In Memoriam

BRACKEN — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, William (Will) Richard Bracken, who passed away January 19, 1956.

Dear Dad, we really miss your happy, laughing face, but we know you are in God's care and His loving grace.

Dear Grandad, when you left our happy home and went far away, you left us with a space in our hearts that we still have this day.

With all our love, Bernice, Edith and families. a-30-9015

BRIMS — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, John Brims, who passed away January 19, 1953.

Looking back with memories,
Upon the path you trod,
We bless the hours we had with you
And leave the rest with God.

Always remembered by daughters Isobel and Jessie and families. a-30-9018

Spilling Five Pins

AT THE ACTON
Bowling Lanes
by Ken Hulford

High School

Jan. 7: Gutter Flies handed Mashing Monsters a bit of a setback when they took said Monsters for a two and totals romp. The Flies almost made it three but dropped the middle canto by 38 pins. Keith Andrews popped a couple of solos for Gutter Flies, 228 - 201, while Murray Smith hit a 202 for the Monsters. Blue Bombers, after dropping the first to Rinky Dinks, got on the target and bombed out a two and totals win. Jill Hurst soloed a 215 for Bombers, while Rinkies failed for the "mentionables". Choo-Choo Puffs made with a first game win from Red Devils, then ran out of puff or something and the Devils had a two and totals win. Don Price 203-247 and Barbara Gibbins 204 paced the Devils' win. Choo-Choo Puffs had June Waltho with a 201.

League standing: Mashing Monsters 58, Gutter Flies 54, Red Devils 51, Blue Bombers 50, Rinky Dinks 47, Choo-Choo Puffs 34.

Beardmore

Jan. 7: Paced by Arlie White 687, John Dennis 202, Jim Bullough 230 and Sheldon Bennett 201, Fivers rang up a two and totals win from Hot Shots. Fivers were lucky in the middle spasm. They took it by 12 pins. In the triple and single zones for Hot Shots were Bill Buchanan 657, "Big Al" Pavlai 646 and Howie Jank 200 and Hec Lambert 209. Red Devils got away with a 17 pin win from Lucky Seven in the first, won the second convincingly, then fell off the pace, but still had the best of the 5-2 go. Roger Murray tripled 630 and Phil LeSueur singled 241 for Red Devils. The "Seven" had to be content with solos — Harry Rogers 219, Ed Parent 214 and Pat Waldie 201. Don't know whether the appearance of "Fearless Fred" Kentner gave the Toppers confidence or shocked the Dare Devils, but anyhow, the last place Toppers made it a two and totas win from the Dare Devils. The first chukker was close. Toppers stole it by eight pins. Topping the Toppers' trundling were "Tinnie" Masales 728 (334) (hey, hey), Fred Kentner 617 and Vic Roach 209. Dare Devils made with the solos — Kay James 238, Bea Anderson 256 and Helen Le Sueur 216.

League standing: Fivers 62, Hot Shots 57, Lucky Seven 56, Dare Devils 49, Red Devils 39, Toppers 31.

Legion Ladies

Jan. 7: Ugly Ducklings with a 630 from Dot Earle and a 217 from Louise Toth on their score sheet, made it a two and totals win from the Squibs. Squibs came to life in the last game for a win paced by Joyce Blundell's 243. Squirts came off best in two games with the Swans, but the Swans with Phyl Angel 627, Pat Camp 238-202 and Susie Dedels 201, piled up enough pins to take the odd point for totals. Best of the Squirts' rolling was Mamie Allen's 535 triple.

League standing: Ugly Ducklings 79, Swans 52, Squibs 51, Squirts 28.

Blue Springs

Jan. 8: Asters took over top spot on the totem pole with a three game win from Carnations. The Carnations tried hard to make with a win in the finale, but missed the brass ring by 20 pins. Asters' top score came in singles with Shirley Hunter 225-228, Marj Hufnagel 200 and Barb Wilson 201. Marj Gough's 233 was Carnations' mentionable. Mums found themselves sharing third place with Roses, after they took said Roses for a two and totals go. Roses had Jenny Clendenning with 235 and Mums countered with Agnes McGinnis 204 and Pudge Jordan 212. Violets did themselves good, pointwise, with a two and totals win from Glads. First game was a tough loss for Glads. They lost it by eight pins and the win, instead of the loss, would have kept them in first place. Violets made with the win minus singles or triples. Sylvia Mages singled a 204 for Glads.

