LETTER TO THE EDITOR

St. John Brigade Unpaid Superintendent Stresses

September 29, 1958

The Editor,
The Acton Free Press,
Acton, Ontario
Dear Sir,

As a result of queries from interested citizens of Acton, I respectfully submit a report on the activities of the local division of the St. John Ambulance for publication.

During the months of June, July and August of this past summer season Division 332 had the privilege of serving the people of Acton and vicinity by being on duty in Prospect Park. In that period of time the membership on weekends and holidays, ran up a total of 550 man hours.

We are very pleased that by good fortune, no major casualties occurred while we were on duty, although we dressed some 85 different types of cuts and lacerations.

Several of the more serious of these we referred to medical attention and they required stitches.

Freak Case

On July 1 weekend, we attended a freak case when two ladies visiting the park from out of town were hit by the same fly ball from the home plate on the ball diamond. Striking the first it caromed off one's head and struck the second.

Medical attention was not available, for while all were visited the doctors were out on cases. St. John personnel attended the cases in the park and extracted a promise from the ladies to visit their family physician at the earliest possible moment.

On a Wednesday afternoon, the Provincial Police on patrol in the park, found a lad with a head injury. A similar situation as the one just recounted necessitated removing the lad to the home of Miss Roszell who applied emergency dressing.

Members of the Division have put in their time at the park beyond the stipulated request for weekends and holidays. These people took their equipment with them when going for a swim and have found cases to treat that would otherwise have gone unattended.

Not Displeased

The 1958 fall fair furnished St. John with no casualties reported. May I assure the people of Acton that such a condition does not displease the Division one bit. We are on duty IN CASE anything happens, not IN HOPE something will.

We were very pleased to receive a request from the Acton High School faculty to serve the student body by attending the inter-scholastic field day. This was a new request and we look forward to a repeat from this source when ever they require our latter.

Another first for us the year was a request from the Georgetown Motorcycle Club to attend their Hill Climb.

These lads and lassies had not heard 'playing ping pong with our Adam's apple more than we care to mention but no accident. Again we were glad to be of service.

On spin from a child by name I would at this time wish to an wer for all No, ladies and gentlemen, the members of the St. John Ambulance Brigade receive no monetary remuneration for their time!

Our reward is in doing our bit to the best of our ability and knowing that through our training we can assist others in time of distress.

Through the sponsorship of the Acton Y.M.C.A. around the middle of October another class in First Aid instruction will be given by an instructor from the St. John Ambulance Association. I would suggest you watch for further announcements in the Free Press.

Respectfully yours,
ROBERT S. HART,
Divisional Superintendent
St. John Ambulance Brigade
Division 332

LIMEHOUSE

Hold Rally Day Present Awards

A good attendance was observed when the Sunday School children joined the regular congregation for Rally Day at Limehouse Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Mrs. Roughley and Mrs. G. Ivy had a choir of seven children. Mary Lou Brown, Gail and Linda Gilmore sang as a trio and Peter Glynn played Faith of Our Fathers on his flute accompanied by Mrs. Roughley at the organ. During the offering Eugene Turner read the scripture lesson.

Rev. A. Calder presented awards for S.S. attendance and beginners pins to wee ones.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. S. Kirkpatrick whose mother, Mrs. James Standish passed away last Thursday and burial was in Stewartown cemetery on Saturday.

Canadian Bandstand Teen-Agers' TV Debut

Over 60 Acton teenagers were featured on Canadian Bandstand over Kitchener television Saturday afternoon.

Parents and friends watched at home when familiar young people rocked in rolled to the music on the hit parade. Some were interviewed briefly.

Under the direction of Jack Carpenter, an Acton man who is associated with the TV station, the group travelled by T.C.'s bus for their television debuts on the show.

Might be interesting to know how many grandmothers are being turned at present especially during the world series ball games.

The local lacrosse players are putting on a good exhibition playing with the Streetsville team.

Rev. Gordon Adams of the United church was the anniversary speaker at Dublin street, while the Dublin street pulpit Rev. Edward Lobb preached here Sunday morning.
