BALLINAFAD

A very successful garden party was held by the Presbyterian Church at the Manse here last Friday evening. The weather was not very suitable for this sort of function but a good crowd assembled. Bob Wilson, the humorist, and Miss Grace Hamilton provided a goodly part of the programme and were well received. Solos by Mr. and Mrs. Black, of Georgetown were greatly appreciated and well rendered. The Acton Citizens' Band was also an attraction of merit and rendered a number of fine selections. Rev. Mr. Waddell very capably fulfilled the duties of chairman.

Hamilton Conference

This Interesting Annual Gathering Was Held at St. Catharines

The twenty-eighth annual session of Hamilton Conference was held in St. Paul Street Methodist Church, St. Catharines. The ministerial and lay sessions were opened on May 31, and the general sessions on Thursday, June 1.

A very fine tribute was paid to the ministers of the rural fields at the session of Hamilton Conference at St. Catharines last week, when Rev. Henry Caldwell, of Oxford Centre, was elected President of the Conference, by a very substantial majority. Rev. Mr. Caldwell was minister of the Brick Church and Limehouse Circuit in his early ministry. Mrs. Caldwell is a daughter of the late John Kitching, of Nassagaweya. During the session of the Conference Rev. Mr. Caldwell presided with grace and executive skill.

The sessions of the Lay Delegates' Association were held in Welland Avenue Church, of which Rev. George W. Barker is the pastor. Rev. Mr. Barker, his Board and his choir exerted themselves to make the gatherings there pleasant and convenient.

Rev. C. D. Draper, of Preston, formerly of Acton, received a fine nomination of the conference presidency next year. His vote was next highest to that of Rev. H. Caldwell, who was elected. He introduced the President to the conference.

The annual banquet of the Lay Delegates' Association in the armories was attended by six hundred persons. The address by Rev. George E. Gullen, B. A., B. D., of Detroit, was a masterly effort. It's theme was "The Promise of To-morrow." This function is the social event of the conference.

J. M. Denyes, B. A., the Inspector of Schools for this county, was the honored President of Lay Delegates' Association for the year. His consecrated ability and executive skill were splendidly displayed as he presided at the various sessions.

The new minister appointed to the church here is Rev. Charles Hackett, of Port Colborne. Rev. Mr. Hackett has just completed a very successful four years' pastorate at Port Colborne, and the delegates attending conference from that point speak in very high terms of his ability as a pastor, his geniality as a citizen, and his usefulness to the church and community. Rev. Mr. Hackett will receive a very cordial welcome to Acton, and he will find a united church to which to minister and a fruitful field in which to direct his ministerial activities.

The election of delegates to the General Conference, the legislative body of the church, which meets once every four years, was a most interesting feature of Friday's sessions. Twenty-one ministerial and the same number of laymen were to be elected as Hamilton Conference's representation to the General Conference which meets in Toronto, the sessions commencing on Wednesday, September 27, next.

The following are ministerial delegates to General Conference: Rev. Henry Caldwell, Oxford Centre; Rev. G. W. Barker, St. Catharines; Rev. R. D. Hamilton, Burlington; Rev. J. H. Wells, Welland; Rev. T. Albert Moore, Toronto; Rev. H. S. Dougall, Oakville; Rev. C. D. Draper, Preston; Rev. Dr. A. J. Irwin, Grimsby; Rev. J. M. Haith, Norwich; Rev. J. A. McLachlan, Chesley; Rev. F. M. Wooton, Hamilton; Rev. S. M. Roadhouse, Woodstock; Rev. G. A. King, Brantford; Rev. J. E. Peters, Bartonville; Rev. W. W. Prudham, Drayton; Rev. Thomas Green, Dunnville; Rev. David A. Moir, Simcoe; Rev. J. M. Wright, Harriston; Rev. Dr. J. E. Hughson, Hamilton; Rev. W. S. Daniels, Elora.

