THURSDAY, MARCH 20, 1919

Brief Local Items

—The days are growing noticeably longer.

—The maple sugar makers are now getting busy.

—Read the Free Press advertisements. They're worth it.

—The Hydro by-law was carried on Saturday and Burlington is happy.

—Does your Free Press address label say your subscription is paid up?

—"Hearts of the World," at Wonderland next Wednesday afternoon and evening.

—The wise shopper keeps an eye on the advertisements these days. Falling prices is the rule.

—Burlington citizens hold a meeting last week to consider organizing a Horticultural Society.

—Rev. J. C. Wilson, B. A., was at Galt on Tuesday attending a meeting of Guelph Presbytery.

—Mr. R. McKechnie shipped a car of potatoes on Monday. The price paid the growers here was $5c per bag.

—The Merchants Bank has installed a series of safety deposit boxes in their vault for the use of the public.

—The weekly meeting of the King's Orderlies will be held at the home of Mr. Herbert Switzer on Friday evening.

—The Speyside Busy Bees Guild will provide the programme at the Knox Church Guild meeting next Monday evening.

—Mr. Jos. A. Tovell, of Guelph, has generously paid off the mortgage indebtedness of Dublin Street Methodist Church, $2,750.00.

—Mr. A. S. Forster, of the Oakville Star, has been appointed commissioner for Halton-Peel House of Refuge by the County Council.

—Rev. E. F. Maunsell, M. A., of St. Alban's Church, preached at the lenten service in St. James' Church, Guelph, last Friday evening.

—Miss Nina M. Leslie, of Puslinch, has been appointed as teacher of Lorne School, to succeed Miss Harrison after the Easter holidays.

—There is much talk of the organization of a Horticultural Society in town and we hope to see it materialize. —Georgetown Herald.

—Everybody will want to see Griffith's masterpiece, "Hearts of the World," which took eighteen months in the making, at Wonderland next Wednesday evening.

—The Rev. Joseph Rogers has been appointed rector of the Anglican parish of Norval, Stewartown and Hornby. He has his home at Norval. He has been an army padre.

—The missionary committee of the Epworth League presented a most impressive exercise showing the duty of the church to the foreigner in Canada, at their meeting on Monday evening.

—Good morning! If you are a stranger or a new-comer to Acton the Free Press will be delighted to have your name on our lists and supply you every week with the local news of interest.

—Communion services will be held at Knox Church next Sunday morning. Preparatory services will be held on Friday afternoon at three o'clock, when Rev. John Little, of Rockwood, will preach.

—Some motor cars are still running with 1918 markers and without rear lights. If their owners are faced with the provisions of the Motor Vehicles' Act in court they will feel very much aggrieved.

—The directors of Oakville Fair have presented Arthur S. Forster, editor of the Oakville Star, with a handsome 14 jewelled gold watch, suitably engraved, as a token of appreciation of his services as president of the Oakville Fair.

—The Free Press is able to take care of all advertising this week with the usual four-page sheet, and give readers a fair volume of reading matter. Whenever the readers' columns are in danger of being encroached upon extra pages will be inserted.

—The King's Orderlies spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. McLam on Friday night. It was an evening of reminiscences by Messrs. R. H. Wansbrough, Walter Lamb, W. H. Stewart, Frank Kennedy and Rev. I. M. Moyer. The hospitality of the home was lavish.

Neighborhood News-Town and Country

Items of Interest from Various Localities Covered by the Free Press

CHURCHILL

Mr. John McIntyre, of the third line, who sustained a broken leg through a kick from a young animal in the stable a couple of weeks ago, is gradually improving.

Mr. Fred Denny is moving to Acton this week. His removal from this neighborhood is regretted.

CREWSONS CORNERS

The weather the past two Sundays was very unfavorable and affected the attendance at the Sunday School services here.

Mr. George Graham Jr., was in Owen Sound this week attending the funeral of an uncle there.

Mr. E. Cole is moving to the farm he recently rented at Churchill.

TERRA COTTA

Joseph McBride has sold his farm on the tenth line to J. McNally and has purchased the Olver farm near Georgetown.

