THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1921

Brief Local Items

—Clean up the boulevards.

—All Fools' Day—to-morrow.

—Spring plowing has commenced.

—Prepare to vote. Get on the list.

—April comes again in the morning.

—The roads are drying up nicely now.

—These are clean-up and paint-up days.

—A little spell of winter "butted in" this week.

—Looked like April showers on Easter morning.

—March's exit was less lamblike than it's advent.

—The A. B. C. of motoring is—Always Be Careful.

—The safety habit in driving is contagious—get it.

—Some householders have commenced gardening operations for the season.

—Twenty-fourth of May is the next holiday, and it comes in about seven weeks.

—Rake over your street frontage. It will improve the appearance of your property.

—Guelph's tax rate this year will be 36 mills, four mills higher than last year's rate.

—Compete in Mr. Cleaver's contest: "Why vote yes." Particulars in another column.

—The brick is being laid down for the extensive improvements on the Starkman buildings.

—The succulent watercress is now growing luxuriantly. It's spring pungency gives a "pep" which is relished.

—Esquesing Township Council will meet next Monday, April 4. The pathmasters for the year will be appointed.

—There are encouraging indications that the Shoe Factory building will house a going concern within a few weeks.

—If your name is not on the voters' list, and you are eligible to vote, go to the Town Hall to-day and have it put on.

—Easter morning's weather was rather showery for the new Easter millinery at the Easter morning church services.

—There are still enquiries for Acton municipal debentures by prospective purchasers. None are now available, however.

—The good citizen not only prepares to vote, but sees that his or her name is on the voters' list. Call at the Town Hall to-day.

—The attractive vernal tint which lawns, roadsides and pastures have already taken on is a hopeful sign that spring is at hand.

—The filling in of the centre of the roadway of Wilbur Street, between Mill and Church Streets, was a much-needed improvement.

—The glad Easter hymns and anthems at the church services last Sunday naturally engendered a spirit of devotion and trust.

—Mr. John Moffat is having the store on Main Street, which he recently purchased, remodelled for his proposed new business.

—The fence on the north side of the new school playground, erected two or three years ago, has a very tipsy lean and threatens to fall over.

—In case you reside in the township you may secure the right to vote by application to the Deputy Returning Officer at your polling place.

—Horseradish and parsnips are the first vegetables from the average garden which are being enjoyed. Rheubarb will be along in a few weeks.

—The sign "No dumping allowed here," down by the mill dam has been openly violated lately. The result is a slovenly appearance at the roadside.

—Many farmers throughout the country have been engaged in spring plowing during the week, and seeding will be commenced earlier than for many years.

—While Good Friday's weather in the morning threatened rather a damp and cloudy day, it proved quite balmy and springlike. The sun shone bright and warm most of the day.

—Did you know that for twenty-five years after Acton was settled there was not a postage stamp to be had in the place. The first postage stamp issued in Canada was in 1851.

—A gentleman said to his friend, who came from a prosperous neighboring town: "You are still growing and crowing, I see." The answer was: "Yes, and if you don't crow, you won't grow."

—T. B. Gibbons, the shoe man, is moving his business and machinery to the Acton Creamery building across the street. He will return to his present stand as soon as the Starkman building is remodelled.

—A tree will make a million matches; a match may destroy a million trees. When in the woods take no chances with lighted matches, tobacco, or camp-fire. Get the habit. Be careful with fires in the woods.

—Reeve Barber gives the annual notice to citizens to clean up their premises and comply with the Public Health Act, in this issue. The compliance of citizens has always resulted in Acton being tidy and sanitary.

RUPTURE SPECIALIST COMING

We call attention of our readers who may be ruptured, or having children so ruptured, to the coming visit of the Truss Specialist, to the place and dates as shown hereunder, when and where he may be consulted free.

This may be your only opportunity to secure his valuable services, and thus find relief—especially in severe cases, where other efforts have proven failures.

Notice dates of visit below, or cut this out for reference.

WHAT ARE YOU THINKING ABOUT

Constructive thinking is one of the rarest things in the world. Some of you would be astonished if you kept track of your thoughts for a day to see how aimless they were, and how dependent on outside influences. You were not thinking along any especial line, nor to any special end, but your mind grasped this suggestion or that, shoved in from the outside world, and thought of that till something new took its place. It is not what we eat, but what we digest that nourishes us. It is not what we learn, but what we think about that gives us intellectual power. Sometimes a friend will offer you a penny for your thoughts. If they are the right kind of thoughts, they should be worth a thousand dollars any day.