League standing: Asters 56, Glads 54, Roses 47, Mums 47, Carnations 46, Violets 44.

Tri-State

Jan. 8: Grannies hung onto first place when, after losing the first game to Jetsons, came back to win the next two and totals. Hillbillies won two games from High Flyers, but dropped the odd point for totals by 21 pins. First and third games were close. Hillbillies won the first by 14 pins and the third by three pins. Top triples were rolled by Mae Dennis 556 (222), Edythe Bryan 542 (230), Beth Phillips 504 (227), Audrey Hanbly 576 (219).

League standing: Grannies 43, Hillbillies 40, Jetsons 37, High Flyers 34.

Micro Plastic

Jan. 8: No squawks were forthcoming from the Squawkers after their go with Lamplighters. They made with a two and totals win. Keeps 'em up for a share of top spot. Joan Knight's triple of 642, along with the solos of Jerry Warren 223 and Jon Welch 230 paced the win. Earl Waller 235 and Thelma Jordan 210 singled for Lamplighters. Moon Glows dropped the first go to Blowers, then barrelled home with the next two and totals for a five point win. The win moved Moon Glows up to a first place tie. A 721 (309) triple from Len McGilloway, along with solos from Judy Halladay 205, Fred Allen 228-213 and Gib Jordan 237 headed up the win. Blowers were minus the big solos and triples. Terribles made Sputniks feel terrible. They took Sputniks for the works. Sparking Terribles' triple win were Rosemary Cook 605, Bob Adams 238, Doris McGilloway 201 and Dave Woodward 218. Despite the loss, Sputniks were in the triple and single zones — Nino Gitto 624, Gino De Bartolo 615 and Joe Poirier 216.

League standing: Squawkers 57, Moon Glows 57, Terribles 49, Sputniks 45, Blowers 45, Lamplighters 41.

Industrial-Commercial

Jan. 9: With a three game win from Station Hotel, Ledger's I.G.A. got back into first place with Had DeForest 758 (309) and Frank Irvine 619 pacing the win. The third game saw Station Hotel make a determined bid for a win but missed it by 19 pins. Cy Swim's 440 double stood out for Station Hotel. Despite a hot 878 (311) from Jeff Fryer, plus a 672 from "Tinnie" Masales, Lindsay Orfuns' upward surge was halted when the Gitto Electric threw on full voltage and made with a two and totals win. Throwing the switch for the "Electricians" were Gina DeBartolo 687, Joe Gitto 636, Nino Gitto 634 and Andy Pidone (402) double. Second and third games were close — Ofuns grabbed the second by 28 pins and Gittos the third by 23. Every time Ridley Cartage make the top spot, some team knocks 'em off the following week. This trip, it was Al's Snack Bar playing the role of "leader toppling". Nary a triple showed up in this affair — somewhat unusual, I'd say.

League standing: Ledger's I.G.A. 66, Ridlye Cartage 64, Lindsay Orfuns 54, Al's Snack Bar 54, Gitto Electric 53, Station Hotel 45.

Acton Ladies

Jan. 9: Paulettes were the big winners for the night when they fashioned a three game win from Masales Dairy. Diane Spielvogel's 226 solo for Paulettes was tops in this go. Acton Creamery won the first and second games from McCallum's Service, then McCallum's got going with a vengeance and grabbed the last chukker for a win plus totals. Joan McGristall 644 and Norma Robinson 217 were tops for the "Creamery Kids". McCallum's served up the solos with Nan Hurst 249, Marion Storey 232, Arlene Bruce 276 and Bea Anderson 226. Lovell Bros. after almost getting blasted out of existence by Cameos in the first, rallied to win the next two, but failed to make up the pin deficit for totals. Sharpshooters for Cameos were Doreen McIntyre 688, Shirley McKeown 639 and Marnie Mellor 231. On the single plateau for Lovell's were Peggy Lawson 233, Doris Creamer 220 and Marion Pope 266.