The Methodist anniversary services and the concert the following evening were a great success. Rev. Mr. Hunnisett, of Fred Victor Mission, Toronto, was the preacher. The financial returns were over $90.00. The Glenwilliams choir supplied fine music.

Mrs. R. Isaam has sold her grocery business to L. Craine. She intends taking a trip to England.

Mr. John Stokes, Sr., has been very ill the past week.

Mr. A. Smith, of Grand Valley, visited friends here during the week.

OSPRINGE

The sympathy of this community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stewart, of Eramosa, who have lost their little one year'old daughter, Mrs. Stewart, before her marriage, was Miss Margaret McKenzie and lived in this vicinity.

Mr. John Hunter, of the town line, who has been suffering severely from rheumatism, is improving.

Mrs. Jas. McLean, who was ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herman Tovell, is improving.

Mr. A. Young, of the town line, was a purchaser of one of the high-priced shorthorns at Mrs. Daniel Talbot's sale at Everton.

Mr. Roy Hindley was at Orillia officiating at a sale of pure bred Shorthorns on the 12th inst.

ROCKWOOD

Rev. Mr. Maunsell, rector of St. John's Church, is proving himself quite a pedestrian these days. He walks from Acton for the afternoon service here and then back to the Radial Road to return home. This entails a walk of nine miles each Sunday. This is surely ample evidence of his earnest interest in the care of the parish.

The prospects are now said to be bright for the securing of both oil and gas in the oil well area which is being exploited here. So promising are the indications from the well now being drilled that several more are likely to be started at once.

The Seed Fair last week was rather disappointing. The attendance of visitors was good, but the exhibits were meagre. This was the first seed fair under the auspices of the agricultural society.

Miss Ethel Gibbons, graduate nurse, has returned to Toronto to resume the duties of her profession.

ERIN

Mr. and Mrs. Sherlock have taken up residence in Guelph.

Mrs. Jas. Baird has purchased the residence known as the Bibly house on Centre Street from Mr. Jas. Long.

The Women's Institute of Hillsburg announce a play, "The Dust of the Earth," to be given on March 27.

Mrs. L. Overland has been visiting her son Lorne, at Toronto.

Mr. J. Davis has been at Georgetown attending the funeral of her sister Mrs. Snyder.

Rev. R. S. Scott left Thursday last for Clifton Springs, N. Y.

Miss E. Oglivie, Toronto, has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Lindsay, 7th line.

Mr. H. Murdoch has returned to town again, after spending the winter in Toronto and is at his old home here.

Capt. and Mrs. Sangers and Mrs. Kee, of Buffalo, N. Y., have been here on a visit to their father, Mr. J. Gawthrop.

Mr. Neil McKinnon sold six horses at the registered sale in Toronto last week, and purchased one. He also sold one to Mr. Robert Kerr, of Acton, last week.—Advocate.

BURLINGTON

The town has an overdraft from last year's operations which some claim to be $5,000, and others as high as $14,000.

Mr. Robert Johnston, Pine Cove celebrated his 80th birthday on Wednesday last, when a number of his nephews and nieces from Toronto, Hamilton, Buffalo and St. Thomas gathered at the family residence in honor of the occasion.

The Misses Laura Peachey and Grace Dear, of Rochester, N. Y., have been spending a week with their aunt, Mrs. Hayes, Brant Street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Kerns received a telegram on Tuesday from England stating that their son, Pte. Wm. K. Kerns, had died on Sunday, March 9, at Kimmel Park, England, from intestinal trouble.

On Friday afternoon a radial car struck an automobile at the Brant House crossing, owned by Mr. J. S. Freeman. The car was somewhat damaged but fortunately the occupants escaped injury.

Lieut. J. D. Peart, 11th Canadian Railway Troops, arrived at his home, "The Homestead Farm," on Monday. He is returning shortly to his former duties as electrical engineer in Kirkland Lake Mining district.

A meeting of the directors of the Nelson and Burlington Agricultural Society was held in the local office of the Department of Agriculture last Thursday evening. The date fixed for the holding of the fair of 1919 will be Thanksgiving Day, providing Thanksgiving is celebrated about the usual time.—Gazette.
