EDITORIAL NOTES

AN INVENTORY of the man power of Canada is to be taken the first week in January. From the statistics it is hoped to be able to estimate the number of slackers in each district so that recruiting can be particularly directed to them. If the required men do not come, undoubtedly conscription will be next in order. A similar census will show what men are available for work in munition plants.

ESQUESING TOWNSHIP COUNCIL is taking steps to increase the tax on dogs. The Provincial Legislature now empowers Councils to recompense the owners of sheep killed by dogs up to the full value of the animals destroyed. Under proper supervision this later course is eminently just. Why should a farmer who loses sheep through the action of dogs allowed to run at large be at the loss of one-third the value of his sheep which are killed, absolutely through no possible remissness by him?

CONSIDERABLE SIGNIFICANCE is attached to President Wilson's speech on Monday at New York in which he voiced "our community of ideals and identity of purpose" with France and said that "peace cannot come as long as the destinies of men are determined by small groups who make selfish choices of their own." One interpretation of Mr. Wilson's remarks is that they show that he is in direct sympathy with the allied cause, and is opposed to the principles for which Germany is fighting.

AFTER a Liberal ascendancy in the Canadian Senate for upwards of fifteen years, the political pendulum has swung the other way and the Conservatives now have a prospective majority of one. They have not got it yet but they will have when thirteen vacancies, now existing are filled. The death of Senator J. K. Kerr, of Toronto, this week causes the thirteenth vacancy. The party standing now is 43 Liberals, 31 Conservatives and thirteen vacancies. These of course will be filled shortly by the Conservatives.

AT THE last meeting of Esquesing Township Council a resolution was passed granting the Georgetown Free Library Board $25.00 on condition that the residents of Esquesing have the same privilege as the citizens of Georgetown "in the used books, etc." Naturally the residents of Esquesing contiguous to Acton, who cannot go to Georgetown for library books, will look to the Township Council to make a similar grant to Acton Library Board, so that they may enjoy the same privileges here as their fellow ratepayers in the vicinity of Georgetown are having there.

CREWSONS CORNERS

The Sunday School scholars have commenced practicing for their annual Christmas tree entertainment which will be held on December 28th.

Mr. Chas. Lambert lost a horse on Saturday from inflammation.

Mr. John Bennett had several sheep worried by dogs one night last week.

Miss Mary McCaw received a message from Ottawa last week, that her brother, Pte. H. McCaw, had been killed in action somewhere in France. Her many friends extend their sympathy to her. In her sorrow she has the consolation that her brother nobly fought and bravely died a hero's death, giving his life for King and country. Pte. McCaw enlisted at Regina. Another brother was wounded a few months ago.

Mrs. G. Watson's many friends will be glad to know she has recovered so as to be able to return home from the Guelph General Hospital last Friday.

Mr. J. Bennett's name was inadvertently omitted in the report of the programme at the pie social last week, he having given several gramaphone selections which were much appreciated.

CHURCHILL

Mr. Withers' sale takes place on the Snydar farm next Monday.

At the presentation gathering at Mr. Baldwin's last week about eighty people were present. Mr. John McIntyre acted as Chairman and read the address to Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin. The easy chairs were presented by Messrs. Hiram Fisher and Albert Smith. Mr. Baldwin replied in behalf of Mrs. Baldwin and himself and thanked the people very cordially for their many kindness and their much-appreciated gifts. A pleasant social time was spent by the company.

THE W.M.S. 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Uplifting Service in the Methodist Church Last Thursday Evening

FORMER MEMBERS PRESENT

A peculiarly interesting and impressive event was the Silver Anniversary of the Acton Auxiliary of the Methodist Woman's Missionary Society on Thursday evening last in the school room of the Church.

Mrs. A. T. Brown, President, occupied the chair with grace and ability and had a carefully prepared programme well in hand. At her request the charter members of the Society still remaining had seats on the platform. These were: Mrs. Thomas Easton, Guelph; Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. A. McNabb, Mrs. H. P. Moore, Mrs. A. Stephenson and Mrs. G. H. Brown, Acton.

