—The farmers are marketing their wool.

—Erin will hold a demonstration on the 24th.

—Motorists are becoming more numerous.

—The Pastimes of Acton play Erin on the 24th.

—Twenty-fourth, next Monday, a public holiday.

—Many home-comers will be expected over the week-end.

—Yes! We'd better pay the new Dominion taxes and smile.

—Milk is reduced 1½c. per quart on dollar tickets in Guelph this week.

—The new Canadian one-cent coins are likely to be in circulation in a few weeks.

—The first delivery of waterworks mains was made on Church Street on Tuesday.

—The belated street cleaning is resulting in annoying clouds of dust these days.

—Seeding is now completed and much of the spring grain is showing through nicely.

—The foundations are being put in for Mr. Wm. Leishman's new house on Peel Street.

—Please don't throw papers on the streets; they blow onto people's lawns and are unsightly anywhere.

—Robert Barbour, of Hillsburg, will be at Acton station on the 10th, 17th and 24th of June to buy wool.

—Elora's assessment roll shows the population has increased to 1,205; the assessed value is now $648,142.

Come to Guelph this Week---To MACDONALD'S

It's a Big Week in Guelph's Big Men's Store—A Big Selling Event in Men's and Boy's Clothing

Stocks were never bigger than they are at this moment. Late deliveries have just made their arrival. Many lines not expected until later on, have surprised us by coming in now in advance. The season has been backward, and the outgo not as heavy as warmer spring weather would have made it. But special pricings have been prepared to act as levers in moving enormous stocks during this special event. Here are some of the figures that will bring selling our way and savings your way this week.

A SALE OF

MEN'S SHIRTS---$2.63
