The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1927

Brief Local News

—Yesterday was Ash Wednesday.

—We are now in the Lenten season.

—The spring birds are now flying northward.

—There are a number of cases of mumps in town.

—Saturday's blizzard filled up many of the roads badly.

—The Lenten season is the time for doing some real serious thinking.

—Monday was another icy day, and numbers of citizens suffered painful falls.

—Mumps and bumps are both quite prevalent this winter. Both are undesirable.

—February's mild weather last week reduced the snow almost to the vanishing point.

—Mr. George Barber's fine new residence on Mill Street is nearing completion.

—February behaved himself unusually well this year, so far as weather is concerned.

—Mr. Cordiner expects to complete his new two-story house on Wilbur Street in the spring.

—The week ending Tuesday was a real pancake week this year. Pancake parties were numerous.

—It is not paying for the necessaries of life that keeps most of us poor; it is paying for the luxuries.

—Baptismal services were held in both the United Church and the Baptist Church on Sunday.

—This is March—the month when the snow is likely to disappear, and spring birds and buds come.

—Some fine cattle were shipped to the city stock yards over the electric road from Acton on Saturday.

—Wonderland has been re-wired throughout during the week, an improved system being installed.

—Spring is coming for certain. The boys are playing marbles and the girls have out their skipping ropes.

—Mrs. Campbell Clark, of Chatsworth, sang a solo very sweetly at Knox Church on Sunday morning.

—The seed catalogues are coming freely now to citizens, a sure promise of the good old summer time again.

—It looks as if there will be a good assortment of the best motor cars on exhibition and for sale in Acton this year.

—The big highway snow plow went through on Tuesday to open the way more satisfactorily on the Acton crossroad.

—Special services in St. Alban's and St. Joseph's Churches marked the Shrove Tuesday and Ash Wednesday anniversaries.

—A little repair and paint on the farm implements now would obviate large cash outlays for new equipment later in the year.

—The railways have had little to contend with this winter, so far as extreme cold or excessive snow falls have been concerned.

—Stop and let the train go by, it hardly takes a minute; your car starts off again intact, and better still—you're in it. Struth!

—February was one short but falsly fine month, yet its passing out will not be regretted, seeing it brings spring that much nearer.

—Mr. Thos. Gillian, of Eramosa Township, has just been notified of his appointment as Justice of the Peace for Wellington County.

—Mr. Wm. W. King, of Oakville, was elected vice-president of the Ontario Road Builders' Association at the annual convention in Toronto last week.

—March came in very lamb-like, excepting in the matter of temperature, which registered only six above zero, the lowest point for about two weeks.

—It is reported that the Guelph hospitals are so crowded that a number of patients have found it necessary to go to Kitchener to secure accommodation.

—Mrs. (Rev.) R. S. E. Large, of Fergus, will address the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church this (Thursday) afternoon, at three o'clock.

—On Friday afternoon, at three o'clock, the annual day of prayer of the members of the Women's Missionary Societies will be held in the Baptist Church.

—Mr. W. J. L. Hampshire, Sequesing, addressed the Young People of Knox Church on Monday evening with a fine address on the value of good character to the country.

—The seed catalogues are coming freely now to citizens, a sure promise of the good old summer time again.

—It looks as if there will be a good assortment of the best motor cars on exhibition and for sale in Acton this year.

—The big highway snow plow went through on Tuesday to open the way more satisfactorily on the Acton crossroad.

—Special services in St. Alban's and St. Joseph's Churches marked the Shrove Tuesday and Ash Wednesday anniversaries.

—A little repair and paint on the farm implements now would obviate large cash outlays for new equipment later in the year.

—On Friday afternoon, at three o'clock, the annual day of prayer of the members of the Women's Missionary Societies will be held in the Baptist Church.

—Mr. W. J. L. Hampshire, Sequesing, addressed the Young People of Knox Church on Monday evening with a fine address on the value of good character to the country.

—Some boys are amusing themselves with catapults. These innocent looking projectiles are dangerous and are prohibited by law. The cop'll get you if you don't watch out.

—The gardens are lost in the tempest of snow, the roses—ah! where have they gone? The north wind is screaming, a dempe of woe; but listen! the spring's at the dawn.

—The Acton Women's Institute is outlining on a dental day in Acton Schools. All Public School children's teeth will be examined free by the local dentists, commencing March 7.

—Children of tender years have purchased tobacco in some of the stores lately, without the written order of their father. The Act respecting sale to minors prohibits this with penalties.

—The Toronto Telegram on Tuesday said: "Motorists, anticipating the usual spring increase in gasoline prices, received a pleasant surprise when prices dropped from 35 to 37 cents a gallon to-day."

—Mr. J. J. Hunter, of Kincardine, has been re-elected president of the Bruce Municipal Telephone System, the largest of its kind in the Dominion. Over 1,500 subscribers, with five central exchanges were reported.

