EDITORIAL NOTES

IN ANSWER to the two questions: 1. Do you find the prohibition of the liquor traffic has been beneficial to your Province? 2. Have the results reached your expectations? Hon. T. C. Norris, Premier of Manitoba, and Hon. Walter Scott, Premier of Saskatchewan, both answer unreservedly, "Yes." Premier Hearst, of Ontario, will undoubtedly be able to give a similar reply a year hence.

THE WAR LOAN is being rapidly subscribed. On Tuesday morning over $75,000,000 of the $100,000,000 had been taken up. There seems little doubt that the loan will be a distinct success, with large subscriptions being received daily, and with the small investor taking a more prominent part in the task of raising the $100,000,000 than in the case of the last loan. The leading financiers of the dominion expect the sum will be largely over subscribed.

MUCH CREDIT is given the hotelmen throughout the province for the orderly winding up of the license regime on Saturday evening. J. D. Flavelle, Chairman of the Provincial License Board, expressed great gratification at their part in the quiet passing into effect of the Ontario Temperance Act. What was true of Toronto in this connection was true of every point in Ontario from which he had received a report, he said. It seemed to him to indicate on the part of the hotelmen a genuine desire to live up to the requirements of the act.

OWING to Thanksgiving Day being fixed for Monday, 9th October, the day on which the election on the Shoe Factory By-law was to be held, the Council has decided to defer the date of the election for a week. The vote will therefore be taken on Monday, 16th October. The favor with which the Shoe Factory proposal is regarded by the electors is very gratifying to those who are endeavoring to secure more manufactories for Acton. If there is any opposition to the proposal it is very quietly expressed. Non-resident voters at various points, who reside where manufactories are numerous and their value is realized, have expressed their intention of coming to Acton on election day to poll their votes in favor of the By-law.

FOLLOWING closely the course of the Prairie and the Maritime provinces, Ontario is now free from the legalized barroom and the liquor store—the latter the worse of the two. The fact that the prohibition bill passed at the last session of Ontario Legislature with the unqualified approval of the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition and the unanimous vote of the members is proof that it was a popular measure. The manly Christian oration delivered by Premier Hurst when the bill was before the Legislature, and the equally sincere and affective speech of approval by N. W. Rowell, K. C., Leader of the Opposition, will go down in history with the many conscientious expressions of brave leaders in a cause calculated for the betterment of their fellowmen and loyal to the country's best interests. Now that this prohibitory measure is in force in our province it becomes the plain duty of every loyal law-abiding citizen to use his best endeavor to ensure the faithful observance of the provisions of the Act.

NEWS FROM CAMP BORDEN

Quite a gloom was cast over the camp when it became known that Pte. L. Kingsbury of the 164th Battalion had met with an accident and been fatally injured. He was a nice quiet comrade, beloved by all, and many expressions of regret were made at his untimely end. A number of his comrades in the company to which he belonged attended his funeral on Friday at his home in Nassagaweya.

The 164th Battalion were inspected in musketry on Wednesday, 13th inst.

The 164th Battalion obtained second place in the Brigade Bombing contest; the 198th being the leaders.

I am pleased to report that in the Bayonet Fighting contest between 164th and 184th Corpl. T. Parry and Pte. Arthur Watson, two Acton boys, won their bouts. Good for the Acton Boys.

I had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. LePage, of Toronto, sister of the PRESS PRESS man, at the Y. M. C. A. She is enjoying her work amongst the boys. She speaks very highly of the Y. M. C. A. staff.

The writer received the sad news of the death in England on Sept. 4th of his mother, in her 74th year.

The Y. M. C. A. gave a moving picture entertainment on Wednesday evening. The large tent was crowded.

Rumors are rife that the 164th will be quartered in Hamilton for the winter. The boys fervently hope the rumor is not true as they are desirous of getting a bit nearer their real work.

Mrs. LePage very kindly sent the writer a box of home-made cookies. They were greatly enjoyed by the boys who shared them.

Another Success For The Fall Fair

Splendid Exhibit in the Hall in Many Department

PRIZE WINNERS NEXT WEEK

Acton Fall Fair opened yesterday morning with bright warm weather and crowds of exhibitors. While Acton has always been popular with exhibitors this spirit is manifestly growing for there were numbers of new faces among those applying for entry tickets for the present fair.

In most respects the hall display is superior to former years. The ladies' department is really excellent. The presence of the attractive handiwork of several new exhibitors gives a new interest and adds some attractive features.

