TWO GUELPH SOLDIERS KILLED

They appeared to be confused when they met the car and drove across the track immediately in front of it.

An inquest was held at which Policeman Thomas Greenway told of a visit he made to Galt and Preston to find out the condition of the deceased while away on the trip. He stated that Walley and Gahagan had been drinking considerably while they were away, and that while in Galt and Preston on several occasions they narrowly missed being struck by the cars. At one time the rig had been driven over the switches at Preston and over the station platform. Before leaving for Guelph they had purchased a bottle of whiskey from a retail store in Preston.

In the libel suit at the Peel Assizes, in which Editor A. F. Dick of the Brampton Banner was a defendant, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. Sleighing Party and Fraternal Visit

On Monday evening the members of the King's Orderlies Bible Class paid a friendly visit to the Adult Bible Class, of Ebenezer Church, Nassagaweya. The evening proved a delightful one for the eighty members of the party. The sleigh ride in the bright bracing atmosphere was most enjoyable. An element in this enjoyment was the fact that the King's Orderlies did not take the trip alone. They invited the Choir and the Sunday School Orchestra to accompany them, and the members also had with them their wives and lady friends. An excellent programme of anthems, choruses, duets, instrumental selections, readings and brief addresses were given. Rev. Mr. Draper made a most skilful chairman and Mr. W. J. Akins, the teacher of the Ebenezer Adult Class, extended a welcome so cordial that every one felt perfectly at home. At the close very appetizing refreshments were served by the local class.

SPRING HOUSE-CLEANING

Here in this big store it is spring time. The new merchandise, fresh, bright and beautiful, will not let you forget that the leaves and the birds and the flowers will soon be here, and with them we expect the house-cleaning spirit.

It is rather early, you think, to begin the annual cellar to garret cleaning, but is not at all too early to think about it and lay plans. And it is just in your planning that we can assist you.

We can show you the charming new wallpapers, the new carpets and rugs, the new curtain nets and draperies all the new things you will need in decorating your home, and at all times we delight in making suggestions and giving estimates.

THE EFFECTS OF WAR CONDITIONS ON HOME FURNISHINGS

This year early buying is all-important, for prices in many lines are rising high and higher.

Carpets, rugs, everything in the manufacture of which wool yarns are employed have experienced an advance of 25 to 30 per cent. This is caused by the scarcity of raw materials. The warring nations are utilizing every pound of this raw wool which they can obtain, in the manufacture of army blankets, coats, and military equipment, and will not permit the slightest export.

Fast dyes also are almost impossible to secure, and many lines in which color combinations are important, have increased 20 to 25 per cent. in cost.

OUR PRESENT PRICES UNADVANCED

We have been careful to buy early enough to avoid increased charges caused by the scarcity of materials, advanced transportation and insurance rates, and increased tariff and war taxes, and are now ready with a comprehensive stock at the old unrisen prices. Early buying is, therefore, eminently advantageous. In the face of present conditions, we scarcely need to urge you to make you purchases as soon as possible.

A MAGNIFICENT SHOWING OF NEW WALLPAPERS

Our Wallpaper Department is one of the largest and most moderniy-equipped wallpaper stores west of Toronto. Its range of stock is sufficiently wide, varied and extensive to meet the needs of all kinds of homes. We have the small prices, the medium prices, and the high prices, and always, quality is the best obtainable.

In these early March days, this department is particularly attractive. The new papers are surprisingly beautiful and artistic and many people are enjoying the display. You, too, will find much pleasure in visiting this department. Can you come this week?
