IN MEMORIAM

DILLI—In loving memory of our dear baby, "Mac," who died January 18, 1921, aged 15 months and 3 weeks.

No stain was on his little heart,
His had not entered there,
And innocence slept sweetly on
His pale white brow so fair.
He was too pure for this cold earth,
To beautiful to stay,
And so God's holy angels bore
Our darling boy away.

Mother and Father.

McCUTCHEON—In loving memory of Elsie, dearly beloved daughter of Hugh and Eva McCutcheon, who departed to be with Jesus January 2, 1919.

There is never a day, but her name is spoken;
There is never a day, but she is in our thoughts;
A link in the family chain is broken;
She is gone from our home, but not from our hearts.

FATHER AND MOTHER.

God needed one more angel,
To join His heavenly band—
So he called my darling sister
Unto the Better Land.

SISTER EDNA.

The Fancy Dress Carnival

Although the Weather was not Favorable There Was a Large Number of Participants

Another success was registered for the Acton Skating Rink in the Carnival staged last Saturday evening. The weather was not as pleasant as that which favored this event a year ago, and, consequently, the attendance was not quite as large, but fully as many appeared in costume as on the previous occasion. The costumes were varied and excellent and most every age and standing was represented, from the devil up.

At intervals the lights were turned off and a colored lantern used to illuminate the scene of the skaters and moccasin dancers. The Acton Citizens' Band was out in full force and provided the music for the skaters and dancers from 7.30 until 11 o'clock, when the function broke up.

The following is the list of events with the prize winners of each:

Best Ladies' Costume—1st, Mrs. N. H. Garden, Britannia; 2nd, Miss Jessie McGregor, Little Bo Peep.

TOO KIND

In many rural neighborhoods where money does not circulate rapidly the people pay for services in kind"; for example, farmers frequently give potatoes, eggs or other produce in payment for debts. A young surgeon who had had occasion to operate in such a neighborhood, says Harper's Magazine, hopefully approached the husband of the patient and asked for his fee, which amounted to one hundred dollars.

"Doc," said the old man, "I haven't much ready cash. Can I pay you in kind?"
