IN MEMORIAM

WHITLEY—In fond and loving memory of our dear mother, beloved wife of Daniel Whitley, who departed this life to be with Jesus March 16, 1921.

What would I give to clasp her hand,
Her dear, sweet face to see;
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
That meant so much to me.
Not dead to those who loved her,
Not lost, but gone before,
She lives with us in memory still,
And will forever more.

The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1926

Brief Local Items

—The Free Press believes in advertising and profits from its own ads.

—March got in a spell of zero weather during the week, just to keep up its record.

—The Hydro power was off for repairs on the line for over three hours on Sunday afternoon.

—The Highway between Acton and Guelph has not been open for motor vehicles for three weeks.

—It was Mr. Griffin Sprowl who purchased the home of Mr. E. S. Rice, on Willow Street, last week.

—Have you examined the Free Press bread and cake knife? "It cuts like wild-fire." Come in and see it.

—We are not likely to complain when the newspaper publishes good news about us without consulting us.

—Good morning! Have you renewed your Free Press subscription? If not, please use the blank and envelope forwarded.

—The hardware stores are now getting orders like this: 100 spiles, 100 sap buckets, 10 heavy galvanized sap containers, etc., etc.

—Inspector Stewart reports that there are now 11 boys and 6 girls in the Gordon Home of the Children's Aid Society at Milton.

—Halton Spring Assizes will open on Monday, March 29th, at the Court House, Milton, before his Lordship, Chief Justice Meredith.

—No more of it, Mr. March, if you please; you've had you're flirting spell with Miss Zero, and it's now time for a change in your feelings.

—The man who will complain that a twenty-minute sermon is too long will sit half a day watching a couple of checker players making two moves.

—Rev. A. C. Stewart, M.A., went to Rockwood on Friday evening to conduct the pre-communion service for the Presbyterian congregation there.

—The ladies of the United Church will hold their annual rummage sale and sale of sewing, home baking, etc., on Wednesday afternoon and evening, March 24.

—Another six inches of snow fell on Saturday night and Sunday morning. There should be an abundance of moisture in the earth when the spring thaw is over.

—The editor of the Bruce Herald and Times, published at Walkerton, figures that in 25 years of newspaper work he has written the obituaries of at least 5,000 people.

—The season for muskrat trapping opened on Monday, and local trappers have already staked out their claims. The season closes on April 21st, and the license fee is $5.00.

—A reader who enjoys the "Old Man's" reminiscences, and the "Twenty Years Ago" column, says: "Who little care for bygone ways, will little do for future days."

—The trees were tapped, the sap flowed down the wood, the kettles boiled, we kept the fire aglow; and all agreed that nothing tastes so good as maple candy cooled on moonlit snow.

—A. E. Colgan & Son have purchased the Markdale Standard, which has been conducted the past year by Colgan & McIntyre. This father and son arrangement should be a congenial one.

—Does our Horticultural Society need a little more "pep" just now? The usual enterprising canvass for members at this period before spring does not seem to have materialized as yet.

—A course on gasoline engines will be held in Acton on the 18th, 19th and 20th of March. This course is under the auspices of the Department of Agriculture, and will be directed by Mr. R. R. Fleming.

—Owing to trouble with the boiler flues the service in the United Church on Sunday morning was withdrawn. The difficulty was overcome, however, and the Sunday School and evening service were held as usual.

—The walks were not cleared of snow very well on Sunday morning, in time for the comfort of churchgoers. The delinquent ones were either too religious, too weary or too lazy to perform this desirable work.

—Homes with gardens and beautiful lawns, well kept boulevards and parks are great assets of our town. To encourage these is the work of the Horticulture Society. Encourage it by becoming a member and a booster of it for 1926.

—When you are twenty-one or two, it will be time enough for you to smoke, if you decide to, then, but it will only hurt you when you're young, it's true. I am not joking. Youths spoil their health and strength by smoking.

—When somebody is trying to get you to invest your money in far off fields it never does any harm to remember that if it was not for a plentiful supply of suckers the sharks would have to change their diet.—Shelbourne Economist.

—Would you think it? Spring has come, winter's paid his passage home; Packed his ice-box,—gone—half way to the Artic Pole, they say. But I know the old ruffian still sulks about from hill to hill, where his freezing footprint cling—Though 'tis Spring.

