LOCAL NEWS

—Back to Standard Time and dark evenings on Sunday.

—Do you notice all the changes in the Free Press this week?

—Quite a few from the district were at Georgetown Fair last Saturday.

—The library will be open Friday evenings instead of Saturday evenings, beginning this week.

—The driver escaped with only a scratch when his gravel truck overturned at Ballinafad Monday.

—Two Orton young ladies, Miss Jean Collier and Miss Wanda McGowan, have entered the Guelph General hospital school for nurses.

—The Brucellosis Act comes into effect on October 1. Its relation to Halton farmers is explained by J. E. Whitelock, the agricultural representative, in his Farm News column this week.

—Campbellville ball team defeated Cobourg 6 to 4 in an exciting 10-inning game last Saturday to move within one game of the Intermediate "A" championship. The next game is this Saturday afternoon in Campbellville.

—Applications for night school classes are arriving already. The deadline is next Wednesday. Applications are available in the paper this week, at Ledger's I.G.A., Watson's, Wiles, The Clansmann, Cooper's, Baxter's and the Free Press office.

—Despite the fact that petunias, glads and all the rest of the summer flowers were bent over under a load of snow last Thursday, they have mostly recovered from that first hint of winter and are still doing their best to recall summer. Gardens are attractive beneath the turning leaves.

—The last few years has seen night school committees organized in district towns, replacing the county night school held formerly in Milton. Now there are classes offered in Georgetown, Milton and Acton. Erin night school has already begun with some district people north of Acton attending there.

CARDS OF THANKS

Mrs. Albert Schupp would like to thank all her friends for their flowers, gifts and other kindnesses while she was in the hospital.

I would like to thank the many kind friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness to me while I was in the hospital and since coming home. They were all deeply appreciated.
Mrs. J. Irwin

In the midst of our sorrow, we wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our many relatives, friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown us in the loss of a beloved wife and mother. We especially wish to thank Rev. Gordon Adams for his consoling words, all the donors of the many beautiful floral offerings, the pallbearers, the Rumley Funeral Home for their kind and efficient management and Dr. W. G. C. Kenney.
Fred Krantz and family.

IN MEMORIAM

PARNELL — In fond and loving memory of the late Billie Parnell, who passed away on September 26, 1932 at Limehouse.
Sadly missed by Mother and sister Jean.

HEPBURN—In loving memory of a dear husband, James Hepburn, who passed away September 26, 1953.
We smile with the world
But never forget,
In our garden of memories,
He dives with us yet.
Always remembered by his loving wife and daughter June

HEPBURN—In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, James Hepburn, who passed away September 26, 1953.
What would we give to clasp his hand,
His happy face to see,
To hear his voice and see his smile,
That meant so much to us.
Ever remembered by daughter Marion and son-in-law Errett, grandchildren Margaret and Charles.
