Spencer Wilson New President Of Fair Board

Spencer Wilson, Norval district farmer and a member of Esquesing township council, was elected president of the Esquesing Agricultural Society at their annual meeting in Stewarttown last week. He succeeds Harding Price, who has held the office for the past five years.

Other officers include: Oliver J. Hunter, first vice-president; Wilfrid Bird, second vice-president and P. W. Cleave, treasurer.

A committee was set up to interview applicants for the position of secretary due to the resignation of Garfield McGilvray, who has held the office for the past 13 years.

Directors elected are John Bird, Mac Alexander, Frank Wilson, Ward Brownridge, James Fisher, T. J. Brownridge, Ken Ellis, Graydon Chester, Garfield McGilvray, Nels Robinson, Vern Archer, Len Coxe, Murt Allison, William Cromar, Lloyd Fisher.

Associate directors include Val Stein, Jack Williamson, Jack Hart, R. L. Darou, John McNabb, Robert Cunningham, Gerald Graham, Clarence Spence, Percy Clark, George Burt, Charlie Hunter, Howson Ruddell, Donald Lindsay, Harold Henry, William Kinrade, Floyd Brigden, Trevor Williams.

The ladies' section of the fair board also elected their executive and Mrs. Donald Lindsay replaces Mrs. S. Wilson as president, Mrs. Alexander first vice-president and Mrs. Oliver Hunter, second vice-president. Charlotte McCullough remains as hall superintendent as does Jean Ruddell, secretary.

Past president Harding Price was elected an honorary director.

The treasurer's report showed that the Society had a very successful year and after paying a $3,058 prize list, had a $300 balance on the year's operations. However, a debit balance carried over from the previous year depleted this considerably.

Due to a change in the calendar this year, Georgetown Fair finds it necessary at the moment to seek a new fair date, and with five Saturdays in the month of September, have chosen the fourth Friday and Saturday on September 21 and 22.

Knox C.G.I.T. Girls Enjoying Shellwork

Monday evening the C.G.I.T. of Knox church met in the Sunday school room. Ella Jany and Betty Lemon conducted a game. Margaret Armstrong and Norma Sinclair led the group in a sing song. Mrs. Douglas Davidson conducted the worship service.

One group under Mrs. Roy Kirknes did shellwork and another had a discussion with Mrs. Davidson.

Firemen Shown Use Of Ladders During Course

Sunday afternoon, 25 members of a practical training course held by the Ontario Fire Marshall's office for members of the Halton Mutual Aid brigades, held a training demonstration at the Bruce Street public school in Milton.

William O'Sullivan, instructor from the F.M.O., instructed the men in the raising, carrying and climbing of ladders, using the school wall as their "burning building." Equipment from the Nelson township truck was used.

The course had been held every Thursday evening in Milton, with three members of each Halton County brigade attending. These men have received their instruction from Mr. O'Sullivan, and in turn relayed what they have learned to the other men in their brigade.