League standing: Lovell Bros. 63, McCallum Services 59, Acton Creamery 55, Masales Dairy 54, Paulettes 54, Cameos 51.

Acton Major

Jan. 10: This could almost be set up as permanent type — Adam's Gold Stripe win three. This time, it was the Soccer Club who felt the sting of a three game defeat at the hands of the spirited Gold Stripers. Jeff Fryer 703, "Spike" Spires 665 and Leo McGilloway 635 were the triple trundling trio for Gold Stripe. Don DeForest was the loner for Soccer Club with 603. The Pros peeled the hides from the Tiger Cats and nailed 'em to the wall but good. Nary a win could the "Tired Tabbies" muster. When they threatened to win the middle canto, Pros came up with the power and snagged it by 25 pins. Dave Johnson 661, Ken Johnson 652 and Bob Martin 639 had the Pros' top triples. Cats saved face when Frank Irvine checked in a 720. "Red Bear" Anderson and "Big Al" Pavli of Dominion Hotel were the "gruesome twosome" as far as Firefighters were concerned. Their 741 and 708 in that order spelled disaster for the Firefighters — they lost the works. Firefighters flared up in the second, but sizzled out by 12 pins. Sad to relate, Firefighters couldn't muster a mentionable.

League standing: Adam's Gold Stripe 98, Dominion Hotel 74, The Pros 67, Tiger Cats 64, Firefighters 30, Soccer Club 24.

Acton Friends

Jan. 10: With Hartley Coles 600 and John Chapman 216 pacing them, Twisters cut the first place Headhunters' lead with a two and totals win. Anne Thomson 234 and Lila Atkinson 213 singled for Headhunters. Looks as if the males were slightly off the beam for Headhunters. Lazy Bones won the first from Nappers, then generously shared the second game, only to have Nappers clobber them in the third, ending with a game and a half apiece. Nappers took the singleton for totals. Syd Lamb uncorked a 649 triumvirate for the Bones, with Rosemary Platt flattening the pins for a 237 solo. Murray Harrison had a custom made single, 238. Jan Featherstone chimed in with a 258 and Orv Chapman broke his record — he got two singles this time, 206-202, to head up the Nappers' rolling. Untouchables, after dropping the first to Swingers, came to life with "Big Jawn" Cunningham cracking out the season's high single to date, 382. They won the next two and totals. "Jawn" finished up with 714 and "Beaver" Baxter singled 204 for the Untouchables' top scores. Bill McMullen swung a 636 for Swingers.

League standing: Headhunters 68, Swingers 66, Nappers 65, Twisters 65, Untouchables 62, Lazy Bones 52.

Acton Mixed

Jan. 11: No-Goods, with Ivy Martin 694, John Foley 264, Verna Arbic 232 and Elmer White 213, made with a two and totals win from Raiders and replaced Jumpers in first place. Martin Oehlrich tripled for Raiders with 613. Jumpers put all their eggs in one basket — in this case, the first game, and made it a one game win and totals. Jumpers' hot shots were Jack Bullough 759, Sophie Oehlrich 678 and Fred Landry 205. Hitpins, who rallied after the crusher in the first to win the next two, had as their tops, Gord Wagner with a 625. After a first game win from Clippers, Snow Birds were "ano" good (oh, brother) and dropped the next two and totals. Clicking off the big ones for the Clippers were Bill Dobbie 627, Ed Browne 609 and Fred Curtiss 212. Nancy Jensen 203-243 topped the Snow Birds' efforts.

League standing: No-Goods 70, Jumpers 69, Hitpins 59, Clippers 55, Raiders 55, Snow Birds 49.

Teen-n-Under

Jan. 12: Jetsons pulled a mild upset when they beat first place Top Cats for one and totals. The totals' point was close, Jetsons getting it by two pins. Flintstones won the first game from Hillbillies, then Hillbillies equalized by winning the second game by one pin. Totals went to Flintstones. The Blue Bomber - Fireflies go was one and one with Fireflies picking up the odd point for totals. Making the "Big 10" this Saturday were Len Varey 172-162 (334), Harry Oehlrich 144-176 (320), Monica Oehlrich 193-117 (310), Jim Cooney 144-165 (309), Bob Turkins (the "tonsala-
