MARRIED

COLLIER-INNIS—At the Manse, Law Street, Toronto, on Saturday, January 22, 1921, by the Rev. T. D. L. McKerrol, of Victoria Presbyterian Church, Viola V., daughter of Mrs. E. Innis, of Toronto, to Milfort H., son of Mrs. E. F. Collier, Acton.

DIED

HARDING—In Erin Township, on Thursday, January 13, 1921, Richard Harding, in his 87th year.

GRAY—At the family residence, Frederick Street, Acton, on Monday, January 24, 1921, Thos. Gray, M. D.

MOORE—At Toronto, on Friday, January 21, 1921, Louisa, beloved wife of Wm. Moore, formerly of Georgetown, aged 52 years.

BARBARER—In Milton, on Sunday, January 23, 1921, Lambert J. Barbarer, of Grand Valley, formerly of Nassagaweya, in his 80th year.

MUNDY—At his home in Oshawa, on Monday, January 24, 1921, Edward Mundy, President The Reformer Printing Co., in his 84th year.

IN MEMORIAM

GAMBLE—In loving memory of our dear grandmother, Mrs. Jas. Gamble, who passed away January 30, 1920.

Dear Grandma, how we miss you,
No earthly tongue can tell.
But you have gone to that happy land
With Jesus, there to dwell.

Inserted by Her Loving Grandchildren.

GAMBLE—In ever loving memory of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Jas. Gamble, who departed this life January 30, 1920.

Some day, some time our eyes shall see
The face we loved so well;
Some day thy hand shall clasp in ours,
And never bid farewell.

A mother from us now is gone
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our hearts,
Which never can be filled.

Sleep on dear mother, thy labors o'er,
Thy willing hands shall toil no more!
On earth there's strife, in Heaven rest,
We loved you well, God loved you best.

Husband, Son and Daughters.

MACDONALD—In loving memory of our dear Jennie, who died January 23, 1920.

One year has gone, but none can tell
The loss of one we loved so well;
One of the best, whom God could lend,
A loving mother, a faithful friend.

The silent grief that's in the soul
No human life can trace.
For many an aching heart is hid
Behind a smiling face.

Sleep on dear Jennie, take thy rest,
They miss you most who loved you best.

~~Friends are friends if they are true,~~
But to-day those friends are few,
The God that gave has taken,
And Heaven, dear, you won.
And though our hearts are broken,
Thy will, oh God, be done.

Sadly missed by
Husband and Daughter,
Mac and Margaret.

Mr. Isaac Newton, Harris, is administering the estate of his sister, the late Miss Hannah Newton.

OAKVILLE

Rosalie, the little ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Giddings, junior, died in Grace Hospital, Toronto, last Sunday, a victim of meningitis.

H. W. Peterson, a shipper for the Oak Tire Co., has been accused of selling tires and retaining the proceeds. He appeared before Magistrate Shields and was sent up for trial at Milton.

The Knox Church Young People's Society are arranging to give a Scotch concert in the school room of the church on the evening of February 1.

J. Martin met with a painful accident on Tuesday morning, having his foot crushed by being caught in a belt at the basket factory.—Star.

LESLIE'S SCHOOL

The concert given in aid of the Chinese Famine Fund at Leslie's School on Friday evening, January 21, under the auspices of the Greenock Literary Society, was a decided success. The attendance was good and the splendid programme given was enjoyed by all. Numerous selections were rendered by the Acton Orchestra, Rockwood Male Quartette; solos by Miss Little and Mrs. Henderson, Rockwood, and Rev. Mr. Findlay, Acton. Readings were given by Miss M. Near, Mrs. Henderson and Mr. T. D. McCutcheon; an instrumental duett by the Misses Pearen; also several well-acted dialogues by members of the Literary Society. Col. Mutrie, of Rockwood, very ably filled the chair and pleased the audience with his witty remarks and stories.

MILTON

Hon. E. C. and Mrs. Drury were guests of Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Gowland over last Friday evening and night.

The new high school is open to all classes this week.

Mr. Abe Smith, of Toronto, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Nat. R. Smith, of Detroit, formerly of Milton, spent a day or so in town looking up old friends.

On Fair Day, last October, Thomas Brownridge's overcoat and rug disappeared from his rig which he had left on Buck & Morley's vacant lot on East Mary Street. No trace was found until a few days ago, when Mr. Brownridge heard that John Cox had been seen wearing the coat. Cox lives next to the lot. A search warrant was issued. Chief Constable Chapman found the coat and rug in Cox's house and brought Cox before Police Magistrate Dice. He was remanded till this afternoon and released on $400 bail.—Champion.

ERIN

Masters Kenneth and R. B. Kirkwood are improving after their severe illness.

The February meeting of the Women's Institute and U. F. O. will be held at the home of Joseph Thompson, Coningsby, on Thursday, February 3.

Mr. J. P. Bush, Jr., of Toronto, spent the week-end at his home here.
