Stan. Hall Chosen Candidate for Halton in Election

the government, the speaker stated that no government has respected the rights of the people as that of the Drew administration."

Briefly speaking on the three-cent gasoline tax absorbed by the government when the Federal government vacated that field of taxation, Mr. Hall said that all the money derived from the three cents was turned back to the municipalities for maintenance of their road systems. "It amounts to only a half cent a mile for the privilege of driving on our highways, and that is very little to ask the people for that privilege."

He also pointed out that four million American tourists visit Ontario, and they are using the highways. He thought it was a small amount to ask them to pay for the service rendered by owning one of the finest highway systems in the country.

Defending the government's action in refusing to enter into the Provincial-Federal agreements, he said it would add further burdens on the people of Ontario, in the form of income taxes and a poll tax on "everyone twelve years and over."

"One has heard on many occassions that our government is a one-man government, but that is not true. I can say that we as private members are consulted on each matter. Each member is taken into the confidence of the Prime Minister and the cabinet, unless an urgency arises in which time is of vital importance."

He criticized Mr. Oliver for charging that Drew had not carried out his 22 points of his program adding that it was impossible to carry them out during the war years, but since they have been progressing very favorably.

He charged that the Liberal leader was stealing the planks of the Communist and C.C.F. platform, which is a far cry from the old-fashioned liberalism. "He is offering two weeks with pay and a change in the Workmen's Compensation Act. Both these were introduced to the house by the communists and were turned down by the government," he said.

"I am proud to stand behind everything the government has done for the people, and there is not one of us who is afraid to go back into our riding and stand before the citizens or be ashamed of what we have accomplished," he declared.

Speaking on the liquor question, he said the Drew government has done more to aid temperance than any other government. He pointed out that following the introducing of the sale of liquor by the glass, consumption of spirits decreased by 55,000 gallons during the first eleven months, "thus taking the drinking from the bedrooms and placing it in a public place."

Praising the Government's new housing policy, he said that while Drew had never promised to build a house, he did say he would give all assistance possible, when materials were available in quantity.

Referring to the increased grants given to the various municipalities in the province, he pointed out that never before had any government been so generous. He said the lengthy list was too long to bore the audience with, but he hoped each of the six papers in the county would print the figures in order that the citizens could properly evaluate their importance. However, he did say that in Educational grants Halton received $43,560 in 1943, while in 1947-48 Halton received $291,702.

Stating that Dr. Dean said a week ago he was becoming annoyed with affairs. "I would suggest that he should be annoyed at his leader. He is a too publicly-minded man to accept his statements. When here he offered him a post in the cabinet, if elected, but I sat at a meeting in Newmarket, he named all his cabinet members, but forgot to mention that of Dr. Dean," the speaker charged.

"Promises of politicans don't amount to very much, but the promises of statesmen should be honored. The people will want a government at Queen's Park they can rely upon. I will do all in my power to represent the citizens of Halton. If the time comes that I cannot speak my own mind and have the courage of my convictions, I will not seek the support from the citizens of Halton," Mr. Hall concluded.

Among those called to the speaker's platform were Dr R. K. Anderson, who represented Halton so long at Ottawa, Allan S. Nicholson, George Currie, E. Fleck. Each of the speakers, Dr. Anderson, Mr. Nicholson and the president, W. J. Beatty, chairman, urged the gathering not to sit back and take the election too casually, but to form committees and get out to work so the party would have the strongest organization in the County.

REPORT SUCCESSFUL TAG DAY AT THE I.O.D.E. MEETING

Th Duke of Devonshire Chapter, I.O.D.E., met on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Mason, Birks Avenue with a good attendance, the regent, Mrs. Baird presiding. After routine business was concluded, Mrs. Baird reported a very successful tag day for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, held on May 1st, and it was decided to write Mr. McKenzie expressing appreciation of the help given by the Public School pupils.

Letters from I.O.D.E. headquarters asking that food and clothing parcels be continued to be sent to Britain were read and after some discussion it was decided to send money to headquarters for food parcels instead of packing the parcels here. The Chapter will continue to send babies' clothing each month as before. It was also decided to send a collection of used clothing from the members of the chapter and this will be collected on Wednesday, May 12. The need for clothing for men and boys is especially urgent. Mrs. Mowat and Miss M. Mainprize were received as new members to the Chapter.

The program was provided by Mrs. Baird and Mrs. Blow who gave very interesting reports of the annual meeting held in Hamilton last month.

Hostesses serving refreshments were Miss Cole, Mrs. Cook, Mrs Drysdale and Mrs Evans.