—A feature of the Old Tyme Village Quartette concert last week which added materially to the excellence of the programme was the numbers given by the Sunday School Orchestra. This fine organization was at its best and the large audience enjoyed the music greatly.

Neighborhood News--Town and Country

ERIN

The vestry of Eaton Memorial Church, Toronto, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, on Friday, when Gwendylone Elizabeth, the youngest daughter of the late John T. and Mrs. Knox, of Owen Sound, became the bride of Mr. Albert McMillan, of Montreal, son of Mr. Charles J. and the late Mrs. McMillan, of Hillsburg. The Rev. Trevor Davies performed the ceremony. The bride, who was unattended, wore a pretty frock of beige French crepe romaine, with hat and shoes to match. Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple left for New York, Washington and Atlantic City, and on their return will reside in Montreal.

ERAMOSA

The funeral of the late James Wilson, whose death occurred on Sunday, took place on Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from his late residence, Guelph, to Johnson's Cemetery, Eramosa, a service being held at the house at two o'clock by Rev. George Atkinson. The service at the cemetery was conducted by Rev. G. R. Little, of Rockwood. The beautiful floral tributes were a testimony to the esteem and respect in which the deceased was held in the community. Rev. J. J. Wilson, B.A., a son, principal of the Chesley High School, was in attendance at the funeral. The pall bearers were Col. Mustre, E. Eveleigh, T. Weatherston and three sons, John, Matthew and James.

OAKVILLE

Miss Marjorie Acheson, who was forced to give up her duties in the Central School at Christmas time on account of illness, resumed her work on Monday morning.

The offices of the Water and Light Commission are undergoing needed interior decorating this week.

Building permits have been issued recently to A. S. Forster, Sydney Evans and Fred Daubney for minor construction.

Charles W. Meneilly, Lakeshore west, is convalescing from a serious illness. His daughter, Mrs. Frank Bowman, of Minneapolis, is visiting at the parental home.

An organized chicken raid on Monday night netted its operators over eighty fowl, collected from the roosts of Messrs. King, Fleming and Bater Brothers, of Trafalgar Township.

The Rotary Club was addressed by C. W. F. Blackham on Monday night. Mr. Blackham gave an interesting address on fire insurance, dealing with its classifications and a comprehensive study of the Canadian Underwriters' Association.

After an anthracite famine extending over the past six months, the first supply of "black diamonds" have made their appearance in Oakville this week. The supply is limited as yet and is eagerly being taken up by purchasers.

The stock of the Austin Drug Store is being moved into the newly-acquired property on the corner of Dunn and Colborne Streets. Mr. Austin has had the entire interior renovated and has made several notable improvements to the store.

The annual meeting for the election of officers of St. John's United Church Sunday School was held in the Board Room, Lusk Hall, Wednesday night when the following officers were elected: Superintendent, R. F. Sanderson; Assistant Superintendent, Mr. Harry Ryrie; Treasurer, Mrs. L. M. Wright-Orr; Librarian, Miss M. Buckle; Supt. Home Department, Mrs. W. Drowry; Supt. Cradle Roll, Miss Fairfield; Missionary Secretary, Thos. Nesbitt; Temperance Secretary, J. H. Turner; Musical Director, Mrs. Harry Ryrie. The present staff of teachers was reappointed.—Record.

ROCKWOOD

Rev. A. C. Stewart, of Acton, had charge of the preparatory services last Friday evening in the Presbyterian Church, and despite the frosty weather, quite a number were present. Rev. Mr. McLean, of Toronto, who was here a week ago, conducted the services on Sunday, and had charge of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, which was well attended.

Miss Jean Torrance, of Simcoe, was home for the week-end, and returned Sunday morning. Also Johnston Hewat, who remained over Sunday and returned Monday.

Now that winter is nearly over, our Rockwood people who have been obliged to remain in their temporary homes, will be able to come and go occasionally for a week-end or longer period of time.

The weatherman is very generous with the snow, as we have an abundance of it just now. The frosty nights of last week were a little bit unusual for the first week of the month.

The young people of the Presbyterian congregation had a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Swanston on Tuesday evening.