—Residents in the Lowville district are much gratified that a stone road from the town line to Zimmerman's Church is now promised. Good subscriptions have been made toward the project, and the township council will now back it up and build the road.

—A lady correspondent wrote to an exchange the other day: "I caught my husband purchasing the new cooking equipment on Saturday afternoon. What do you think of a man like that?" Well, madam, I would say he exhibits strong signs of being a real optimist.

—It is reported that certain trappers are violating the Game and Fisheries Act by setting traps nearer than five rods from a muskrat's house, which even going so far as to destroy these houses. The law provides heavy penalties for being guilty of this unlawful method.

Neighborhood News

DUBLIN

Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman, of Thistletown, spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Grossman.

LIMEHOUSE

Mr. Gowdy is finding Municipal Council demands keep him pretty busy these days. Monday night he had a special meeting of Esquesing Council to attend. Tuesday he was at Milton all day attending the March session of the County Council.

Miss Beatrice Brown, of Kingsville, was the guest at Mr. W. Gowdy's over the week-end.

Deputy Reeve Gowdy went to Toronto on Saturday to attend the Mendelssohn Choir concert. He is in raptures over the event.

Mr. Douglas Gowdy was home from Montreal over the week-end.

The concert in the Presbyterian Church last Thursday evening was a decided success. There was a good programme and a large attendance.

CHURCHILL

The reputation of the ladies of Churchill for splendid social functions was the lure that gave such a crowd at the pancake social at the home of Mr. C. B. Swackhamer on Friday evening, in spite of the snow storm which prevailed all evening. The countryside from Acton, Arkell, Limehouse and Georgetown was represented and the home was literally packed. An excellent supper of pancakes, both of buckwheat and white flour, with farm butter and maple syrup, coffee and pie was provided. The ladies in the kitchen, over the red hot fires, had a busy time supplying the demands for the hundreds of pancakes that were consumed. No one was happier at the gathering than Mrs. (Rev.) Caldwell and Mrs. Jessie Denny, who were doing their utmost to supply the abnormal demand.

Following the supper a programme was given, which included vocal numbers by Miss Foster, Miss Lydia Caldwell, Mr. Harry Gibbons and his two daughters, Mrs. H. McCutcheon and Mrs. A. J. Murray, Mrs. (Rev.) H. Caldwell, Mr. Ballard, and, of course, a Churchill programme wouldn't be complete without a solo by Harry Gibbons. Recitations and readings were given by Misses Edna Swackhamer, Ethel Graft and Edna McCutcheon, Leslie Swackhamer gave a mouth organ solo, Archie Kerr, a violin solo, and the Freedman family an instrumental trio. Brief addresses were given by Mr. Doughty, of Limehouse, Messrs. F. H. Kennedy and C. A. Duff, of Acton, and Mr. Hamilton, of Georgetown. Pat and Mrs. Caldwell were very active in assisting the ladies in the affair and Rev. Mr. Caldwell, as chairman, kept the programme lively.

The ladies are well pleased with their efforts as the affair proved, financially as well as socially, successful.

Miss Olive Robinson is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Albert Smith.

ROCKWOOD

Last Friday evening a successful piano recital took place in the Town Hall, by the pupils of Miss Angie Jolliffe, in the presence of a large number of people, to hear the different selections, which were well delivered. During the evening Miss Jolliffe was presented with a handsome bouquet of roses, in recognition of her efforts for the pupils' musical welfare. Certificates received this year by the following, from Toronto Conservatory of Music, were presented: Alice Currie, Elementary Piano, first class honors, and Elementary Theory, first class honors; Eva Edwards, Elementary Theory, first class honors.

Programme, part 1—"The Soldiers Rose" (Marso), Dorothy Carter, Elnora Rudd; "Mermaid's Lullaby" (Krogman), Doris Watson; "Cantabile" (DeVaux), Clarence Ramsey; "Patriot March" (Krogman), Elva and Florence Johnston; "Alpine Hut" (Lange), Clara Harris; "March of the Little Sages" (Mathews), Donald Grey; "Humoresk" (Dvorak), Marion McCullough.

Part 2—"Polish Dance" (Prince), May Watson, Alice Currie; "On the Run" (Lange), Winifred Sampson, "Song Without Words" (McIntyre), Elva Johnston; "Chapel in the Mountains" (Wilson), Lloyd Thomas; "Pixies' Good Night" (Brown), Dorothy Carter; "Petite Valse" (Dunne), Florence Johnston; "Ours" (Cadman), Winifred Sampson, Elnora Rudd; "The Fairies' Gift" (Tellier), Harry Leslie; "Nachtzeit" (Wilm), Helen Pasmore.