At the devotional exercises Mrs. C. C. Speight, Acton, read the 66th Psalm, and Mrs. (Rev.) Jas. Edge, Toronto, led in prayer.

Mrs. Brown, the president, gave a resume of the history of the organization of the original Society in 1881, and of the Acton Auxiliary ten years later. This was in the pastorate of Rev. Dr. Gifford, and the first officers were: President—Mrs. Thos. Easton; Vice-Pres.—Mrs. John Speight; Recording Secretary—Mrs. Jas. Moore; Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. H. P. Moore; Treasurer—Mrs. A. Stephenson. The income during the twenty-five years has aggregated about $1150, without counting many valuable bales of clothing collected and forwarded to needy points. Mrs. Brown expressed the pleasure felt at the presence of the first president, who had done so much in the early years to advance this very important work. When failing strength had compelled her retirement she had been succeeded in terms of varying length by Mrs. C. C. Speight, Mrs. Hamlin, Mrs. R. G. Brown, Mrs. Wm. Brown and the present occupant of the office.

The roll of membership from the first was called by the Recording Secretary, Mrs. John Brown, and those present responded to their names. Many letters of greeting were read by Miss Ethel Coleman, Corresponding Secretary, who had communicated with all known absent ones possible to reach. These letters were most touching and impressive, and were accompanied in several instances with a financial gift as well.

The president then asked those present from other points to at least come to the platform that old friends might look into their faces, and also, if so disposed, to convey some words of greeting, which was done in every case.

Mrs. Easton, Guelph, recounted some of the early hopes and fears in the days of beginning, and the realization of the loving Father's help and presence, and the joy in the helping on of so good a work.

Mrs. (Rev.) Joseph Edge, of Toronto, referred to the Divine leading since living here, which was so different from her previous hopes, but which has been, after all, the very best. Her boy, Percy, has just gone to the trenches, and only mothers in similar cases know the meaning. To all others it is more or less empty words.

Mrs. J. W. Oram, Toronto, gave an earnest and able address on the great fields opening up for woman's usefulness in holy causes, several of which she has personally been able to take some part in.

Mrs. Wm. Brown, Toronto, expressed her great pleasure at the opportunity of viewing her sisters in this work in which she had taken a deep interest.

Mrs. Brown, on leaving the platform, was met by Mrs. W. H. Stewart, who in the name of the Acton Society, presented her with a life-membership certificate in acknowledgement of her long and painstaking interest as President and Treasurer, and expressive of their love for her before and since her removal from their midst.

She was followed by Nursing Sister, Lieut. Anna M. Oram, recently invalided home from Saloniki. Her coming to the platform in uniform was greeted with hearty applause. She was pleased to see her old friends of her childhood days, and gave some thrilling accounts of the vastness of the undertakings in the present great struggle. She has suffered much from fever and nervous prostration, but was not sorry for a single day's service. Retiring, the applause was even greater.

Brief addresses followed, by previous request, from two laymen of the congregation, at one time honorary and contributing members, Messrs. H. P. Moore and J. S. Coleman, that of the former being read by the corresponding secretary, as the writer was out of town on church business.

Vocal music was contributed at intervals by Rev. Mr. Avison, and Miss Baker of the High School, and Misses Bertie Smith and Hazel Mason.

Rev. Mr. Avison, pastor, being called upon, expressed his delight at being present at this, one of the best meetings of his recollection. He was so pleased to meet with the former members, and especially with Mrs. Edge in the parsonage, whose son, Percy, had been a college companion—one of the purest souls he had ever known.

A very interesting feature was the lighting of twenty-five little candles on the birthday cake, the product of the skill of Mrs. H. S. Hombe, by the two little Misses Darby, of Knatchbull, great-granddaughters of the first President, Mrs. Easton—both of whom are life members of the society.

Two very interested visitors were Mrs. Jackson, of Fergus, a former girl-companion of Mrs. Edge, who brought greetings from Fergus; and Mr. J. M. Denyes, B. A., P. S. I., who though not called upon, freely expressed privately his delight at being present at a gathering, the equal of which he had never before known.

A social hour followed when Mrs. Easton observed the time-honored custom of "cutting the cake," which with an abundance of other good things were served to the happy gathering.

