People don't get weak eyes from looking at the bright side of life.

Man who is willing to make the best of it, seldom gets the worst of it.

SMOKE GALORE poured over the town on the last day of the year when old plastic from the Micro Plant was being burned at the town dump. Firemen responded to an alarm turned in but on arrival at the scene of the fire decided to let the fire burn itself out as no harm was being caused. Clouds of the dense smoke billowing up from the fire are pictured above.

OBITUARY

Ill Ten Years Dies in City

Following an illness of 10 years, Lorena Viola McLaughlin, beloved wife of the late Richard Gulley, passed away on December 6 at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Toronto. She was in her 66th year.

The deceased was the wife of the late Richard Gulley of Toronto who predeceased her in April, 1956.

She was the last surviving member of the family of the late Hugh McLaughlin and Jane Crewson of Erin and Acton district.

She attended school in this district and went through for a nurse. After receiving her nurse's degree she nursed in Toronto and Saginaw, Michigan, U.S.A.

In 1908 she met and married the late Richard Gulley of Grand Valley, formerly of the Acton - Erin district. In Toronto they operated two rooming houses while Mr. Gulley carried on the carpentry trade. To this union was born one daughter.

Church Worker

She was a faithful member and fellow worker of the Church of Christ while residing in Toronto.

In 1944 they retired and made their home with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Dobbs at Cannington. In 1947 they returned to Pine Grove to reside.

Left to mourn her passing are one daughter Aida (Mrs. Eli Dobbs) of Cannington and two grandsons, Ross Alexander and Richard Lorne Dobbs, both of Cannington.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, December 9 at the Rumley-Shoemaker funeral home, Acton, with Rev. Gordon Adams of Acton United church officiating.

Nephews Pallbearers

Pallbearers were six nephews, Alex Near of Rockwood; Ellis, Charles, Thomas and Mac McLaughlin of Acton and Dick Reynold of Toronto. Interment was at Fairview cemetery, Acton.

Many beautiful floral tributes were a token of the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community where she was born.

Out-of-town relatives attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Allen; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reynold of Toronto; Simpson sisters from Fergus; Mrs. Eli Dobbs and Mr. Ross Dobbs of Cannington, and Mrs. Alex Near of Rockwood.

W.A. '59 Plans Include Stove Purchase, Quilting

The Woman's Association of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. F. Cleave on Tuesday of last week. The president, Mrs. J. Moore, presided. The meeting opened with the Ode, prayer and Lord's Prayer in unison.

The devotional was taken by Mrs. Wm. Sterritt and Miss E. Hawthorne. The roll call was answered by Resolutions. The meetings for the year will be held in the church parlor.

The quilting committee have decided to do quilts for persons furnishing their own material all ready for the work. Mrs. L. Agar was the lucky cup winner.

Appreciative Letters

Several thank you and appreciative letters were received from receivers of the Christmas cheer baskets. 26 were sent out to sick and shut-ins and to Halton Manor, Milton, Hamilton and Kitchener.

Annual reports were presented at the meeting which were very satisfactory. 95 pieces of mail were sent out during the year and 430 calls were made. A new electric stove is to be purchased for the church kitchen.

The groups have disbanded for this year and will all work together.

A very lovely New Year lunch was served by the executive and a social time was spent together. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Cleave and the lunch assistants.

Officers for 1959

New officers for the year are: Past president, Mrs. A. Shoemaker; president, Mrs. James Moore; first vice-president, Mrs. J. Wildegspin; second vice-president, Mrs. L. Masales; recording secretary, secretary, corresponding secretary, Miss E. Hawthorne; treasurer, Mrs. D. Lindsay;

Pianist, Mrs. C. Heller; visiting, book collectors; church housekeepers, Mrs. I. Harris, Mrs. S. Holmes; parsonage, Mrs. B. Veldhuis, Mrs. G. Ingles, Mrs. F. Cleave;

Quarterly board, Mrs. A. Shoemaker; representative to Christian Education, Mrs. A. Shoemaker; banquet manager, to be appointed.

Mrs. Gordon Lott Hostess to Circle

The Baptist Women's Mission Circle held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. Gordon Lott on Westcott Street.

The president, Mrs. J. Chapman, opened the meeting with members repeating Psalm 96 in unison.

Mrs. D. Cohen and Mrs. W. Gordon brought a most interesting and inspiring devotional. Mrs. Cohen led in prayer following a hymn "All the way my Saviour leads me", and Scripture reading, Jeremiah Chapter 1, verses 4-10.

Mrs. Gordon read an article entitled "Go ye into all the world".

A season of prayer followed with Mrs. G. Holmes stressing Foreign Mission, Mrs. C. Bulmer, Home Missions and Mrs. Harrop our own church work.

Mrs. Gordon read the history on the beginnings of Baptist work in Newfoundland. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved followed by roll call. Mrs. Ralston closed the meeting with prayer.

A social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. Dye and Mrs. Helwig as the hostesses. Mrs. W. Hutcheon moved a vote of thanks to the hostess, Mrs. Lott, for the giving of her home for the meeting.

Out-of-Town Guests Attend First Dance

The first bi-monthly dance of the New Year was held in the Parish Hall on Saturday, January 10, with out-of-town visitors from Guelph, Milton and Clarkson in attendance. Although the dancers were fewer than usual, a most entertaining program arranged by Bob Currie from Guelph, was enjoyed, one of the highlights being "The Highland Fling" by Miss Marion Duncan, Guelph and Miss Andrena Cumella from Milton.

From now until the end of the season, all the club dances will be held on Saturday evenings, with the exception of the Burns Supper and dance, which is being held on Friday, January 23, at the Royal Hotel, Guelph. The ticket sales for this celebration have been exceedingly bright, and up to the present, over 100 of the 155 on sale have been taken.

Bride Wears White, Attendants Red Velvet for December Vows

The marriage of Marilyn Faye Delaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Delaney, Gananoque, and Second Lieutenant Donald Barry Dawkins, R.C.C.S., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dawkins, Acton, took place in December in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Gananoque. Rev. M. C. Young officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a slipper satin gown featuring long lily-pointed sleeves and a front panel of Guipure lace, seed pearls and sequins. The back of the bouffant skirt was caught up in a huge loyer's knot bow.

A dainty crown tiara of matching seed pearls and sequins held her fingertip veil of tulle and lace applique. She carried a cascade of red roses and white baby mums.

Four Attendants

The four attendants were Miss Janet Jackson of Gananoque, maid of honor, Miss Shirley McFarlane of Gananoque and Miss Beryl Strong, R.N., of Kingston as bridesmaids and Gwen Ann Delaney, sister of the bride, as flower girl.

The maid of honor, and bridesmaids wore red velvet gowns with a trapeze panel of matching chiffon with white feather headdresses and carried white fur muffs trimmed with holly. The flower girl wore a short bouffant red velvet dress with matching bow bandeau and carried a nosegay of red and white baby mums.

The groom was attended by William E. Grant, R.C.C.S., Kingston. The ushers were Gary Dawkins, brother of the groom, and Bill Delaney, brother of the bride.

Guard of Honor

A guard of honor made up of fellow officers of the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals formed an archway of swords as the bride and groom left the church.

Receiving at the Blinkbonnie Hotel, the bride's mother wore a sheath dress of Royal blue lace with matching feather hat. Her corsage was pink baby orchids.

The groom's mother assisted wearing a beige satin faille gown and matching hat with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses and bronze baby mums.

For a honeymoon trip to Lake Placid, N.Y., the bride's costume consisted of a gold boucle suit, gold velvet hat, brown accessories and a muskrat jacket with orchid corsage.