Part 3—"Edelweiss" (Lange), Georgina Layerty; Sextet from "Lucia" (Bohm), Emma Bowley; "Will o' the Wisp" (Junman), Alice Currie; "Il Trovatore" (Mednotte), Margaret Thomas, Elizabeth Gray; "Gertrude's Dream" (Beethoven), Elnora Rudd. God Save the King.

Miss Margaret McNabb left the beginning of the week to begin her course as nurse at Guelph General Hospital. Previous to her departure, several of her friends on the 7th line, at a party, presented her with a worded address and club bag. Her many friends wish her success in her chosen calling.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Thos. Burrows, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Miller, last Tuesday, took place Friday morning to Oil Springs. Services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. The late Mrs. Burrows reached the great age of 91 years and 10 months. The sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Miller in the loss she has sustained.

Miss Pearl Richardson, who has been clerk in the store lately occupied by her brother, R. R. Richardson, of Vineland, and now by Angus Carter, severed her connection Saturday evening, and left the beginning of the week for a new position in Guelph. While her many friends regret to see her leave, she has their best wishes for success in her new field of work. Miss Maxine Webster, of Acton, is taking her place in the store here with Mr. Carter.

Johnston Hewat, of Simcoe, was home for the week-end. Leonard Gardiner, of the O. A. C., Guelph, spent Sunday at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Griffin, of Lacombe, Alberta, arrived last week to take up farming here, on the farm lately purchased by the latter's father, Mr. Thomas Talbot. Mrs. Griffin's many friends will be glad to see her in their midst once more.

Miss E. Bates returned from Owen Sound last week after a two months' visit with her parents, to assist in the store of Messrs. Little and Vance.

Mrs. [illegible] and her sister, Mrs. [illegible] Mackenzie, Georgetown, are in the West attending the golden wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McCutcheon, of Rosenville, Sask., on February 22. Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon spent years on the farm now occupied by Mr. G. Hutchinson, and their friends here will join in wishing them many happy years to spend together. BURLINGTON

The annual meeting of the Clara E. Moore Missionary Circle was held on Tuesday evening, March 1, at Miss Marjorie Speers' home.

There was a large attendance at the Masonic Lodge meeting on Wednesday evening, which took the form of a father and son night. The chairs were occupied by fathers and sons, members of the lodge.

On Sunday, at the forenoon service, the interesting and impressive ceremony of the ordination and induction to the office of the eldership of Messrs. George Hair, Edwin Peart, W. K. Smith and W. K. Rae was carried out, according to ancient Presbyterian usage.

Mr. Spencer Smith had a narrow escape from serious injury on Tuesday afternoon. He was cleaning the snow off the lodge in front of his store, when the ladder slipped, and he fell to the sidewalk below. He escaped with a bad shaking up, but is on the job as usual again.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Mary Easterbrook, Brant Street, on Monday evening, when the members of Mr. Lorimer's Sunday School class, with their husbands and other friends, celebrated her birthday. Mrs. Easterbrook is the oldest member on the roll of Trinity Sunday School.

According to James Hunter, deputy minister of public works, the Brant House is for sale, but the department has had no offers, when questioned regarding the rumor that this institution, which was used for a military hospital during the war, was to be converted by some company into a hotel.—Gazette.

OAKVILLE

The young people of St. John's Church entertained the young people of St. Jude's and Knox Churches on Monday evening.

The Rotarians heard the good points of hunting and saddle horses as explained by Hugh S. Wilson at their meeting on Monday evening.

There were around three hundred tickets sold for "band night" at the rink on Monday evening. This was evidence of how popular the band's music has been during the winter.

After some discussion, led by Reeve Blakelock, re new industries, at last Council meeting, it was decided, on suggestion of Councillor Anderson, to hold a conference with business men on Friday evening.

As a result of the mortgage sale on Saturday last, the Oak Tire factory has become the property of D. Murray, the well-known printer, of Toronto. The property and plants went to Mr. Murray at his reserve bid.

The Lions Club was favored with an address on Friday evening by G. E. ert Hall, of Trafalgar. Mr. Hall explained the most recent improvements in artificial and rearing chickens, of breeding and feeding to increase egg production.

St. John's choir is rehearsing for a great costume song feast, to be given in the Gregory Theatre on Thursday evening, March 16. The programme will be largely of an olde tyme nature, and with olde tyme costumes.

Geo. Hillmer, M.P.P., and Mrs. Hillmer, were "at home" to their friends at their residence, Church and Navy Streets, on Monday evening, February 28, from eight-thirty to eleven, it being the occasion of the thirty-third anniversary of their wedding.—Star.

THE SPORTSMAN'S MAGAZINE

With the spring and summer months looming ahead, the lovers of outdoor recreation are again looking to their tackle. The March number of Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News has many interesting articles for those outdoorsmen. A very complete article on outfitting a long canoe trip by C. P. Storey is an outstanding feature of the issue.

Many interesting experiences are told in the hunting stories, such as "A Holiday in the Rockies."

Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.
