DIED

CONWAY—At her home, Church Street, Acton, on Friday, February 7, 1930, Margaret Hutchinson, beloved wife of Charles A. Conway.

BINGLAY—In Esquesing Township, Lot 3, Concession 10, Hallinafad, on Monday, February 10, 1930, Mary Jane Swindlehurst, beloved wife of Duncan Binglay, in her 61st year.

DARBY—At the home of his son, Charles Darby, lot 27, concession 4, Nassagaweya Township, on Sunday evening, February 9, 1930, Edward Darby, in his 81st year.

ROBERTSON—At her home, lot 14, concession 3, Esquesing Township, on Thursday, February 6, 1930, Eliza Menzies, widow of the late John Robertson, in her 95th year.

IN MEMORIAM

RAMSHAW—In loving memory of our mother, Martha Ramshaw, who departed this life February 12, 1927.

Sadly missed and ever remembered by DAUGHTERS.

HNYDER—In memory of a loving husband and father, James Hnyder, who passed away two years ago to-day, February 13, 1928.

Oh, could we hear his voice once more,
And see his loving smile,
The one thing would our hearts still cheer,
But we must wait awhile.

Some time, some day, our eyes shall see
The face we loved so well;
Some day we'll clasp his loving hand,
And never say farewell.

Ever remembered by
HIS LOVING WIFE and DAUGHTERS.

This and that

—Valentine Day to-morrow.

—Not much motoring on the side roads these days.

—Auction Sales are beginning to make a scattered appearance again.

—The work is progressing on the new Hassard Drug Store building.

—The days are lengthening, and the sun's rays are strengthening.

—York County Warden is to be presented with a chain of office.

—The curlers are into their local schedule between the hockey games.

—Police Magistrate Moore is holding Court in Milton this afternoon.

—Highway traffic cases are becoming more numerous in the Police Court again.

—Hearts and darts and all kinds of pretty remembrances will deluge the Post Office to-morrow.

—There are some people who never get their money's worth out of a snow shovel and its not for lack of opportunity.

—The merchants message to you each week in the advertisements are the sign posts on the highway of economical housekeeping.

—There has been a complete change in the timetable of the Electric Railway. Better consult it if you do not want to miss your car.

—The pretty valentines are much in evidence this week. The old-time lacy ones, with hearts and darts and things have came to the fore again.

—The curling competitions between Acton and Georgetown for the P. A. Smith trophy are looked forward to with a lot of pleasurable interest.

—A Guelph young man attended the dance in the Town Hall on Tuesday in an intoxicated condition. He will appear in Court here on Saturday afternoon, to answer to the charge.

—One of our local advertisers inserted in his regular space that until a certain date a reduction on all orders placed would be given. He voluntarily informed us that on the strength of this publicity he had closed seven orders and was enabled to carry one in an otherwise dull season.

Entered Into Rest

MRS. C. A. CONWAY

After three years of ill and failing health Mrs. C. A. Conway passed away at her home on Church Street on Friday evening. For some weeks she was in Guelph Hospital for treatment. Later she was removed to Toronto Hospital and for a time it was hoped she would recover. While in the Toronto Hospital she suffered a relapse from which she failed to gain strength. She came home again to recuperate and prepare for the treatment that was necessary, but gradually grew weaker. Mrs. Conway was, before her marriage eighteen years ago to her bereft husband, Margaret Hutchinson, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Hutchinson. For some time her father resided with Mr. and Mrs. Conway here, and it was at their home he passed away two years ago. Thirteen years ago Mr. and Mrs. Conway came to Acton from Uxbridge, when Mr. Conway and Mr. McLean purchased the business of Henderson & Co., and have since that time been valued and highly respected residents of this community. Mrs. Conway took an active and helpful interest in church and community work. Her administrative ability and willingness to undertake her share of community work accomplished much good in the church societies and endeavors of St. Alban's Anglican Church, and in the Duke of Devonshire Chapter of the I. O. D. E., of which she was a Past Regent. Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn her loss two brothers, Joseph Hutchinson, of St. Paul, Minn.; and William Hutchinson, of Boyle, Alta. To all of these the sympathy of this community goes out in the loss they have suffered. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, with service in St. Alban's Church, conducted by her pastor, Rev. P. A. Sawyer, L. Th., and was largely attended by the many friends they have made here. Interment was made in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

Neighborhood News

HALLINAFAD

Mrs. (Rev.) Aiken and Mrs. Blake Vanhatter, attended the Presbyterial meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church which was held in Milton last Friday.

