High School

Feb. 11: Blue Bombers didn't do any bombing in the first against Gutter Flies, but found the win target in the second and third, plus the totals. "Ducky" Harris 250 was on a solo flight for Bombers. Keith Andrews tapped the single plateau with 223 for Gutter Flies. Mashing Monsters moved up to the second spot with a two and totals win from Red Devils. Murray Smith sizzled a 212 for Monsters, as did Jim Jennings with 200 for Red Devils. Choo-Choo Puffs won the first and third from Rinky Dinks, but got clobbered in the second and Rinkies had the odd singleton for totals. Lynn Vale and Gallopin' Gary Masales, "the headless horseman", scored 200 solos for Rinky Dinks. Frank "Muskells" Morton blasted a 235 in the Choo-Choo Puffs' cause.

League standing: Blue Bombers 79, Mashing Monsters 72, Gutter Flies 70, Red Devils 61, Choo-Choo Puffs 60, Rindy Dinks 57.

Beardmore

Feb. 11: Hot Shots were on the short end of a 4-3 go with Dare Devils but still managed to hang on to their one point lead. Dare Devils won two first close games. The first was by 2 pins and the second by 12. They got clobbered in the third. Dare Devils were paced by Helen LeSueur 641 and Bea Anderson 209. Hot Shots' trundling was headed up by "Big Al" Pavli 633, Howie Jank 257, Bill Buchanan 225-201, "Wild Bill" Howell 203 and Bob Brown 221. Toppers won an 18 pin game in the first and a 19 pin win in the third but dropped the middle chukker to Lucky Seven by enough pins to lose the odd point for totals. Fred Kentner 655, Elmer White 225, Doug Ruest 200 and Lyle Cripps 207 tripled and singled for Toppers. Chuck Sunter "the drummer boy of Shiloh" with 612. Pat Waldie with 610 and Harry Rogers 215 were in the spotlight for the Seven. After dropping the first canto to Fivers by 9 pins, Red Devils came back to win the next two and totals. "Roger Dodger" Murray 674, Phil LeSueur 228, Dennis Crooks 224 and Bert Collett 205 glorified the Red Devils' scores. Jim Bullough 689, Arlie White 612 and John Dennis 239 tripled and singled for Fivers.

League standing: Hot Shots 80, Lucky Seven 79, Fivers 73, Dare Devils 58, Red Devils 58, Toppers 51.

Legion Ladies

Feb. 11: Twenty-three pins was Ugly Ducklings' margin of victory over Squirts in the first, then Squirts squirted ahead on the pinfall in the next to grab off a two and totals win. Lil Bradshaw 503 (186) and Mamie Allen 456 (209) sparked the Squirts. Eileen Grant 455 (166) and Louise Toth 442 (160) were Ducklings best. With Pat Camp getting the first six hundred of her bowling career, a 626, aided by Phyl Angell's 60, Swans had no trouble in making a triple win from Squibs. Joyce Buchanan 570 (227), Helen Jocque 406 (160) and Joyce Blundell 479 (175) got the E for effort for Squibs.

League standing: Ugly Ducklings 90, Squibs 74, Swans 71, Squirts 45.

Blue Springs

Feb. 12: With Audrey Urquhart 260 and Thelma Vale 211 in the first, Agnes McGinnis 201 and Eileen Frank 200 in the second plus some clutch bowling in the third gave Mums a three game win over the top spot Asters. Verna Mages 221-206 soloed for Asters. Being the night to knock off the leaders, Carnations took three from the second place Glads with Millie Stitt setting new league triple and single records 741 and 312. This along with Ruth Spielvogel 203-206 and Mary Gough 225 headed up the Carnations' win. M. Gough 212 and Mary Daley 225 singled for Glads. Violets were right in line and took the third place Roses' measure with a triple win. Betty Cole 216, Joan Evans 209 and Cheryll Phillips 207 soloed in Violets' winning cause. Roses were in the doldrums for the big ones.

League standing: Asters 70, Mums 68, Violets 68, Carnations 65, Glads 65, Roses 63.

