IN MEMORIAM

CAMPBELL—In memory of Hugh Campbell, who passed away November 14, 1920.

One year gone with lonely memories,
Of the one we miss so much;
From the chair that now is vacant,
Once filled by one we sadly miss.

WIFE AND FAMILY

RYDER—In affectionate memory of my dearly beloved husband, Thomas E. Ryder, who passed away at his home, November 18, 1919.

The heavenly gates were opened wide;
A loving voice said come,
And with farewells unspoken
He gently entered home.

Home day we hope to meet him,
Home day, we know not when.
We'll clasp his hand, in a better land,
And never part again.

Fondly remembered by

Brief Local Items

—Shop for Christmas early.

—The snow has been here for a week now.

—The deer hunters are getting home again.

—Dressed poultry is coming in more freely.

—Prof. Carpenter in the town hall to-night.

—A few logs have come in on sleighs during the week.

—King winter didn't come to stay after all last week.

—The memorial poppy was in evidence everywhere last Friday.

—The poppies were numerous and quite striking on Armistice Day.

—The waterworks are amply proving a valuable and satisfactory asset.

—The big snow storm last week knocked out the motors rather effectually.

—A fine cement floor has been laid in Dr. Cox's big garage on Main Street.

—Subscribe for the Free Press as a Christmas present to your absent son or daughter.

—Plan for Christmas now and avoid worry nearer the great festival which we all enjoy.

—Don't throw too many stones investigating the thickness of the ice; you'll spoil the skating.

—A fine antlered stag arrived from the north on Tuesday which had been shot by W. J. Patterson.

—Don't forget the H. M. M. dance in the town hall, Acton, Friday, November 25. Music by Eitel's Orchestra.

—Mr. H. W. Wood, of the Sydney Harbor Board, has kindly forwarded the Free Press copies of Australia papers.

—There was very good skating on Corporation Pond on Saturday for the first of the season. Many skaters enjoyed it.

—The Bannockburn Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. R. N. Brown next Thursday afternoon, 24th inst.

—We've had four Armistice Day celebrations already since the war. The first was the noisiest. The last was the quietest.

—Thank you! That's for the numerous readers who renewed their Free Press subscriptions during the week. We'll say it again next week if you say so.

—Mr. A. E. McNab, of Walkerton, has been appointed Police Magistrate for the County of Bruce. He will require to resign the mayoralty to accept the new position.

—Mrs. D. McMurchy, of Calgary, in remitting for her Free Press for another year, says: "I appreciate the paper very much. It is better than a letter from my old home town."

—Mrs. Julia McArthur, who returned to New Orleans a few weeks ago, has kindly sent the Free Press illustrated papers from that city showing the celebrations of Armistice Day.

—Mr. Walter Gayman, manager of the Vineland Co-operative Fruit Co., who was killed at Vineland station when his car was struck by a G. T. R. train, was a cousin of Rev. I. M. Moyer.

—Mr. Victor Watson, who bought a farm in Erin last year, has sold his place and will return to Acton to reside. He has purchased the residence of the late Peter Gibbons on Frederick Street.

—The Guelph jail-breakers found it unprofitable business. The two who were caught were given eight years additional to their original penitentiary sentence, for assaulting the jail officials and breaking jail.

—The card social at St. Joseph's Church will be held on Friday evening this week on account of the lecture on Thursday evening under the auspices of the G. W. V. A. Mrs. James Gibbons will be the hostess.

—Several of the members of the ladies' Loyal True Blue Lodge, which was recently organized here, were at Georgetown on Thursday evening to assist in organizing a lodge there. About thirty Georgetown ladies joined.

—The municipal authorities will perform a good deed if they will arrange with the Hydro-Electric Commission to have a light placed on Frederick Street below Agnes, so that citizens may safely approach the walk which leads to the skating rink. The field is lighted by the rink management, but the approach at the street is rather dangerous.

Neighborhood News--Town and Country

CREWSONS CORNERS

There doesn't seem to be prospects for any who hadn't all their turnips up before the snow storms, of getting them up this fall.

The political pot is beginning to boil about here.