Mr. Blake Vanhatter spent the week-end at his home here.

Mr. R. J. Shortill, of Brandon, Manitoba, visited last week at the homes of his sister, Miss Amelia Shortill, and brother, Mr. Fred Shortill.

The Ladies' Aid of the United Church have started practicing for a play which will be given later on.

LIMEHOUSE

Mrs. B. Globy, of Brampton, has been spending a few days with Limehouse friends.

Miss Marion Brown, of Toronto, attended the box social at Mr. R. L. Brown's.

Mr. and Mrs. McCullough, of Vulcan, Alberta, are spending part of a holiday with relations here. Although Mr. McCullough is a pioneer of the West, he is preparing to stay in Ontario, like many other sensible men.

Although the night was wet, the box social at the home of Mr. R. L. Brown on Wednesday was quite successful. A very pleasant social time was spent and all appreciated the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

The Institute meeting last week at Mrs. Mitchell's home was quite successful. They have arranged for a Valentine Tea at Mrs. Gowdy's home as the beginning of a campaign to provide street lights for the village.

A group of our sports have been following the hockey games closely and neither weather nor badness will keep them home. Next to Limehouse, they seem inclined to "root" for Acton.

NASSAGAWEYA

Another of Nassagaweya's older settlers was removed when Mr. Edward Darby, of Knatchbull, passed away on Sunday evening, February 9, in his 81st year, at the home of his son, Mr. Charles Darby. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, from the above home, with service at the house and conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Gandier, of Eden Mills. Interment was made at Khonsar Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. Y. Norrish, George Gordon, Herbert Fletcher, George Michie, T. J. Diamond and George Lamb. He leaves to mourn his loss two sons, Chas. A. Darby and Wilbert P. Darby, both of Knatchbull; also two brothers, Cornelius and Wesley Darby, and two sisters, Miss Mariah Darby and Miss Eliza Darby, of Guelph. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Campbell, of Kincardine, visited relatives and friends in Nassagaweya last week.

Mr. Neil Black, of Puslinch, visited relatives and friends in Nassagaweya on Sunday.

Mrs. Reginald Rudd, of Fergus, visited at the home of her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, over the week-end.

Mrs. James Erwin, of Campbellville, is still under the doctor's care. We hope she may soon be able to be around again.

ROCKWOOD

Mr. Howden, of Guelph, again conducted services at the Presbyterian Church, last Sunday. Owing to alterations being made in the auditorium, services were held in the basement hall, as well as Sunday School. No service in the evening.

At the morning service in the United Church, Mr. George Plummer, of New York, sang a solo.

Rev. W. H. McCracken is improving during the past few days. He was able to be up for the first time last Wednesday.

Mr. Fred Smith was on the sick list last week but is able to be out during the week-end.

Mr. A. C. Patterson, of Montreal, is up for a visit for a few days.

Mr. Robert Croft, of Toronto, was home for the week-end.

Mr. Fred Day, of Toronto University, was home for the week-end.

Mr. Johnston Hewat, of Simcoe, was home for the week-end.

Mr. Clarence Lynch, of Guelph, was home for the week-end. Miss Kathleen Lynch and friend, of St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, were down for Sunday at the former's home.

Since the removal of the picket fence in front of the Public and Continuation School last summer, the sidewalk has up to the present been in a passable condition. Also on the upper portion of Main Street, the roadway is in much better condition as the result of a snow fence in adjoining field on Mr. Jas. McPherson's farm.

