—Burlington's four doctors have arranged a half holiday on Wednesday throughout the summer, as well as business men, but each of them will take his turn in remaining in town to be available for emergency calls.

NASSAGAWEYA

The Nassagaweya Township Sunday School Convention held in St. David's Church, Campbellville last Thursday, afternoon and evening, was very successful and profitable to those who attended. The addresses of Miss Laine, of Toronto, were instructive. She emphasized the need of teachers of the younger classes especially being able to use effectively the blackboard and pictures in connection with the teaching of Sunday School lessons in the afternoon, and in the evening she spoke on, Co-operation in Religious Education, which was also very interesting.

Rev. J. T. Strachan gave an address on "The Heritage of Youth," which was also very interesting and helpful. The following officers were elected for the year: President—R. C. Menzies; Vice-Pres.—John Early; Elementary Division—Mrs. R. C. Menzies; Secondary Division (Boys)—Mr. Duncan Campbell; (Girls)—Miss Florence Marshall; Adult Division—John Marshall; Home Department—Mrs. Alex. Bell; Teacher Training—Rev. G. S. Cassmore, B. A.; Missionary Department—G. T. Wilson; Temperance—C. A. Elsley. Next year's convention will be held in Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church.

Rev. G. S. Cassmore and Rev. M. Little, of Rockwood, exchanged pulpits last Sunday.

The Epworth League of Ebenezer Church, held an "At Home" in the church and grounds on Monday evening. There was a good turnout and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Fishermen were plentiful along Nassagaweya streams on Victoria Day and report poor catches of trout.

A FRIEND of ours remarked the other day, "I don't like that word 'Stung.' It makes me think of a suit of clothes I wore once—Once I said. Then an ad. of yours attracted my attention and I must say I like the clothes you folks have sold me."

"Wallace's Clothes need no introduction in Acton.

LIMEHOUSE

This quiet village was more lively than it has been for a long time over the holiday. The coming of the Nikators from Toronto and the Boy Scout Bugle Band from Acton, and the union of their forces here brought lively times and pleasant experiences. There were forty boys in the company and they certainly undertook to have a real enjoyable holiday. The rugged scenery, the rocks and caves, the creeks and ponds, the falls, the kilns, the saw mill, all contributed to the pleasures of the outing.

Mr. E. J. Moore, of Toronto, had the Nikators, which are his Sunday School class, in charge, and Mr. N. F. Moore, Scoutmaster, led his Scouts' Band. They came about noon on Saturday and filled every hour with pleasure until their departure on Monday. They were a lively bunch and explored everything about Limehouse, from the bottom of the pond to Jim Grant's hay mow.

The old church was their rendezvous. Here they bunked and here that very necessary feature of a camp was stored—the commissariat, or as the boys generally dubbed it—the grub. I saw them at breakfast Monday morning and the way they stowed away 84 hard-boiled eggs, seven loaves of buttered bread, corn flakes and cream galore—cream, mind you, from Johnny Newton's famous dairy herd—hot boiled tea, and an occasional piece of pie surreptitiously hooked while the officer of rations for the day had his back turned.

Saturday afternoon a base ball match was played with the Limehouse noted team. The home team outclassed the visitors. Mr. Gowdy started the saw mill to demonstrate for the edification of the boys the making of lumber. Each in turn was invited to take the lever and saw a board himself. Some went fishing, and exploring was an hourly pastime. In the evening a series of limelight views was shown by Douglas Gowdy, the Boy Scout Band gave a programme, and brief addresses by each of the leaders and Mr. Gowdy filled an enjoyable evening.

On Sunday afternoon the forty lads marched to the Sixth Line Church to Sunday School. A spirited address on Sunday School activities was given by Mr. E. J. Moore, the chief of the Nicators. Mr. Gowdy, the Superintendent, made everybody welcome. Although the boys had gained little sleep the night before, they remained to the church service following the Sunday School, and listened like veterans to Rev. Mr. Cameron's philosophical sermon on the New Dispensation.

Quiet strolls occupied the afternoon and exploration and fishing and base ball filled Monday's programme. The Boy Scout Band played the visitors from Toronto to their car, and the companies parted voting each other the best of jolly good fellows, and hoping for future meetings in city and in country.

The personnel of the two groups was as follows:

—Toronto—E. J. Moore, Chief; Alfred Goddard, William Burns, William Dunn, William Logan, Albert Fear, Alfred Fear, Herman Maguire, Herman Rutledge, Kenneth Rutledge, Russell King, Nelson Long, Clarence Dean, Eric McMurray, Frank Sparling, Ernest Moore, Harry Greenaway, Karl Kane, Harry Clarry, Luther Emerson.

Acton—N. F. Moore, Scoutmaster; Rudolph Spielvogel, Joseph Hynds, Lloyd Forbes, Lloyd Kenney, Telford Kenney, Laird McDonald, Laird Dancy, Leslie Gregory, Leslie Martin, Frank Bauer, George Soper, Edwin Landsborough, Ray Agnew, Fred Warren, W. Robertson, Ray Gamble, James Matthews, Robert Stewart, Stephen Guest.

Mr. John Newton, of Sarnia, treated the boys to ice cream on Monday. Mr. Wm. Gowdy did everything in his power to make the camp and its activities a memorable outing. When the boys and the Scoutmaster were leaving he cordially invited them to trek to Limehouse again for an outing when they could make it convenient.

BURLINGTON

Burlington ratepayers will vote on June 12, on a by-law to raise $20,000 for an athletic park.

The Hotel Raymond sheds are being torn down.

The seventy-fifth anniversary of the Presbyterian Church will be celebrated on June 6.

The Zimmerman Reliance Co. are establishing a branch in the Queen's Hotel.

License Inspector Harvey was in town on Monday and Tuesday, checking up things generally. He also delivered the standard license for the Hotel Raymond.—Gazette.

ONLY ONE

"William!" she shouted in a voice fit to command a regiment, "take your feet off the table this very instant!"

"Margaret, I want you to know," he said in a voice that was surcharged with manly determination, "that there is but one person in the world that I will allow to talk to me in that way."

With an irate mien she arose and looked into his eyes.

"And who is that, sir, may I ask?" she thundered.

"Why, you, my dear," he gently answered, as he removed his feet from the table.
