Knox Ladies' Aid Hold Meeting

The members of Knox Church Ladies' Aid held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. R. McKewan. The devotional, "Mothers", was taken by Mrs. McKenzie. The study book was read by Mrs. Fuller.

The roll call was answered with a verse on "Mother". The minutes and several business items were discussed. Correspondence from shut-ins was read by Mrs. Sunter. A discussion took place on the anniversary to be held June 29 with Rev. A. Vair, a former minister, as guest speaker, also the holding of a garden party the following Monday.

A demonstration took place on articles for the bazaar. Mrs. Ward Bruce gave the motto, "If you ask me". This referred to the child having to bite into the hard things of life and struggle with life's unenjoyable things. Religion is of supreme importance to the child and that fourth "R" may be more important than the other three "R" put together.

Sandra and Carolyn McKwan gave two Scottish dances which were very much enjoyed. A scrambled annual contest was given by Mrs. B. Bruce and won by Mrs. Aitken and Mrs. Sunter.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. McKewan. Mrs. D. Winter and Mrs. Fuller assisted in the serving of refreshments.

Fete Charter Members At Women's Meeting

Mrs. F. Perryman was hostess for the May meeting of the Women's Association on Tuesday, May 20. The president, Mrs. Edmunds, presided. The meeting opened with the theme song, Creed, a hymn and the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison.

Mrs. F. Smith had charge of the scripture study. The minutes were read and approved. Business items were discussed. The roll call was answered by 16 members and one visitor.

Presentation

A pleasant surprise awaited four members who joined when the W.A. was organized in 1927. Mrs. F. Smith read an address to Mrs. Robert McEnery, Mrs. F. W. Shortell, Mrs. Donald McLean and Mrs. J. Snow. Each was presented with a beautiful large aluminum tray for their faithful work in the W.A.

The four charter members thanked the group for their gifts. The meeting closed with the benediction and a lovely lunch was served by Mrs. Madill, Mrs. Starrett and the hostess.