AGAINST LAW

Some men make a terrible howl about "personal liberty" when their beer is touched, but how meekly to the law when it says he shall not carry a gun or dirk knife on his hip. Fancy the ruckus that would have arisen a hundred years ago if a gentleman had been forbidden to carry a sword, and his servant a dagger! But the most amusing stunt that liberty loving victims of temperance legislation perform is the effort to show that temperance practices and laws are unscriptural. Christ made wine at the wedding feast, they say, and Paul told Timothy to take a little wine for his stomach's sake. These are the regular stock arguments. These liberty lovers start a scriptural agitation in favor of polygamy. Why not let us have the good old patriarchal customs that allowed a man to have as many wives as he could buy or support. Polygamy and booze have gone by the board because they became enemies of civilization. The curse of liquor is that it has proven itself a foe to law and order as well as a menace to the community in its direct effects.—Solomon Shoe and Leather Journal.

—J. W. Kennedy & Son, Georgetown, wish to advise the people of Acton that they will shortly open a branch of their plumbing and tinsmithing business in Acton. In the meantime any one wishing anything in this line will be taken care of by communicating with them.

BEST GERMANS LEAVING GERMANY

An exchange carries the following: "As a result of the war a remarkable change in vital statistics is found in France. For many years prior to 1914 the death rate far exceeded the birth rate in that decadent country. Now the births are far in excess of the deaths and the social and the moral tone of the people is decidedly improved. France at its present rate will in a few years outstrip Germany, once so prolific; for while there are many births in the latter country, the infant mortality rate, owing to unfortunate conditions caused by the war, is frightfully high, and the moral and physical tone of the people is unfavorable. In addition to this, thousands of the better-class Germans are leaving the country or, are making preparations to do so. Within the last year more than five thousand have gone to Mexico, large numbers have gone to Brazil and to other South American countries." One cannot blame the "better-class Germans" for wanting to get out of Germany, but it is hard on Germany.

—St. Joseph's Church will hold a social this (Thursday) evening in the basement of the Church. Mrs. John Kennedy will be hostess. All welcome.

STUDENTS LEARN EXTRAVAGANCE

The fact that recently a candidate elected to a Rhodes scholarship declined to accept the honor because of the inadequate allowance of $1,500 a year provided by Mr. Cecil Rhodes's will, has suggested the propriety of increasing this amount. It cannot be done, however, in accordance with the unchangeable provision of the will. That amount would care for two students a generation ago. One trait the present-day student has developed is extravagance. He graduates with the simple life fairly eradicated by a score of money-demanding activities that would have made his father stand aghast. The average student of to-day spends more needlessly than his father's entire yearly outlay at college. Automobiles, taxis, dinners, dances, clothes, athletics, and so forth, pile up the total rapidly. Though colleges are scattered so generously over the country, it is to be doubted if the chances of obtaining an education today are any more pronounced than in the past generation.—Northwest Advocate.

The Public Health

CITIZENS ARE REQUESTED TO COMPLY WITH THE PUBLIC HEALTH ACT

Notice is hereby given that all residents of Acton are required forthwith to clean their cellars, drains, yards, pig styes, water closets, outbuildings, and other premises, and remove therefrom all dirt, manure and other substance which may endanger the public health and to have the same completed by the tenth day of May next, on which day the Sanitary Inspector will commence a general inspection; and further take notice that the section of the Public Health Act prohibiting the keeping of hogs between the 15th of May and the 15th of November, except in pens at least 70 feet from any dwelling house, and 50 feet from any street or lane, with floors kept clear from all standing water and regularly cleansed, will be strictly enforced.

All citizens are earnestly requested to keep their premises constantly clean and thoroughly disinfected.

GEORGE BARBER,
Reeve of the Municipality.

Geo Wallace Says:

Let the whole world know that in these days of starved stocks we at least have abundant supplies of every thing Men and Boys wear—

CLOTHING, FURNISHINGS, HATS, CAPS, ETC.

Let folks understand that our merchandise is as fresh and new as Spring Clothes always should be. Our old high-priced goods were cleared out in the late unlamented winter.

Let the word go out that prices here are all based on current replacement costs. We've neglected no chance to profit you by the world-wide readjustment of values.

WATSON BROS.
8 ALLEN AVE. — TORONTO

HE SEEMED VERY OLD TO HER

A little girl who had been besieging her grandfather with an endless succession of questions during the evening, says the London Morning Post, had still one more question to ask before she went to bed.

"Grandad," she said, "were you in the ark?"

"Why, no!" he exclaimed smilingly.

"Then," said she, regarding him with innocent wonder, "why wasn't you drowned?"