The rubber goods manufacturing plant of W. T. Smith Company, was destroyed by fire last Saturday morning. Fourteen employees narrowly escaped being trapped in the burning building. The fire originated in a store on the ground floor, and employees who were at work there barely had time to warn the girls at work on the second floor who raced downstairs, and almost through a wall of flames to reach the door. A few minutes after the fire started, the stone structure, which was the old Rockwood tannery building, was enveloped in flames fed by inflammable liquids and rubber used in the manufacture of blow-out patches and auto accessories produced by the firm, which the volunteer fire brigade were unable to check. Mr. Smith is making preparations to resume operations in the old Guarantee Battery building. It is very unfortunate for Mr. Smith that his business is seriously interrupted, as he had taken on additional help during the past two weeks, and lost one or two shipments in the fire that were ready to go out. He also lost valuable machinery and outfits that will need to be replaced. His loss is heavy as there is no insurance. It is to be hoped that our enterprising citizen will be given what assistance he requires in order to go ahead and supply his customers.

Mrs. McNeil who spent some time with her brother, Sam Ramshaw in the States, returned to her home here lately.

—The Chief of Police of Windsor in his annual report stated that traffic accidents have decreased 50 per cent. since the establishing of the stop by-law.

Nelson Council After Chicken Thieves

On account of poultry and other thieves' operations in Nelson, the Township Council passed the following resolution at its meeting last Monday: "That this council place itself on record as offering a reward of $50.00 for the apprehension and conviction of the thieves operating within the township, where the extent of the loss justifies such reward."

Won the Carter Medal for 1926

Mr. H. J. Moore, of Islington, lecturer and writer of the Ontario Horticultural Society, has been awarded the Carter medal for 1926 by the Canadian Horticultural Council. Mr. Moore is the fourth horticulturist to receive the medal, which is awarded for outstanding accomplishments for the advancement of horticulture in Canada. Mr. Moore's splendid illustrated lecture at a meeting of Acton Horticultural Society last spring is remembered with much interest.

Lowville and Kilbride to Have Hydro Power

Negotiations for the introduction of Hydro light and power in the Kilbride and Lowville district have been successful, and construction of the power line will be commenced as soon as possible. The congregation of the Lowville United Church has decided to install the Hydro lighting, and will also have the parsonage wired for the same purpose. Numbers of farmers of the community will have electric wiring installed.

The Value of a Good Life

"Epitaphs" was the subject of Rev. R. E. Zimmerman's discourse at the United Church on Sunday evening. The value of a good life was strongly set forth. The Bible records that when a good king or a great man died all the people mourned. The older people were exhorted to live helpful, godly lives and exercise proper discipline over their children; and the young were strongly urged to live lives of trust and usefulness, and when they passed away they would be mourned by all, and their good deeds be emulated and blessings follow to many. The praise section of the service was rendered more than usually helpful and attractive by the presence of the Sunday School orchestra, whose splendid music supplemented that of the Church Choir.

ASHGROVE

A play entitled, "Aunt Susan's Visit," will be given in the Sunday School Room of the Ashgrove United Church on Friday evening, March 12. This promises to be an entertainment of real merit.

LIMEHOUSE

Mr. Douglas Cowdy was home from Toronto for the week-end.

The congregation of the United Church is more and more pleased with the decoration and refinishing of their church as they meet from Sunday to Sunday. The place never looked so homelike or so much like a sacred edifice.

CHURCHILL

Owing to continued ill health, Mr. Clinton Swackhamer is retiring from farming. He will hold a clearing sale of his fine pure-bred cattle and other stock and chattels on Tuesday, March 16th. His brother, Mr. Arthur Swackhamer, of the town line, has leased the old homestead and he and his sons will work this place with their own.

Mr. Harold Stevens, of St. Marys, spent a week with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell received the sad news on Saturday of the death of their little grandson, three years old, who was with his mother, Mrs. Reed, of Saskatchewan, on a prolonged visit here last summer. The dear little fellow had been operated on for appendicitis and failed to rally.

Mr. Everett Denny, of the fourth line, has been in the hospital at Guelph the past week for an operation for some trouble in the nose.

25 DAYS' TOUR TO ALASKA

Once Alaska was identified with the gold seeker. To-day it is as closely linked with tourist traffic, for men have found that there is more sheer gold in one Alaskan sunset than ever came out of the rockbound mines. It is a land of strange contradictions and never-ending surprises. It is the desire of every tourist to visit this enchanted country, the land of the midnight sun.

The Kerr-Bryson tour, via the Canadian National Railways, offers you the desired opportunity under most advantageous auspices and at a minimum cost. The tour embraces Jasper National Park, the famous Triangle Tour, the Pacific Coast, Alaska, and the Great Lakes Trip on the return journey.
