. Every friend of Temperance in the County should be present. The issue is important.

PORTER FINED $400 AND COSTS

Clear Proof that he had been Selling Liquor and also Keeping a Disorderly House

ACTON IS NOW WELL RID OF HIM

As the time for the trial of Fred Porter, charged with selling liquor unlawfully, came nearer he evidently realized that the net had been drawn very closely about him by the Government officers. A day or two previous to the trial he skipped the country, and when his name was called at the court there was no response. The cases against him were proceeded with last Friday morning before Justices H. P. Moore and A. E. Nicklin, according to legal procedure, he having been duly summoned to appear.

The evidence in the first case went to prove that on Sunday afternoon, August 17th, at 4.30 o'clock, the officers had been served with whiskey by Porter, and they paid him 50c. for the liquor. At five o'clock the same day the second lot was purchased. The case being clearly proven Porter was fined $200 and costs or three months in jail or hard labor.

The second case occurred between 12 and 1 o'clock on Sunday morning, 24th August. On this occasion the Government officers bought liquor several times from Porter and paid for it. It came out in the evidence that several young men of the town were present, and their names were given in court.

In this case it was further brought out in the evidence that Porter was not only running a place for the illicit sale of liquor, but that his house was also a disorderly house, and was used for immoral purposes. After selling liquor to the detectives he made suggestions as to whether they were willing to provide opinions for larger sums of money than you paid for the liquor.

A second conviction was registered and a penalty of $200 and costs or three months in gaol at hard labor was imposed.

At 7.30 o'clock the same Sunday evening the officers again visited Porter's place. This time they were treated to beer purchased and paid for by employees of J. L. Boyd, contractor for the construction of the Toronto Suburban Railway. Whiskey was also served and paid for during this visit. Porter was very evidently doing an all day and all night business, and had ample supplies for his trade.

He was on his fined $200 and costs or three months in gaol at hard labor.

As a result of the trials Acton was likely to get rid of this disreputable character for all time. It is his class of citizens that does most to demoralize a community, and destroy the good reputation of a town. It is but fair to Acton, however, to say that his place was in Streetsville township.

His aggregate of fines is $600, with costs of $27.20 added, in default of payment of this sum he goes to gaol at hard labor for nine months, if he returns to Canada.

The round up of the violators of the liquor laws here last month was as follows:

Jess Bridge—$100 and costs. He is serving three months in gaol.

Morris Sarp—$200 and costs. Paid.

Charles Harris—$200 and costs. Is serving three months in the county [illegible]

[illegible] Kamlestock—$100 and costs.

Fred Porter—$600 and costs, or nine months in gaol. Fled to the United States.

The penalties aggregated $1000, and costs about $115.

The twelve additional cases of Jess Bridge were up on Friday, but Provincial Officer Aymont said, inasmuch as Bridge was very seriously the tool of his brother-in-law, Harris, and had gotten deeply into the trouble without realizing his actions, and was already in gaol, that he would withdraw these charges.

It is due to Mr. T. J. Slaght, barrister, Brampton, to say that when Porter was called and failed to appear, Mr. Slaght explained to the court that he had been retained by Porter; had acted in all good faith to defend him, but now that he had disappeared he desired to have anything further to do with the case.

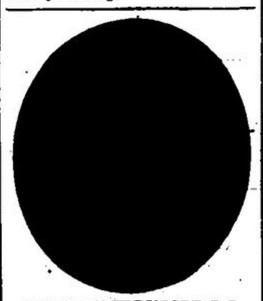
—Mr. Hugh Hannon has sold his 100 acre farm being west half of lot No. 12 in the 5th concession of Toronto township, Oakville st. Peel, to Mr. Robert Hutchinson. Sale was made by J. A. [illegible]

METHODIST RE-OPENING SERVICE

Church Decorations and Improvements Now Complete

SPECIAL SERVICES TWO SUNDAYS

After eight weeks of strenuous work in painting, decorating, re-lathing re-modelling the heating, laying new carpets and mattings, and other incidental repairs and improvements, the re-opening services of the Methodist Church will be inaugurated next Sunday morning.



