

Highs and lows marked a very busy year

duo at one of our dinner events. I borrowed one of their guitars, and the four of us made some impromptu music, to the delight (I hope) of all the others on the trip.

In 2014 I had the joy of walking two daughters down the aisle, and acquired two 'sons' in the bargain—two very happy events. In contrast, it was a year of loss, as The Sidekick lost her mother to cancer in September and her step-father seven days later. Collectively she spent four weeks on Vancouver Island, as she and her five siblings put their mother and step-dad to rest, and dealt with the drain of settling their estates. It was a year of accomplishment, as the crops excelled this year with outstanding yields— a pleasant conclusion to the year.

It was a year of excitement for me, as I was successful in the municipal election, winning the seat, which will undoubtedly change my life. So as the end of 2014 slips past us, 2015 arrives, let me wish you all a Happy New Year, and all the best in the coming 12 months.

To our valued friends and customers:
As we stand at the threshold to another new year, we would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for making us your electrician of choice. We strive to be the best, and are dedicated to providing our customers with professional work. To each and every one of you, the entire Deker Team wishes you health, happiness and all the best in the New Year.