The dairy department and the domestic products are very creditable. The butter, bread, fancy baking, pickles, etc., show that the ladies of this section excel in their productions.

Fine arts, photographs and other entries in these classes make an attractive showing.

Owing to the drought this season the entries for grain and roots, fruit and flowers are not up to the average. There are, however, some very fine exhibits even in these classes.

The showing of stock to-day will be worthy of this big fair. The entries for horses are very large. There will be a good showing of cattle, sheep and hogs, while the exhibition of poultry will excel anything that has ever been in this section, if not in the county.

With refreshment tents by the Daughters of the Empire, the Boy Scouts and other interests; a recruiting tent under the superintendence of Capt. Hazelwood, Toronto, another with officers of the Forestry Battalion in charge, the various other attractions and the usual stock exhibits the fair grounds to-day will be more than usually animated and attractive.

INTERESTING CHURCH PARADE

Acton Boy Scouts and their Georgetown Comrades Attend Divine Service

EARNEST SERMON BY REV. JONES

Last Sunday was a red letter day in the history of the local troop of Boy Scouts, the occasion being their first church parade. The weather conditions were ideal and the large attendance of enthusiastic friends was a source of inspiration to those who have the scout movement at heart.

The local troop paraded at the rendezvous in the park at 3.45, thirty-five strong. They were reinforced by a portion of Georgetown troop under Assistant Scout Master Long. The entire parade numbered 52 members under the experienced marshalling of Sergt. W. Colas, the energetic Scout Master, late of the Somerset Light Infantry and the 4th Canadian Battalion.

Acton Citizens' Band, under Bandmaster John C. Hill, furnished the music and at 4 p. m. the parade marched smartly to the town hall to inspiring marching tunes.

The march discipline of the Boy Scouts called forth much favorable comment from those who witnessed the parade. Their perfect discipline during the services was also noted.

Revs. Wilson, Avison and Jones officiated at the impressive services. Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., echoed the congratulations of the military authorities in Toronto when on their recent visit the Acton troop came off with premier honors.

Rev. Mr. Jones gave a brief but very earnest sermon based on the story of the Good Samaritan. He showed that the action of the Good Samaritan is the basis principle of the Boy Scout movement.

A union Choir sang patriotic numbers and the general singing was of a hearty character.

The Scouts and their officers are to be congratulated on the success of their church parade. Popular sympathy and co-operation will naturally be an outcome.

CREWSONS CORNERS

The Rally Day services here on Sunday morning were very interesting. Choruses were sung by the school; a trio by Minnie Olga Moore, Hazel and Kathleen Dennis; a reading by Miss Clara Lantz, short addresses by the pastor, and responsive scripture readings by Superintendent and scholars.

Several gardens have been raided and vegetables stolen here the past week or two.

A large number will attend Acton Fair this week.

Mr. E. J. Kingsbury attended the convention in Guelph last Friday as representative from the Sunday School here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dennis visited over the week end with friends in Paisley Block.

Mrs. George Barnes and children, Waterloo, visited friends here last week.

Mrs. E. J. Kingsbury, Mrs. Wm. Dennis and Mr. J. Dennis attended the funeral at Ebenezer last Friday of Pte. L. Kingsbury, who was accidently killed at Camp Borden last week.

Mrs. Chas. Taylor and children, who have spent the summer at her father's, Mr. George Graham's, arrived home safely in Moringus, Sask., last week.

Mr. A. J. Murray spent Sunday at Mr. W. A. Murray's.

Mr. George Watson and son are building a silo for Mr. E. J. Kingsbury.

OUR FIELD DAY

Merrilly rang the old school bell
On that very memorable day;
Sending scholars one and all
Out to the field for play.

Down to the south-west corner,
Where the old sign board stood;
With races for young and old—
The variety was very good.

The day sets run quickly,
Each wanted to win the prize;
But far ahead dashed Lucy,
While we looked on with surprise.

The ladies' race, a big event—
Some had never raced before;
One even took her shoes off
Had mind you, she didn't score.

The teachers' race, most popular;
Each student cried "Hip" would win;
We didn't think they had the grit,
They took to more and grim.

The "Bisons" played the "Maple Leafs,"
While "two" helped cheer them on;
But the Maple Leafs prove the winners
Over the confident Bisons throng.

The lunch was very tempting
For the pupils short and tall;
We'll've had a feast of cake
Which we enjoyed, one and all.

At last they struggled homeward,
All happy and content
Even if they lost some race
Or missed the ball event.