REV. T. ALBERT MOORE, D. D.
A SON OF THE CHURCH

Rev. Dr. T. Albert Moore, of Toronto, General Secretary of the Department of Temperance and Moral Reform of the Church, will preach morning and evening. It seems eminently fitting that this prominent son of the Church should be chosen to preach the first sermons after the transformation effected during the past two months. Dr. Moore will give very acceptable service, and his many friends will be delighted to meet him and hear him again in the old home church.

The Choir will render special music at all the services.

On Sunday, 12th inst., Rev. George W. Barker, the pastor of Dublin Street Church, Guelph, will preach morning and evening. No pastor who has ministered to this congregation during the sixty-eight years of its history, enjoys more fully the love and esteem of the people here than Rev. Mr. Barker. Although it is more than four years since his pastorate here was concluded he still lives in the hearts of all the people and will receive a very cordial welcome at the re-opening services.

The congregation will appreciate very much getting back to the auditorium for the preaching services after spending eight weeks in the school room.

At the close of the evening service next Sunday the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. This will afford an opportunity for the visitors returning to the old home church to commune again with their fellow-members of former days in this sacred sacrament. Fellow-Christians of other denominations who may be present will also be cordially welcomed at the Lord's table.

ACTON OLD BOYS AT THE FAIR

The Old Chums were also here in Large Numbers

HAD MANY HAPPY MEETINGS

The Fall Fair was the medium of a decidedly happy re-union of many former citizens. The home-comers met the residents of their more youthful days who are still citizens of the old town. But they had other pleasant meetings. Many of them met at the Fair here who live in the same city but who had not seen each other before for years. The coming home for the Fair had therefore a double pleasure.

The gathering proved in all respects delightful and the hope was freely expressed that the Fall Fair will be made a permanent institution. The Fall Fair features are undoubtedly enjoyed, and the re-union of Actonians is a delight.

Mr. J. M. Warren, who was so successful in organizing the Old Boys in Toronto, assures the directors that next year he will be able to secure a train load of Acton people now living in Toronto, to come home for the Fair. He certainly succeeded admirably the present year with very short notice.

Among the many whom the FREE PRESS observed from Toronto were: Messrs. Austin Tubby, R. D. Warren, James Hall, Jno. M. Warren, Miss Ella Campbell, Miss Lillie Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Masales, Mr. E. E. Garvin, Mr. J. Seitz and Master Able, Miss Barbara Warren, Dr. and Mrs. Uren, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fearnley, Miss Maggie H. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Matthews, Mrs. H. T. LePage, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Noble, Mr. R. B. Storey, Mr. John Johnston, Mr. Tom Kennedy, Mr. Wm. Craine, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Smyth, Mr. J. S. Dennoo, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Swackhamer, Mrs. Eliza Anderson, Mrs. E. H. Arms, Mrs. W. B. Unsworth, Mr. Richard Sherlock, Mr. J. H. Sherlock, Messrs. Robert and Walter Carroll, Mr. Chas. Hynds, Miss Nellie Hynds, Miss Ettie Dills, Misses Ella and Ada Campbell, Miss Tena McArthur, Miss Minnie Brant, Miss Ella Cowan, Mr. Harold Langston.

Guelph also sent a very worthy contingent, successfully marshalled by Mr. H. H. Worden, among whom were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Worden, Mr. T. J. Moore, Ex-Mayor R. E. Nelson, Mrs. C. Havens, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Wren and Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. D. McGregor and three children, Mr. and Mrs. A. McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. M. Sinclair and babe, Mr. A. Lawson, Mrs. R. T. Heath and children, Mrs. T. B. Akins, Mr. Jas. Currie, Miss M. McLean, Miss Jas. McKay, Miss Laura Monro, Miss Grindell, Mr. and Mrs. L. Grindell, R. Levesque, Mr. and Mrs. B. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. D. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. R. Dunbar, Mrs. J. Cullen, Miss Eva McLaren, Mrs. H. Jeans, Mr. C. Lowry, Mr. Fred. Smith, Mr. James Hood, Mr. J. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Lawson, Mr. John Easton, Mr. and Mrs. J. McEachern.

Georgetown, Hamilton and other points sent very worthy quotas.