Mr. Chester Bommers, of Toronto, and Miss Ethelyn Johnston, of Milton, were at the latter's home over Sunday.

Mrs. Jas. Hall's condition continues about the same.

EVERTON

Miss Minnie Hamilton, of Guelph, was a week-end visitor at her home in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Jestin received the sad news on Saturday morning that their son-in-law, Mr. Nixon Cole, of Georgetown had passed away very suddenly the previous night after suffering from a paralytic stroke and he lasted only a few hours. Mr. and Mrs. Jestin have been in Georgetown since Saturday and other friends from the district attended the funeral on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Miller, (Brampton) are spending a few days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith, Everton Corners. Miss Vera Smith also spent the week-end in Brampton.

Quite a number in the district are convalescing after the usual winter grippe.

Mrs. G. G. Robertson, Miss Pearl and Mr. Lloyd, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson and family, Ospringe.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. John Campbell, townline, had the misfortune to break and splinter her arm about two weeks ago.

On Friday evening the Everton Community Hall was well filled with the Everton Women's Institute entertaining their neighbor Institute from Ospringe. After a short business session which was conducted by Mr. John Hewat, Miss Ada Currie, President of the Ospringe Institute was called to take charge of the programme which was provided by Ospringe talent, consisting of music—by Mrs. Ewart Sunter and Mary Dickson; Ladies' Quartette; Mixed Quartette; solos, Miss Margaret Cooke; recitation, Beatrice Van Norman; vocal duett, Blanche McKinnon and Mary Young and a splendid debate entitled "Resolved that Competition Has Done More for this World than Co-operation." The affirmative was upheld by Mr. Irwin Jackson and Mr. T. D. McCutcheon, Everton. Those on the negative were Mr. Harvey Ulmer and Mr. Harold Smith, Ospringe. The judges were Margaret Cooke, Mrs. Alvin McCutcheon and Mr. John Fielding and the decision was given in favor of the negative. At the close of the programme lunch was served by the Everton ladies. There were about a hundred and fifty present.

Mr. and Mrs. James Glendenning entertained a number of their friends at a social evening on Monday night.

Mr. Dave Parker-Kitchener, is spending a few days at his parental home.

Mrs. David Jackson returned to Guelph on Thursday afternoon after spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. G. G. Robertson and family.

Miss Marion Miller, of Milton, is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Benham Jr.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church of Halton Presbyterial Held at Milton Last Week

The first annual meeting of the Halton Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada was held in St. Paul's United Church, Milton, on Friday, February 7th, when 18 out of the 25 Auxiliaries comprising the Presbyterial, were represented by delegates. Affiliated with the 25 Auxiliaries are 1 Associate Auxiliary, 7 Mission Circles; 2 G. G. I. T. Groups; 1 Young Women's Auxiliary; 14 Mission Bands and 3 Baby Bands. The addresses of welcome to the delegation, including about 60 official delegates and other members, was given by Mrs. Rev. S. of Milton, and acknowledged by Mrs. H. Caldwell, Limehouse, the opening devotional period being in charge of the Milton Auxiliary. Committees were appointed as follows:

Courtesy—Mrs. H. Inglehart, Palermo; Mrs. C. Readhead, Lowville, and Mrs. G. Aitken, Hallinafad.

Resolutions—Mrs. Robson, Waterdown; Mrs. Ford, Oakville and Mrs. H. Ashbury, Oakville.

Reports of various secretaries were presented. Mrs. Tunis, Burlington, Corresponding Secretary, who announced the allocations for the Auxiliaries for 1930. Mrs. H. Ashbury, Oakville, Secretary of Christian Stewardship and Finance.

Mrs. Earl Wilson, Georgetown, Supplies Secretary, who announced the allocation of supplies for each Auxiliary; Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Dales consenting to receive bales and repack them for shipping to destination.

The Strangers' Secretary's report was presented by Mrs. Tunis, substituting for Miss E. Hopkins, Burlington.

