Knox Girls Enjoy Campfire Picnic

The regular monthly meeting of the Daughters of Knox took the form of a campfire picnic at the home of Elizabeth Jany on Monday evening, June 11th. While the girls were gathering, a program of games, contests and races conducted by Mrs. K. Mackenzie was enjoyed with Ruth Smith, Elma Bruce and Diane Dawkins being the lucky winners of most events. A jovial sing-song, led by Diane Dawkins round the roaring camp fire followed, while the lunch committee prepared an old-time camp supper cooked in the open under the supervision of Mrs. Ritchie.

A short worship service was conducted by the president, Ruth Smith, using a regular camp fire service of scriptures, prayers and responses in which all the girls participated.

Betty Sinclair was appointed new card convenor. Plans were discussed for attending Glen Mohr Presbyterian Camp this summer.

The Mizpah Benediction brought a most interesting evening to a close and the girls disbanded for the summer months amidst happy wishes for a pleasant holiday season.
