DIED

CARDINELL—In Georgetown, on Thursday, October 12, 1922, Henry Oscar Cardinell, aged 80 years.

LAWSON—At her late residence, in Georgetown on Sunday, October 15, 1922, Janet Catton Lawson, widow of the late David Lawson.

ROWE—At his late residence, 159 Prospect Street, Hamilton, on Friday, October 20, 1922, Rev. Richard H. Rowe, aged 80 years.

McKEAGUE—At Winnipeg, on Thursday, October 19, 1922, Alexander, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. McKeague, aged 14 years.

IN MEMORIAM

HILTON—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Mary Hilton, who died October 20, 1921.

From our happy home and circle
God has taken one we love,
Home away from sin and sorrow
To a better home above.

Sadly missed by Sons and Daughters.

HURT—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Pte. J. D. Hurt, 15th Batt., who died in France, October 25, 1918.

Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears of sorrow often flow,
Memory keeps our loved one near us,
Whom God claimed four years ago.

Sadly missed by
Father, Mother and Family.

Brief Local Items

—All Hallowe'en next Tuesday evening.

—Next Wednesday ushers in November.

—Poppies will be worn as usual on Armistice Day.

—Canada's Thanksgiving Day—a week from Monday.

—Good morning! Have you renewed your Free Press subscription?

—Oakville business men are talking of organizing a Board of Trade.

—The men who went West for the harvest have nearly all returned.

—Hallowe'en frolic may be innocent, enjoyable, and annoying to none.

—Pumpkin pie, snow apples and ghost stories will be in vogue on Hallowe'en.

—Make Hallowe'en an evening of real pleasure to all, with annoyance to none.

—Chickens are very plentiful at Pembroke and are selling at $1.00 to $1.50 per pair.

—Kindly examine the label on your Free Press, and ascertain if your subscription is paid up.

—Most people who run down their own town never did anything to make it better or to build it up.

—We think this is a fine county, but Norway has a law making girls learn to cook before they marry.

—Like Acton Council, Guelph has decided to hold its municipal elections the first week in December.

—The Soldiers' Monument will no doubt be decorated on Armistice Day with floral tributes, as usual.

—Orangeville has let a contract for a covered rink, to cost $13,630, and to be completed by December 15.

—Methodist anniversary services, Sunday, November 12. Preacher, Rev. G. W. Barker, St. Catharines.

—That man who is always pointing out the faults of others to you, will just as freely point out your faults to others.

—Shop in Acton and encourage local enterprise. Put spirit into business circles by the use of your dollars to promote trade.

—R. W. Bro. Cyrus O. Hemphill, Waterloo, Ont., D. D. G. M., will visit Walker Lodge, A. F. & A. M., next Monday evening.

—In an advertisement on page 6 the National Tractors, Limited, offer $25,000 in cash prizes for the best slogan for the tractor they are putting out.

—A meeting of the directors of Acton Fall Fair will be held this evening at eight o'clock, to wind up matters in connection with the Fair of 1922.

—Mrs. John Lawson was awarded half a dozen prizes in the ladies' work classes at Georgetown Fair, and Miss Mary K. Gibbons secured nine prizes in fine arts.

—Spooks, witches, ghosts, weird music, stunts, ghost stories "and witches," at the Hallowe'en Party in the Methodist School Room, Monday evening. Come!

—Mr. Robert Lang brought THE FREE PRESS a basket of shorthorn carrots the other day which beat big "pumkins." One of them weighs 3 pounds, 14 ounces.

—The garage of H. Tolton & Son, Guelph, was destroyed by fire last Wednesday evening. The loss was about $8,000. Four or five patrons of the garage lost their cars.

—The farmers of Acton and vicinity will load a car of feed on Saturday and Monday, to be shipped to Northern Ontario. Contributions of any kind will be gratefully received.

—Packing cases were at a premium in town when the citizens' committee got through with the packing of the splendid lot of donations for the fire sufferers in the north last Friday.

—There appears to be a fair crop of winter apples within delivering distance of Acton after all. Spies and kings have been selling about town during the week at $4.00 to $5.00 per barrel.

—THE FREE PRESS tenders all teachers in the Acton district a hearty invitation to send in their monthly honor rolls for publication and thus encourage the pupils to do their best work every month of the year.

—Great quantities of turnips are now coming in. The shippers here have been paying a cent or two per bushel more than at other neighboring points. The demand is for small turnips. They bring the higher price.

—Alliston Council has been drilling new wells and increased the water supply of the town. The flat system of service is in use and much water is wasted. The meter system is being considered. Acton has found the meter system very satisfactory.

—The Milton Branch of the Daughters of the Empire has shipped to the fire sufferers of Northern Ontario, 19 boxes and six bales of goods valued at nearly $700. The Society has also sent $67 collected, as well as $50 voted to the fire sufferers' relief fund.

—THE FREE PRESS has received, through the thoughtful courtesy of Mr. Isaac Newton, a member of the Sarnia Board of Education, an invitation to attend the official opening of the splendid new Collegiate Institute and Technical School in that city.

—Mr. A. V. Nolan, who purchased the Uxbridge Journal a few months ago, has sold it to Mr. La Barre, of Toronto. Since he sold the Journal Mr. Nolan has purchased the Stouffville Tribune from Mr. Marr, another Toronto man, who only acquired it a short time ago from Mr. Fred C. Mall.