Associated Helpers' report given by Mrs. J. Atkinson, Appleby; Mrs. W. H. Tuck, Oakville, Missionary Monthly and Literature Secretary, stressed the need of "Knowing Facts" and suggested a slogan, "Every Member a Subscriber."

Mrs. G. Knighton, Waterdown, reported on Mission Bands and Baby Bands and Mrs. (Rev.) Aikins, reported for Y. W. Auxiliaries and Mission circles.

The Nominating Committee brought in a slate of officers for 1930 which was adopted by the gathering, and Mrs. H. G. Arnott, President, of Hamilton Conference Branch, installed the officers as follows: President, Miss K. Morgan, Bronte; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. T. C. Dales, Milton; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. G. Aitken, Hallinafad; 3rd Vice-President, Mrs. J. W. Van Norman, K. and W. Plains, (absent); Rec.-Secretary, Mrs. W. H. Cudmore, Bronte; Cor-Secretary, Mrs. G. W. Turris, Burlington; Treasurer, Miss V. Easton, Palermo; Christian Stewardship, Mrs. H. Ashbury, Oakville; Supply, Mrs. K. Wilson, Georgetown; Strangers, Miss K. Hopkins, Burlington; Associate Helpers, Mrs. J. Atkinson, Appleby; Missionary Literature, Mrs. W. H. Tuck, Oakville; Mission and Baby Bands, Mrs. C. J. Buck, Georgetown; Mission Circles and Y. W. Auxiliaries, Mrs. J. W. Akins, Milton; Temperance, Mrs. H. Caldwell, Limehouse; Press, Mrs. W. B. Clements, Milton.

During the afternoon session two fine addresses were given by Mrs. H. G. Arnott, President of Hamilton Branch and Miss K. Morgan, President of Halton Presbyterial, while Miss Evelyn Mitchell, Toronto, travelling Secretary, of the Woman's Missionary Society took charge of a Question Drawer and imparted valuable information and instruction. Very pleasing variety was provided by an exercise put on by the Milton Mission Band and a vocal solo, Beautiful Japan (by special request) by Mrs. A. E. Pickard, Bronte.

The local pastor, Rev. J. W. Akins conducted the opening devotional period and closed the evening session, which included an inspirational address by Miss Mitchell, who, from her very varied experience brought very vividly the great need of missionary work and illustrated her appeal with several touching incidents. The Milton choir led in the singing of the evening and Mrs. Kirkland, contralto, soloist, contributed the beautiful solo "He Was Despised."

The Courtesy Committee moved a hearty vote of thanks to the ladies of the church, who catered so acceptably for a dinner and supper, the officials of St. Paul's; the pastor and his wife; to the billet hostesses; to the caretaker; to the choir and Mrs. Pickard; the Mission Band; the executive and the speakers. This was unanimously carried. The resolutions Committee brought in the following resolutions:

1.—Resolved that as it has been found that to-day many professing Christians, church members, not only countenance the use of liquor, but are partaking of it in their houses, that we as members of the W. M. S. assembled in annual meeting, will not only abstain from it but will not countenance it in our homes and do all in our power to influence others to do the same.

2.—Whereas we view with alarm the increasing use of beverage alcohol, especially in the homes of our people, where organized society has its beginning and realizing that the youth of the present generation knows but little of its attendant evils be it resolved (a) that we urge the general use of a total abstinence pledge, more particularly in the Sunday Schools; (b) that each Auxiliary meeting devote some time to Temperance education (c) that we endorse the programme of education and organization as outlined by the Ontario Prohibition Union.

3.—That we, the Presbyterial W. M. S. of Halton County put ourself on record as being decidedly opposed to the opening of a liquor store within the bounds of our county. The last resolution be sent to the local member of the Provincial House, Mr. Thos. A. Blakelock, Oakville.

The finances for the six months of existence of the new Presbyterial showed the following: Total receipts of Presbyterial $4,162.33; expenses $12.80; total remitted to Conference Branch $4,089.33.

The request of border Auxiliaries to be transferred to another Presbyterial was received but could not legally be dealt with by the Assembly.