LIEUT. E. T. LESLIE DEAD

An Esquesing Soldier Pays the Supreme Penalty

The sad news reached Georgetown last week, that Lieut. E. T. Leslie, who was reported wounded while in action at the front a few days before, has died of wounds. His parents live in Esquesing near Georgetown, where he was employed in the bank before enlisting. Lieut. Leslie was about 24 years of age. He had only been at the front a short time, having left Canada just four months ago with a draft of officers from Camp Borden where he was scout officer with the 161th Battalion. Lieut. Leslie was originally a member of the 20th Halton Rifles.

His cousin, John C. Leslie, was teller in the Merchants Bank here several years ago. He is now in Calgary.

NASSAGAWEYA

The first anniversary of the opening of Ebenezer's fine new church last Sunday and Monday was an occasion of great interest. The church was crowded both morning and evening on Sunday when masterly sermons were preached by Rev. R. H. Bell, B. D., of Toronto. Miss Ruby Cann, A.T.C.M., of Plattsville, sang at both services with much acceptance and the choir did themselves credit.

The fowl supper on Monday evening was also a gratifying success. The church was crowded and everybody enjoyed the evening. There was an abundance of fowl and of the other delicacies of which Nassagaweya is famous. The programme was excellent. Splendid addresses were made by Revs. E. M. Carter, B. D., Binbrook, and H. W. Avison, Acton. Prof. Harris, organ soloist, Toronto, contributed several fine numbers. Miss Cann and Mr. Avison sang to the great delight of the audience and Acton Methodist Sunday School Orchestra and the Misses Mason filled in the programme with a choice and varied number of selections. Miss Louise Webster, elocutionist, Toronto, greatly pleased the audience with her repertoire of readings. Rev. Mr. Allan, pastor, made a happy chairman.

The relatives of the late Pte. Orval Fletcher, who was killed in action in the terrible war, have the deepest sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Quite a number of people from Nassagaweya are taking in the Winter Fair at Guelph this week.

Mr. James Napper, of Cargill, is visiting friends in Nassagaweya this week.

The following is the report for School No. 9 for the past month:—

Sr. IV.—Cameron Kitching*, John Kingsbury*, Hazel Wilson.

Jr. III—Russia Kingsbury*, Olive McLaughlin, Ernest Wilson, Gladys Shrive, Bert Nightingale, Ada Nellis, Alice McGregor.

Sr. I—Robbie Kingsbury*, Violet Shrive, Reggie Wilson, Charlie McLaughlin, Mary Darby.

Sr. Pr.—Geo. Nightingale, Edith Nellis, Tommy McLaughlin.

Jr. Pr.—Erwin Wilson, Lottie Shrive, Stewart Richardson.

Conduct (1) Cameron Kitching, (2) Hazel Wilson.

Those marked * were present every day.

WISE MAN—WEAR RUBBERS

Low Rubber Prices Make Possible Saving of Expensive Shoes—Many Will Wear Rubber Footgear Whenever Occasion Permits

The thrifty man or woman—those who are getting the most out of every dollar in these days of high prices—will find gratification in the fact that this year rubber footwear solves the question of how to remain well shod, in spite of high shoe prices. The wise buyer will purchase rubbers and overshoes this year to save the expensive shoes that he or she paid a dollar or so more for this season than last.

While everything else has advanced in price, rubber footwear has remained the same. In fact, rubber footwear would be cheaper this year than ever before were it not for the cost of all chemicals and the fabrics that are used in the manufacture. Even with these advances, rubber is the footwear for this winter and the wise ones will wear rubbers for economy. 23

LIMEHOUSE

A Patriotic Meeting of the Limehouse Guild will be held next Tuesday evening, Dec. 12th. An Honor Roll will be unveiled in honor of the Limehouse boys who have enlisted for service for their King and country and a special programme will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Ivens are visiting at the home of their daughter in Brantford.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn and family, of Owen Sound, visited at the home of Mr. G. E. Polkinghorne during the week.

Miss H. Shaw was in the city over the week-end.

A number of the villagers attended the Guelph Winter Fair during the week.
