IN MEMORIAM

ALLAN—In fond and loving memory of our dear husband and father, John Allan, who departed this life Tuesday, April 1, 1919.

We watched father suffer day by day,
It caused us bitter grief,
To see him slowly wear away,
And could not give relief.
His chair is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1920

Brief Local Items

—Clean up for Easter.

—Good Friday to-morrow.

—Have you had any maple syrup yet?

—March went out very lamblike after all.

—Eastertide services in the churches on Sunday.

—One month till the trout fishing season opens.

—Guelph has a new slogan: "Population 35,000 in 1923."

—D. H. Lindsay has a car of first-class oats now on hand.

—Eggs are getting down to a more reasonable price for Easter.

—Send in your G. W. V. A. donations not later than Saturday.

—The G. W. V. A. Bazaar opens in the Town Hall next Monday.

—The maple sugar makers report a very poor year. The season is about over.

—Miss Mamie Maxales is teaching again in the Eramosa School, of which she had charge for several terms before.

—The engine room at Noble's elevator is to be rebuilt and an electric motor installed for elevating the grain.

—The regular monthly meeting of the I. O. D. E. will be held on Tuesday afternoon, April 6, at four o'clock, in the Oddfellows' Hall.

—Chatham wants a city manager like Guelph has. But there's only one T. James Moore. And he laid his foundations in Acton.

—Isn't it about time the Municipal Council was filling the vacancy of Chief Constable, rendered vacant by the death of Chief Lawson?

—Daylight saving time is troubling towns and cities all over the country. Let's deport the business now for all time and keep to standard time.

—Owing to being obliged to go into the hospital for further surgical treatment Mr. J. P. Scarrow will close his tailoring store until further notice.

—Messrs. Robert Noble, Limited, have sent Acton Fire Brigade $40.00 in recognition of their splendid services at the recent fire at the elevator.

—The Medical Officer of Health advises all citizens to be vaccinated. There is still much small-pox both in city and country throughout Ontario.

—Mr. John McArthur has sold his residence on Lake Avenue to Mr. Richard Rosin. Like other properties recently sold a good figure was paid for the property.

—Herbert Taylor, of Cheltenham, was the unanimous choice of the Peel County United Farmers in convention last week to be their standard-bearer at the next Federal election.

—Mr. Harry N. Moore, son of Rev. Dr. T. Albert Moore, who is in Great Britain, is now old country correspondent for the Daily Star, Toronto, as well as the Daily Star, Montreal.

—Henry Husband, of Toronto, for twenty-eight years principal of Oakville Public School, died last Wednesday at the age of 85 years. Mr. Husband was a native of Halton.

—Don't ask questions about your income tax report. All questions are answered in the Government's advertisements in the Free Press. Read those carefully and act accordingly.

—This is clean-up time. The Reeve, in another column, requests all citizens to clean up their premises. Sanitation and presentable surroundings are always considered desirable.

—When the memorial oil portrait to Principal Groves was unveiled at the Ryerson School, Toronto, last week, Mrs. Groves was presented with a bouquet of roses by the teachers of the staff.

—Mr. William Leishman, who sold his home on Arthur Street, is preparing to build on the vacant lot opposite. The family will reside in Reeve Barber's house until the new residence is completed.

—Mrs. James L. Warren has purchased a house in Toronto and expects to move to the city in September. Her removal, after so many years of useful activities and warm friendships, will be greatly regretted in Acton.

—Mrs. Bigelow, of Toronto, delivered a highly interesting address on scientific temperance in Knox Church school room on Monday evening. Mrs. J. M. Denyes, of Milton, accompanied Mrs. Bigelow and briefly addressed the meeting.

—At the review service in the Methodist Sunday School last Sunday afternoon, brief, but very interesting addresses were given by Mrs. James Harrison, Toronto and Mr. John Nicolson, for many years Superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday School at Marietta, Mich.

