BALLINAFAD

Young Peoples' Groups at Dinner Presentation Held for Newlyweds

A very pleasant evening was spent in Ballinafad church basement when the young people of Melville, Churchill and Ballinafad held a banquet with Mr. McBride, leader. Robert Kerr Jr. was toastmaster. Diana Swindlehurst gave the toast to the church, responded to by Mr. McBride. Mr. Eson Tao of Emmanuel College, Toronto, led a sing song which all enjoyed.

Mary Ann McEachren introduced the speaker, Mr. Moore, also of Emmanuel College, who gave a wonderful address. Robert Kerr thanked the Ballinafad W.A. for the lovely turkey supper which they served. Mr. McBride closed with prayer.

Respected Resident

One of Ballinafad's oldest and most highly respected residents, Mrs. S. H. Lindsay passed peacefully away in her sleep on Friday morning at her home. Funeral service was held on Monday afternoon from the Rumley-Shoemaker funeral home, Acton.

Presentation Held

A presentation was held in the basement of the church on Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Hancock who are now living in Ballinafad. Mr. F. W. Shortill was chairman for a short program.

Mrs. Richard Shortill Jr. read an address and the bride and groom were presented with a coffee table and a pair of lamps. They thanked all for the gifts. Lunch was then served.

Fall Thankoffering

The fall thankoffering of all the missionary societies was held on Sunday night in the church. Mrs. Ernie McEnery was chairlady. Mrs. F. W. Shortill and Miss Beatrice Hilts were in charge of the devotions. Mr. Griffiths and Ann Shortill sang solos.

Mrs. McBride introduced Mr. Griffiths of Ebenezer as guest speaker. He spoke of his stay of five years in a prison camp in Germany, which was very interesting but touching to hear. Little we know what those men had to come through. Mrs. F. J. Shortill thanked the speaker for a very interesting address. The meeting closed with a hymn and prayer.

Sudden Bereavement

The community was shocked and saddened to learn Mr. John McEnery had passed away quite suddenly Monday night at his home, Silvercreek. The sympathy of all goes out to all the family in this sudden bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Britton Plunkett of Woodbridge visited with Mr. and Mrs. Cam McEnery on Sunday.