Rev. Mr. Moyer, of Acton, will hold a prayer meeting in the Methodist Church here on Friday evening.

EVERTON

Mrs. C. P. Ross and little son, Billy, of Cleveland, arrived here recently to spend some time at home with her mother.

Geo. Robertson has added much to the good appearance of his property by reshingling and other improvements.

The last meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Oakes. About ninety were present. A debate was held: "Resolved that consolidated schools are an improvement on the present system." Affirmative, Irwin Jackson and Roy Hindley; negative, Edgar McKinnon and Fred McWilliams. The decision was given in favor of the affirmative. Miss Jean McLean was appointed delegate to the Toronto convention. Mr. Damper made a good chairman. Luncheon was served and a sociable time was spent.

GEORGETOWN

Mr. Arthur Armour has disposed of River View Farm to Mr. John McDonald, coal dealer.

Miss Freda Herbert has returned home after spending a holiday at Newport, Vermont, and Lennoxville, Que.

Mr. and Mrs. B. McGuire, of Orangeville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ikelton on Sunday.

Rev. R. H. Bailey, of India, returned missionary, gave an illustrated lecture in Knox Church school room on Friday evening.

The waterworks by-law to raise $60,000 for waterworks has been finally passed.

The contract for the pumping for the new waterworks system has been given to Goldie & McCullough, of Galt. Price $9,834.

The concert in the town hall last Friday evening under the auspices of Credit Lodge A. F. & A. M., was one of the best ever held in Georgetown.

On motion of McMillan and McIntyre a grant of $200 was made to the band at last Council meeting.—Herald.

OAKVILLE

The Cedar Grove Mission will hold a bazaar and concert on Friday afternoon and evening, November 25.

Miss Marjorie Rowntree, of London, Miss Freda Daly, of Toronto, and Leaver Ikino, of Japan, were guests at the Methodist Parsonage last week.

The Oakville fair annual banquet will be held on Friday evening, November 25. There will be a play and a good programme.

This section of Ontario was visited on Tuesday night and Wednesday last week by a fierce eastern blizzard, which is remarkably early for such a heavy fall. The snow was almost a foot in depth on the level.

Our Masonic brethren are looking forward to an important event on Thursday afternoon and evening next, November 17, when past masters of the lodge will take the chairs and confer degrees.

Thanksgiving and armistice services were held in the Methodist Church on Sunday when the church was decorated with shields, flags, vegetables, fruit and flowers. The morning service was largely of a thanksgiving nature, while in the evening about seventy-five members of the G. W. V. A. marched in a body to the church and occupied the centre seats. Rev. Dr. Dougall preached a very timely and able sermon.

The High School Literary Society will hold a concert in Victoria Hall on Monday evening, November 21. The Canadian variety four will provide the programme—J. H. Cameron, Jimmie Fox, Maud Buschlen, violinist; Ada Oldfield, soprano.—Star.

NASSAGAWEYA

A grand concert was given on Armistice Day, in Garrett's Hall, Campbellville. Ralph Gordon, cartoonist, humorist, singer, impersonator, reciter, in pleasing stories, original imitations, magical skill, and clever chalk talks, charmed his audience. He was assisted by Richard Foster, popular soloist, St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, in rollicking sea songs. Miss M. Hamnel was the accompanist.

Ebenezer church recorded another successful anniversary last Sunday and Monday. Rev. R. D. Hamilton, President of the Conference, preached a powerful sermon on Sunday morning which was greatly enjoyed. Owing to the poor roads Rev. Mr. Cassmore took the evening service. His sermon was also a timely one and quite acceptable to all.

Monday evening's fowl supper and concert attracted a very large gathering. The supper was fully up to the reputation for which the Ebenezer ladies are famous. They received great praise for their culinary excellence. The programme was excellent. It was provided by the Acton Methodist Sunday School Orchestra with instrumental duetts by Miss Lottie Mason and Mr. Alex. Shand. Mr. Crooker, of Brantford, who so greatly pleased the audience last year, was fully up to his splendid reputation. Miss Emma Jackson, elocutionist, charmed the audience with her numbers. Witty speeches were made by Rev. I. M. Moyer, Acton and Rev. J. T. Strachan, Nassagaweya.