Micro Plastic

Feb. 12: No squawk from the Squawkers this trip, they won three from the Terribles. Terribles missed out in the first game by 5 pins. Jerry Warren 636, Joan Knight 611, Bruce Cargill 231 accounted for Squawkers' triples and singles. Dave Woodward 235 and Jack Hunter 219 soloed for Terribles. Paced by Leo McGilloway's 699 tricount, Moon Glows came up with a two and totals win from Sputniks. Rocky Bilen 225, Herm Bessem 205 and Gino DeBartolo 200 were in for Sputniks' solos. Lamplighters were going for the bundle against Blowers, but after winning the first two dropped the finale by 9 pins. Thelma Jordan 246, George Gidman 228 and the Earl of Waller 223 sparked the Lamplighters' win. For Blowers, Bob Drinkwalter 237 and Andy Pidoni 209 soloed.

League standing: Squawkers 79, Moon Glows 70, Lamplighters 65, Blowers 64, Sputniks 63, Terribles 58.

Tri-State

Feb. 12: Hillbillies with a two and totals win from Grannies busted the top place tie and took sole possession of first place. Hillbillies top trundlers were Audrey Hambly 519 (258) and Shirley Roberts 507 (193). Grannies' tops were Mae Dennis 622 (255) and Edith Jennings 439 (185). After being grounded by Jetsons in the first, High Flyers took off for the win orbit and wound up with two and totals. Piloting the Flyers win were Edith Bryan 584 (233) and Phyliss Jarvis 450 (181). Top couple in the Jetsons try were Dot Jennings (474) (176) and Bella Kitchin 373 (150).

League standing: Hillbillies 61, Grannies 58, High Flyers 54, Jetsons 51.

Industrial-Commercial

Feb. 13: Ledgers' I.G.A. hung onto first place with a two and totals win from Ridley Cartage. Tumbling the pins for Ledger's big ones were Frank Irvine 666, Bill McMullen 656 and "Wimp" Mason 615. The Cartage crew's tops were Ken Hulford 701 and Bob Martin 466 (double). Lindsay Ortuns found themselves right on the leaders' heels, when, paced by Jeff Fryer 735 and Fred Kentner 630 resulted in a two and totals win from Al's Snack Bar. Don Grein's 633 trigount was a loner for Snack Bar. With Wally Widawski trundling a 626, Gitto Electric threw the switch for a three game win at the expense of Station Hotel who couldn't seem to find the right combo for a win.

League standing: Ledger's I.G.A. 81, Lindsay Ortuns 80, Gitto Electric 79, Ridley Cartage 77, Al's Snack Bar 74, Station Hotel 50.

Acton Ladies

Feb. 14: Acton Creamers won the first game from Pauletters by 19 pins, the second by 9 then wound up with the third game by plenty to spare and took over first place as a result of the triple win. Joan McCristall 285 Lou Ever 238-213, hit single plateau for the Creamery Pauletteres were not lacking for singles Dianne Spielvogel 205, Marnie Manes 207, Pat Casburn 215 and Janice Withers 208-202 getting 'em. McCallum's Service lost the first to Cameos then rallied nicely to win the next two and totals. Marion Storey 243, Arlene Bruce 239 and Bea Anderson 233 put the kickers in McCallum's win. Marnie Mellor 686 and Shirley McKeown 208 tripled and singled for Cameos. Lovell Bros. won the first two from Masales Dairy but fell off the pace in the third and settled for the big share of a 5-2 go. Doris Townsley 200, Marion Pope 207, Peggy Lawson 225 and Doris Creamer 237-232 soloed for Lovells. In a like vein for Masales Dairy were Anne Moore 202 and Helen Holmes 206-212.

League standing: Acton Creamery 78, Pauletteres 75, Lovell Bros. 75, McCallum's Services 73, Masales Dairy 72, Cameos 68.

Acton Major

Feb. 14: It was "good news tonight" for the Acton Soccer Club. Paced by a new record single of 368 embodied in a hot triple of 844 trundled by Don DeForest along with a 635 from John Robson gave the "Fitba Boys" a triple win over the Dominion Hotel. Phil LeSueur 610 and "Dee" DeForest 606 tried to get the "Wasowicz Wallopers" going but no dice. So it was tomato juice on the house. The Pros took advantage of Dominion's fall from grace and with a three game win from Firefighters, took over the third spot. Ken Johnson 744, Gord Coulighan 685 and Bob Taylor 623 touched off the win for the Pros. Dennis "the menace" Crooks turned in a 670 effort for Firefighters but sad to say, he was alone. Could be that the Tiger-Cats were stung by the jibes of Adams' Gold Stripe that no one was giving them opposition that made them win two games from the Stripers. They dropped the singleton for totals though when the "Golden Boys" powdered home a big winning middle chukker. Top trio in the Cats win were, Bill Williams 777 (307), Ross Morton 705 and Don Grein 665 (303). Gold Stripe were not amiss for tricounts, Jeff Fryer 88, "Spike" Spires 727 and "Aggie" Agnew 645 getting 'em.

