Firefighters kept busy

Halton Hills firefighters responded to a single-vehicle collision in the area of Back and Mill Sts. in Georgetown about 12:45 a.m. Tuesday Dec. 23. A vehicle had backed over a fire hydrant snapping it off and had become stuck on the steel posts guarding the hydrant. Fire staff checked that the vehicle was in park with keys off, gathered information and cleared the scene.

• Firefighters responded to the report of a possible chimney fire on Orchard Blvd. on Christmas Day.

On scene crews met with the homeowner who reported they had a chimney fire, but believed it was out.

Firefighters checked the wood stove in the basement and the owner had already pulled most of the wood out and put water on what was still in the stove.

Crews also checked the walls and found no hot spots.

They also went up on the roof, looked down the chimney and found that the fire was out.