MILTON

Mr. B. Cass and family moved to Galt last week. We are sorry to see them leave town.

Mrs. Galbraith, Sr., one of our oldest residents, has left town to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. John Syer, Toronto.

Sleighs were out the morning following the big snowfall during the night.

Mr. T. D. Hume, who has been ill for the past few weeks, is slowly improving, while Roy, his son, continues very poorly.

The first football game of the season was played last Friday, when the Milton High School team defeated the Oakville High School students by 3 to 0.

The C. P. R. express from the west due here at 7.14 p. m. will hereafter until further notice leave here at 7.40 p. m.

Notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather all day last Friday, the Thanksgiving supper and entertainment held that evening was a splendid success, far above what was anticipated under the circumstances.

At Tuesday's meeting of the Halton County Council it was unanimously decided to raise the salary of Mr. and Mrs. Partridge, superintendent and matron of the Halton-Peel House of Refuge at Brampton, from $1,000 to $1,200 a year, providing the Peel County Council passed a similar resolution.

The anniversary festival was held on Sunday in Grace Church. The preacher throughout the day was Rev. R. H. Ferguson, B. D., Rural Dean of Hamilton, who gave splendid sermons.—Reformer.

Interesting Deanery Meeting

And Session of Halton Woman's Auxiliary of the Deanery, at Georgetown

The Deanery of Halton met in St. George's Church, Georgetown, last Thursday and Friday when a series of interesting services were held.

At eight o'clock on Thursday evening Divine service was held at which Rev. P. H. C. Powles, M. A., of Japan, preached an impressive sermon.

On Friday morning at 9 o'clock the celebration of Holy Communion was observed, Rev. O. F. Cooke, Rural Dean, of Milton, being the celebrant.

A devotional address followed by Rev. E. O. Twiss, B. A., of Norval.

A chapter meeting of the Deanery was held at which two able addresses were given. Rev. George W. Tebbs, of Burlington, spoke on "Work among the young people of our Church" in which there was much of interest and inspiration. Ven. Archdeacon McIntosh, B. A., B. D., of Guelph, gave important information respecting the funds of the church, and followed with a succinct and interesting resume of the proceedings of the General Synod recently held at Hamilton.

The hospitality of the ladies of St. George's Church was greatly enjoyed and appreciated at the noonday luncheon.

The afternoon session was devoted to a joint meeting of the Deanery Chapter and Deanery Woman's Auxiliary. Mrs. Waller, of Japan, gave an address rich in missionary information and Rev. Mr. Waller also spoke on the work in this interesting field.

Reports were also given by the delegates to the Triennial meetings at Montreal and a half hour by the Literature Committee furnished information which the workers especially appreciated.

Rev. and Mrs. Baugh, of St. Alban's Church, attended the Deanery meetings.

Political Notes

A joint meeting of the farmer candidates will be held at Eden Mills on Saturday evening. Addresses will be made by Mr. Hinger, of Wellington County, and Mr. Ford, candidate for Halton.

It looks as if the Tory party intends to try to govern Canada from the Senate, no matter what the Commons may do. Foster, Reid, Calder, Kemp and Crothers—recently ministers in the Commons—have gone to join Robertson, Blondin and Loughheed. Mr. Meighen's former "Senate Ministers." No such scramble for Senatorships has ever before been seen in Canadian politics prior to a general election.—Globe.

An observing outsider fails to discern the striking differences in policy of the three parties striving for the ascendancy in the present political campaign, which their leaders would fain have the electors to believe exists. The Glasgow Herald editorially describes the Canadian general election as an uninspiring contest, with the issues turning on local, or at most, provincial considerations, and thinks that no party will obtain a clear majority. Even the appearance of the Farmers' party, the Herald says, is not arousing the keen interest once expected, yet placing the balance of power in its hands would give it a consciousness of strength which would hardly resist the temptation of using its powers for class ends.

Dr. Anderson, M. P. for Halton, and Hon. Hugh Guthrie, of South Wellington, held a joint meeting at Ballinafad on Friday evening.

