400 Children Greet Santa At Beardmore Party Friday

Nearly 400 children greeted Santa Claus Friday afternoon when Beardmore and Co. Ltd. staged their Christmas party for employees' children. Seated on a blue and silver throne, the jolly old fellow sat patiently handing out gifts and offering cheery greetings. Held in the Robert Little public school auditorium, the annual party attracted the largest crowd of children and parents in a number of years; the hall was filled to capacity with many left standing in the aisles.

An entertaining program was supplied by Bebee the clown, a trained horse and a talented young banjo player. Bebee the clown kept parents and children laughing with his amusing and interesting antics when he twisted balloons into various shapes and sizes concluding with a puppet show.

Rocky the trained horse provided mirth as he confused his pretty and talented mistress with wrong answers to leading questions. Popular songs were sung by Penny accompanied on her banjo and bass fiddle. As a grand finale, several boys from the audience assisted the entertainers by donning grass skirts and rollicking to the Hawaiian music provided by the banjo strumming star.

Most important feature of the afternoon's program (to the children, at least) was the presentation of gifts by Santa Claus. He was assisted by plant officials and office personnel and gave out splendid gifts ranging from leather ring binders, travel clocks, vanity sets, teddy bears, building sets and an assortment of toys to bulging Christmas stockings filled with useful articles.

Fred Salt acted as master of ceremonies and others assisting Santa Claus distribute gifts included Mrs. A. Walker, Mrs. R. Waldie, Mr. L. Dietrich, Charles Heard, Bernard Veldhuis, Edward Footit, Murray Smith, Jack Creighton, Charles Shultis and Harry Arbic.

Damage $200 to Car In Hit-Run Mishap

An Acton resident's car was involved in a hit-and-run accident on Highway 7 just west of Georgetown Monday evening and police are still looking for a truck which was involved.

According to North Halton O.P.P., Kjell Martinsen of 173 Bower Ave. was sideswiped by a three ton van truck, blue in color, but the truck kept on going. Damage to Mr. Martinsen's car was $200.

Brownie News

On Monday all the Brownies of Acton combined forces for one huge Christmas party. After singing O Canada and the Brownie song, the roll was called. Quiet games were played followed by Christmas carols.

Pop, cookies and sandwiches were next on the program. The two well laden tables were soon surrounded by the hungry youngsters and a beautiful cake made and sent from Les Hotchen was greatly appreciated.

Surprise of the day—Santa arrived to hand out the exchange gifts from under the tree! The Brownies gave him their own special thank you in the Grand Howl.

On their way out each child was given a packet of candies and the leaders sat down to a quiet cup of tea.

All leaders take this opportunity of wishing the Brownies and their families a Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year.

Thrown Out Window Unhurt in Accident

North Halton O.P.P. this week reported one of those rare accident cases that happen only once in a lifetime. A two-year-old boy, standing on the front seat of a car his mother was driving, flew through the windshield and escaped without a bruise or a scratch when the car rolled completely over and onto its wheels again.

Const. Al Miles of the O.P.P. said Mrs. Georgina Symons of Lot 21 Conc. 5 Nassagaweya was driving south along the Fifth Line near 20 sideroad last Thursday when her son William fell against her shoulder. She reportedly took her hand from the wheel to push the boy away, when the car veered into the ditch, rolling right over onto its wheels again. The boy was thrown clear through the windshield, unscathed.

Meanwhile another son Harry aged nine months, was lying on the back seat. He simply rolled onto the floor, also unhurt. Damage to the car was $800—mostly roof damage.
