This and that

—There's a nip in the air these mornings.

—Thanksgiving Day—just five weeks from Monday.

—The trees are now shedding their crop of leaves.

—Fall plowing is going on apace these fine autumn days.

—Nutting parties are now in order. The frost is opening the nut burrs.

—Autumnal foliage has been greatly admired for its beauty the past few days.

—Apple-picking is a task being performed in the home orchards these days.

—The auction sale season seems to be getting under way in good time this year.

—Send in your personal items and items of local news. Our phone number is 1-7.

—Mr. R. Wambrough's new bungalow on Park Avenue is almost ready for occupancy.

—The summer schedule of the electric line and the buses has been discontinued now.

—The baseball season closed on Tuesday with the world's championship classic at St. Louis.

—The difference between taxes and taxis is that with the latter you get a run for your money.

—Some very fine loads of turnips are being delivered to Acton stations for shipment these days.

—The coal man is having his innings now. From the rattle on the coal shutes business must be good.

—The gravel put on the roads in Acton this year has made the best roadway constructed of gravel in Acton in years.

—THE FREE PRESS line of Christmas cards will soon be ready for display. It will pay you to wait to see this line before placing your order.

—One of the cleanest cut remarks we have ever heard is: "There's nice thing about telling the truth is that you do not have to remember what you did say."

—Mr. George Edwards has removed his harness shop from Main Street to the store on Mill Street formerly occupied by Mr. J. McKean as a butcher shop.

—Tell us the news of local happenings and items about residents now or former citizens. We're always pleased to pass them on to FREE PRESS readers.

—The autumn isn't such a bad time of year after all. There is no grass to cut and no snow to shovel—if it wasn't for the falling leaves it would be almost perfect.

—Mr. Elton Cole, third line, Erin, has a very fine flock of Dorset horn sheep, which are much admired by visitors to his farm.

—The movement is surely and steadily taking form in the minds of citizens that Prospect Park should have more improvements added to this already fine municipal grounds.

—Three consecutive church anniversary services will be held in Acton and vicinity, with Knox Church this Sunday; Churchill on October 21, and the United Church on October 28.

—The erection of the new steel barn of Mr. S. Wiggins, on the second line, to replace the one destroyed by lightning during the summer, is getting rapidly along and the barn raising will take place in a few days.

—A ferocious ram attacked Mrs. John D. McDonald, of the fifth line, Erin, the other day, while she was engaged in milking, butting her fiercely in the back. Her spinal column is reported to be seriously injured.

—On Tuesday morning, as Mr. E. A. Mann was driving his team over the C. N. R. tracks on Mill Street one of the horses suddenly dropped dead on the tracks. Fortunately no trains were coming at the time and the animal was removed before any came through.

—It is rather a high compliment to "Hoover," one of the candidates for the Presidency of the United States in the election next month, that of the hundreds of motorists passing through Acton, from Florida to California, during the past month, bearing their choosen candidate's cards, almost every one is for "Hoover," and very rarely one for "Al. Smith." Is this a true indication of how the election will result?

BALLINAFAD

Mr. Amos Kentner, of Collingwood, visited friends in the district last week.

Miss Margaret Reid, of Georgetown, visited on Monday with Mrs. A. Roper.

Mr. Harry Shortill is busy re-shingling the Manse.

He has bought the house across the street, occupied by Mr. Jas. Locker and Mr. and Mrs. Gray, and will move the old foundation of his garage further back from the highway.

TERRA COTTA

The services in the Terra Cotta United Church have been changed to 3.00 p. m., instead of 7.30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Nevilles, of Georgetown, will continue to conduct the services here as usual.

A number from here took in Erin fair, and all report a good time.

Our local brickyards all report trade quite brisk at present.

Mr. J. Kidd has a large gang of men building cement culverts along the highway through here. The new arch bridge over the River Credit here is also nearing completion and when finished will be a fine structure. It requires 80 tons of steel to build the bridge.

The Halton Brick Co. are rushed with orders for brick, and expect to have to run their plant all winter, if possible, in order to cope with the ever increasing demand for brick. This will give steady employment to a number of men here during the winter months.

Auction sales seem to be among the general order of the day.

Mrs. James Davidson, of the mountain, has arrived home from Guelph General Hospital, much improved in health. Her many friends here hope soon to hear of her complete recovery.

There was quite an epidemic of mumps in our village recently but all are recovering nicely now.