"I intend to pursue a policy of moderate protection right through and I will do so if returned to power."—Premier Meighen at Chatham, N. B. That sounds just about what would-be Premier King and would-be Premier Crerar also say. It's what either of them will have to do anyway if returned to power.

BURLINGTON

Rev. G. H. Cassmore, B. A., of Nassagaweya, preached in the Methodist Church Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Hamilton was preaching at the Ebenezer Anniversary.

Mr. A. B. Coleman left on Saturday on a two weeks' business trip to Florida.

Mr. P. J. O'Neil, of Adrian, Mich., spent a few days with his nephew, E. J. Corwin during the past week.

Rev. R. D. Hamilton, president of the Hamilton Conference, unveiled a tablet on the New Credit Indian Reserve for Lieut. Cameron Brant, a direct descendant of Chief Brant.

St. Luke's Membership and Service Campaign is going strong. The motto is every member at church in November and after.

Rev. G. W. Tebbs gave a lecture on Wednesday in Hamilton at the meeting of the Hamilton Angling Club, on "New Lures for the Black Bass."

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kenney have returned home from their honeymoon and will be at home to their friends on Guelph Street, after November 22.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Jopling, of Montreal, spent a few days here during the past week. They came up to attend the funeral of the late Dr. Husband.—Gazette.

ERIN

Mrs. Clarence McMillan and little son of Beauguard, Sask., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMillan, Hillsburg.

Owing to the steady growth of St. Andrew's Church, Hillsburg, during the present year, the Session has found it necessary to ask the congregation for the election of three additional elders.

Mr. Dave Mundell, who has had charge of the Caledon branch of the Union Bank for the past few months, has been transferred to the branch of Aylmer, Que.

Miss Mitchell, of Toronto, a representative of the Home Missionary Society, gave a very interesting address in Burns' Presbyterian Church here the other evening.

On Friday evening last Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Austin entertained the members of the Turf Club and their wives to an oyster supper.

Mr. Robt. Lang, who has been in failing health for some time, is gradually becoming weaker.

The Mimosa Women's Institute meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry McDougall on the evening of November 24.

Rev. J. D. Stephens, who has been pastor of the Christian Church, Hillsburg, for nearly eight years, has resigned and wishes to close his work here in the very near future.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Woodwell were all home for Thanksgiving: Will frogs the University—in Toronto; Gladys from Acton Public School; Mungo, Lillian and Robert from Brampton High School.—Advocate.

THE KIND SHE WANTED

A lecturer had been describing some of the sights he had seen abroad.

"There are many spectacles in the world that one never forgets," he said.

"I wish you would tell me where I can get a pair," exclaimed an old lady in the audience. "I am always forgetting mine."

A subscriber writing the editor to have his paper stopped said, "I don't want your paper any longer," to which the editor replied, "I wouldn't make it any longer if you did."

More Books for Public Library

Book Committee Selecting an Addition of New Books This Week

At a meeting of the Free Library Board on Saturday afternoon, when the members were considering the interests of the readers of the Library, it was decided to make a selection of the newer books of literature, biography, sociology, voyage and travel, fiction and juvenile.

The Librarian, Secretary and Rev. Mr. Moyer will proceed to the publishing houses to-day to make a selection and by Christmas the new books should be available to the readers of the library.

At the conclusion of business Mr. Cameron, the Chairman, referred to the recent appointment of the Secretary of the Board to the very responsible position of Police Magistrate of his native county, as well as for a portion of the county of Wellington. He felt that the appointment was a judicious one and that the Board was honored in having one of its members selected for this important office. He offered very sincere congratulations to Mr. Moore upon his appointment.

Rev. Mr. Moyer and Mr. H. N. Farmer added similar kind words and congratulations.

Mr. Moore thanked the members for their generous expressions and said he would endeavor honestly and conscientiously to administer the responsible duties of the extended jurisdiction with which the government had entrusted him, as he had endeavored to do during the twenty-four years he had occupied the bench in a narrower sphere.

The Board then adjourned.

No part of a man's speech wins so much applause as the part where he finishes his remarks and sits down. Yet how few speakers seem to observe this.