The following lay delegates were elected to the General Conference: J. W. Shepperson, Brantford; H. P. Moore, Acton; R. W. Treleaven, Hamilton; M. L. Ball, Walkerton; J. J. Pritchard, Harriston, Thos. W. Hilliard, Waterloo; J. M. Denyes, Milton; A. Scruton, Brantford; E. Lindsay, Simcoe; Geo. E. Jones, St. Catharines; J. D. Poole, Wiarton; C. R. Biliger, Dunnville; C. A. Birge, Hamilton; Fred Mann, Brantford; M. S. Shell, Woodstock; John Taylor, Galt; C. P. McGregor, Waterdown; C. H. Cleaver, Burlington; Capt. Holton, Mt. Forest; H. Hann, Guelph, and C. H. Moyer, St. Catharines. First reserve, S. R. Nelles, Wilsonville; extra reserves, R. C. Hazelwood, H. R. Christie, J. Richardson and Rev. J. Smith, Rev. I. M. Moyer.

The following young men were ordained on Sunday: Austin W. Guild, Guelph; James S. Hyde, Orton; Arthur Hampson, Mount Forest; Leo. C. Mutalt, Niagara Falls; Alfred S. Truebiood, Trafalgar; Charles A. Perkins, Kenilworth; Milton J. Aiken, Norval; Sidney B. Stokes, Birmingham. These young men had the distinction of having the hand of Bishop Quayle laid upon their heads, as well as the elders of the ministry in the Conference.

The New Methodist Pastor

Rev. Charles Hackett, of Port Colborne, and Rev. I. M. Moyer of Acton Exchange

Rev. I. M. Moyer, who has been the minister of the Methodist Church here for the past four years, has been stationed at Port Colborne, which is a most desirable appointment.

Rev. Charles Hackett, of Port Colborne, will be Acton's new pastor. He has ministered to the Port Colborne congregations for the past four years, to the great satisfaction of the people there. In fact, so strongly does he live in the affections of the Port Colborne people that he would have been tendered an invitation to remain for a fifth year, if there had been any assurance that a fifth year term would be entertained by the conference.

Rev. Mr. Moyer is well acquainted with his new field. It is not far from his birthplace, and is close to many friends of the family. He will have a fine pastorate on this field as the people of the church there are acquainted with his merits and will welcome him with great cordiality.

Rev. Mr. Hackett has had a very successful ministry. He commenced his work at Carbonear, Newfoundland, and completed his course at Mount Allison University, at Sackville, N. B. Ten or twelve years ago Rev. Mr. Hackett was transferred to Hamilton Conference. The three charges he has had since have prospered under his ministry. He is a man of commanding appearance, has the reputation of being a good preacher, an excellent pastor, and an exceptionally able worker in the Sunday School and with the young people generally. When he comes to Acton Mr. Hackett will find a united church, ready to hold up the pastor's hands. To him and Mrs. Hackett and their two fine sons a cordial welcome awaits them at the new home here. The exchange of pastors will be effected the first Sunday in July.

Evidence of the esteem in which Rev. Mr. Hackett is held by the Conference is the fact that he was elected Chairman of Guelph District at the close of the Conference on Tuesday night. He also holds the responsible position of Conference Secretary of Statistics.

Neighborhood News--Town and Country

GEORGETOWN

Many of our town's people enjoyed the 24th on the golf links.

Gasoline has taken another jump, it is now selling in town at 40c. a gallon.

Work on the new highway has been commenced here. A gang of men are busy putting in culverts at the Norval road and the eastern end of Guelph Street.

A meeting of the Ladies' Bowling Club was held at the home of the President, Mrs. H. R. Henderson, on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The first weekly band concert of the season was given at the band stand Tuesday evening at 8.15.

The Worshipful Master, officers and members of Credit Lodge will pay a fraternal visit to King Solomon Lodge, Toronto, on Thursday, June 8.

Our firemen had a run on Saturday evening to a small blaze on Charles Street. No damage was done.

A Western woman has applied for a divorce on the ground that her husband had not taken her to a moving picture show for five years. There may yet be a movement in favor of putting into the marriage service an obligation on the part of the husband to provide that sort of entertainment.

Mr. A. H. Fuller, of the Hurley-Kay Co., made a business trip to Philadelphia last week and attended the hosiery and underwear manufacturers' exhibition.

Mrs. Frank Farmer, of Seattle, Wash., is visiting with Mrs. J. W. Kennedy.—Herald.

ERIN

Mr. R. McGuire, of the Orangeville Banner, was among the crowd at the sports on the 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Clow, of Hamilton, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. Leslie.