A GRAND ENTERTAINMENT

Will be given in the Town Hall on Thursday, April 15, by Sandy Macdonald, the well-known Scotch entertainer, and his company, which includes Frank Gillions, late of Sir Henry's Irving's, Wilson Barrett's, E. H. Tearle's, Sir F. R. Benson's companies and lastly with the 3rd Battalion in France. He organized the first concert troupe to tour France and had the honor of having Princess Victoria's car left for him to use to take his troupe around, which consisted of gassed and wounded men. Hear him in his dramatic impersonation of well-known actors; also in his dramatic sketch "The Thief," assisted by Miss Ida Muriello.

Also Miss Violet Pye, who is an Irish girl, singer of catchy and popular songs.

Sandy Macdonald, Scotch comedian, singing songs written by himself, which are very catchy and jokes that cause lots of laughter.

Miss Daisy MacLean, who is the accompanist. A musician worth hearing, late of Glasgow, Scotland, and a graduate of the London, England, College of Music.

Secure your tickets early at Brown's Drug Store. Prices 35c and 50c, reserved, plus war tax. Doors open 7.30. Concert at 8 o'clock.

PROCLAMATION!

Owing to the prevalence of Small Pox throughout the country it will be advisable for all citizens to be vaccinated at once. Parents will do well to see that all their children are vaccinated without delay.

J. A. McNIVEN,
Medical Officer of Health.

—OF—

FARMS, FARM STOCK, IMPLEMENTS AND PRODUCE

The Toronto General Trusts Corporation, and W. H. Wallbridge, Administrators of the ESTATE OF HENRY P. LAWSON

late of the Town of Georgetown, deceased, have instructed the undersigned to offer for sale by Public Auction on the East half of Lot 22, in the 8th Concession of the Township of Esquesing, on TUESDAY, THE 6th DAY OF APRIL, 1920

at one o'clock p. m., the following goods, chattels and Real Estate:

9 cows, supposed to be in calf; 3 yearling calves; 3 steers, 2 years old; 4 heifers, 3 years old; 2 horses; 2 mares; 4 waggons; 4 sleighs; 1 truck waggon; 1 land roller; 2 sulky rigs; 3 disc harrows; 3 drag harrows; 3 seed drills; 3 fanning mills; 1 buggy; 3 binders; 3 plows; 3 sets team harness; 2 sets plow harness; 1 set single light harness; 2 mowers; 1 hay rack; 1 root pulper; 2 wheelbarrows; 2 grindstones; 3 crosscut saws; 1 platform scale; 5 tons hay; 4 tons straw; 25 cedar poles, 16 feet long; 100 cedar posts; 7 cedar poles, 30 feet long; 6 cords soft wood; 12 cords of hard wood. Forks, spades, shovels, chains and other articles too numerous to mention.

At the same time and place, the following lands will be offered for sale, namely:

The East half of Lot 22, in the 8th Concession of the Township of Esquesing, containing 99 acres.

Lot 27, in the 8th Concession of the Township of Esquesing, containing 200 acres.

On Lot 22 is situate a one and one half and one story frame dwelling, containing eight rooms. Frame bank barns 30x36, and 42x54. About 70 acres are cleared and in a good state of cultivation, of which about 15 acres are in fall wheat and the farm is well watered by never failing spring creek.

On Lot 27 is situate a one and one half and one story frame dwelling, containing six rooms. Bank barns 38x40, and 28x50. About 50 acres are cleared and the balance is timbered with hardwood. This farm is well watered by never failing springs and is an excellent stock farm.

The said lands will be offered for sale, subject to a reserve bid on each.

Terms for Chattels—All sums of $10.00 and under cash. Over that amount seven months' credit will be given on approved joint notes, or 5% per annum off for cash.

Terms for Lands—10% of the purchase money on the day of sale, and the balance in 30 days thereafter, or the Vendors will, if desired, take back a first mortgage for 50% of the purchase money, repayable in five years with interest at 6½%.

Further particulars and conditions of sale will be made known at the time of sale.

BEN PETCH, Auctioneer.
