Mrs. George Fryer Heads Acton W.I.

Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs George Fryer on Thursday afternoon of last week. The president, Mrs R L Davidson, presided.

The roll call was replied to with written suggestions for the new program. The motto was given by Mrs. George Fryer, "The art of true neighborliness."

The various conveners reported items of interest. Mrs Wilderspin gave a reading, "Holiday for Cows" reporting a big demonstration at Lindsay and another story of Queen Mother Elizabeth at the Sandringham W.I., pouring tea with her own silver tea pot.

Helpful hints were given by Mrs Fryer on removing stains. Mrs George Lantz gave an interesting paper on the history of portable light in Canada. Mrs F Anderson gave a humorous reading "Father's visit from the W.I." Mrs. H. L. Bennie contributed a reading.

Several items of business were dealt with. The federated appeal for the Korean widows' relief was accepted and a donation of $10 voted to this work. The announcement of the annual meeting of Halton T.B. Association was received and three members were chosen to attend. The neglected condition of the public drinking fountain was brought to the attention of the group. The secretary was asked to write a letter to the council in regard to having it looked into.

A motion to purchase material to replenish the baby's layette was made and a request was to be taken care of.

As this was the annual meeting Mrs Davidson vacated the chair and Mrs George Lantz was appointed to conduct the election of officers. The following were the officers elected:

Past president Mrs R L Davidson; president, Mrs George Fryer; first vice-president Mrs. E. W Smith; second vice-president, Mrs Garnet Rose, secretary-treasurer Mrs Fred Anderson.

District director, Mrs G Rose, branch directors, Mrs J Wilds, Mrs A. Wilderspin, Mrs. George Lazenby; pianist, Mrs. E. McKnight, auditors, Mrs W. Denny and Mrs. Earl Lambert.

Conveners: agriculture and Canadian industry, Mrs. A. Wilderspin, Mrs. R. L. Davidson; home economics and health, Mrs Earl Lambert, Mrs. H. L. Bennie; citizenship and education, Mrs. W. Hamilton, Mrs. E. W. Smith; historical research and current events, Mrs. George Lantz, Mrs. M. MacAuley, community activities and public welfare, Mrs. W Denny, Mrs. McKnight; layette, Mrs. James Wilds, booth, Mrs. Fred Anderson; health clinic, Mrs. F. Anderson, Mrs. G Fryer, Mrs. Davidson.

The district director was notified to attend the meeting in Milton on Monday, April 5.

At the close of the business Mrs H. L. Bennie conducted a quiz. Mrs George Lantz presented a spring bouquet to the retiring president and the secretary for their service rendered over a period of years.

A short period of social fellowship was enjoyed over a cup of tea and dainty refreshments.