Dr. and Mrs. Skinner, of Guelph, called on friends in town on Sunday.

Mr. John Baker has moved into the residence recently occupied by John McCaig on Mill Street.

Rev. E. Osborn, Orangeville, occupied the pulpit of Erin Baptist Church on Sunday, at 3 o'clock.

On Thursday evening the citizens were startled when the fire bell rang out its alarming message and in a few minutes most of the villagers were at the scene of the trouble. Mr. Francis Frank was the unfortunate victim. He was working about his horses in the stable and in some manner the lantern was knocked over and instantly the place was in flames. So fast did the fire travel that Mr. Frank was unable to rescue the horses, and the poor animals suffered in the flames.

Rev. Geo. Trimble took the services on the Erin Methodist Circuit on Sunday last, and delighted the congregations with his splendid sermons.

Merchants' half holiday every Wednesday afternoon.

The summer meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. R. M. Bell, yesterday afternoon. The department speaker, Miss Harcourt, addressed the meeting.

The lacrosse team have won two fixtures one with Caledon on the 24th and one on Friday, June 2, from Caledon East.—Advocate.

MIMOSA

The Mimosa Presbyterian Guild met at Mr. Jake Miller's on Friday evening and spent a social evening.

The crop reporters say a bumper crop, while the silo builder says prepare for a short crop. I would like to know if either of these is the prophet who prophesied a hard winter. I imagine that I am safe in saying that about a third of our green foliage growing, which we call crops, is weeds.

Mrs. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wren and son, Lawson, of Guelph, visited at Mr. and Mrs. D. Lawson's.

Township officials were around inspecting bridges on the town lines.

Mrs. W. J. Gordon and babe, of Hillsburg, visited her mother, brothers and sisters on the 24th, while Messrs. Gordon, Lawson, Torrance and Bertram Torrance took in the sports at Fergus.

The beautiful steady, warm three-days' rain made rapid growth of all vegetation, especially corn, which has grown very fast.

A half dozen of our young men intend going to Guelph soon to take a course on stock judging.

The Women's Institute met at Mr. J. W. Entwistle's and after the usual business Mr. Albert Entwistle, agent for aluminum utensils, gave a demonstration.

Mr. Albert Smith shipped a car of baled hay from Orton this week.

Mr. D. Wheeler, Fergus, and Mr. Will Wheeler, of Kitchener, visited their cousin, Mr. George H. Wheeler, on Wednesday.

We are all glad to hear that Mr. Robt. Dewar is on the road to recovery at the Fergus Hospital.

Mr. Jas. Torrance has made quite an improvement to his property by planting a number of nice maples this spring and is now erecting an up-to-date wire fence along the town line in front of his buildings.

The managers of Mimosa Presbyterian Church have had carpenters at work this week lowering the ceiling in the entrance of the church and several other improvements which will add greatly to the appearance of the church.

The community was shocked at the sudden death of Mr. Thos. Adsett, one of Eramosa's most prosperous farmers, an honest, honorable Christian man, a member and elder of Mimosa Presbyterian Church, and a member of the choir. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and her mother, who made her home there, five sons and two daughters.

EVERTON

The remains of the late Duncan Stewart, of Guelph, who passed away on Monday evening of last week, were laid to rest on Thursday afternoon in Everton cemetery, the funeral taking place from his late home, 34 Norwich Street, at 2 o'clock. Service at the house and grave was conducted by Rev. Amos Tovell. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. M. Durr, Roswell Goldie, Alex. Waite, of Guelph; Edward Alton, Henry Oakes and George Petty of Eramosa.

Mr. Arthur Lane was home from Toronto on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Marshall and Mrs. Jas. D. Lane visited friends in Erin on Sunday.

BELWOOD

What was a near tragedy happened on a farm in East Garafraxa near Belwood, on Wednesday, when a young farmer, named Robson, was about to go out to the field with a stoneboat, on which was laid a .22 calibre rifle loaded for the purpose of shooting ground hogs. His sister, who purposed accompanying him, jumped on the stone boat and picked up the rifle and asked her brother if it was loaded. Before he could reply the rifle went off, the bullet entering his mouth and coming out in his neck below the jaw. Fortunately no bones were broken. He was taken to the Fergus Hospital, where he is now doing very well, and it is hoped that he may soon be able to return home.