League standing: Adams Gold Stripe 29, Tiger-Cats 89, The Pros 84, Dominion Hotel 83, Soccer Club 44, Firefighters 33.

Acton Friends

Feb. 14: Nappers' three game win over Swingers paced by Hud DeForest 752, Jan Featherstone 223-209 and Ory Chapman 233 gave them a boost to the top spot. Swingers' soloer was Stu McConnell 231-202. Untouchables moved up a notch with a two and totals win from Twisters. "Big Jawn" Cunningham 228, Gary DeBruyn 208 and Al Combe 201 soloed. Hartley Coles was the loner for Twisters with 205-254. Lazy Bones knocked off Headhunters in the first but missed the next two and it was Headhunters for a two and totals win. Anne Thomson 602, Lila Atkinson 239, Don DeForest 205 and Ken Thomson 209 headed up the win. Ray Atkinson 633 and Syd Lamb 200 tripled and singled for Lazy Bones.

League standing: Nappers 85, Twisters 84, Headhunters 83, Untouchables 80, Lazy Bones 76, Swingers 75.

Thursday Toppers

Feb. 14: Paced by Ivy Martin's 667 (278), Anne Moore's 499 (216) and Jean Harris's 438 (167) Happy Gang regained first place with a triple win from Tiger-Cats. Verna Arbic's 503 (190) and Mary Louttit 434 (153) for Cats were in a losing cause. Chumps came up with one of their better efforts swatted the Busy Bees down with a two and totals win. Vera Blanch 528 (198) and Ethel Harris 451 (206) headed up the Chumps' win. Jennie Clendenning 451 (170) and Marg Spielvogel, 389 (140) buzzed the Bees' top scores. Strikers struck the pay-load and won all games from Cameos. Strikers' first game win was by 25 pins and their third game by 15. The middle canto was a walk-a-way. Top trundling for Strikers, Ada Peal 508 (197), Cora Walters 483 (211) and Doreen Lauder 425 (192). Top trio for Cameos showed up in Nancy Jensen 491 (182), Phyliss Winters 477 (188) and Agnes Holmes 468 (205). How about that? Rose Winter also checked in with a 468 (173).

League standing: Happy Gang 78, Cameos 76, Strikers 77, Tiger-Cats 74, Busy Bees 70, Chumps 58.

Acton Mixed

Feb. 15: Clippers and No-Goods wound up tied in the first game then Clippers clipped off the second one only to have No-Goods power home the win in the third to take the edge in the 4-3 go. For No-Goods, Ivy Martin's 674 triple stood out with John Foley 21, Joe Lauwers 210 coming in for solos. George Maltby 602, Ed Browne 200, Ron McCausland 240 and Bill Dobbie 215 tripled and singled for Clippers. Snow Birds made it rough for Jumpers in the first two, but missed out in the third but were happy with their two and totals win. Nancy Jensen 202, Charlie Gough 218 and George Gidman 202-216 singled for Birds: Jumpers' solos came from Chris Jensen 205, Sophie Oehlrich 273 and Jack Bullough 215-210. Hitpins didn't hit enough pins and Raiders made it a two and totals win with Martin Oehlrich 644, Tom Roach 211 tripling and singling. Hitpins with Ron Whitham 689, Gord Wagner 204-208 and Edna Dobbie 267 were trying.

League standing: No-Goods 91, Jumpers 79, Hitpins 78, Clippers 74, Raiders 74, Snow Birds 66.

Teen-n-Under

Feb. 16: The power play was on for Top Cats and they made with a double win from Fireflies. Hillbillies got in on the double win theme and made it a twin win from Jetsons. Flintstones tried for a double win over the Blue Bombers but had to be content with one and totals. Up in the "Big Ten" this week are Bob Turkosz 129-221 (350), Allan McKenzie 196-147 (343), Len Varey 156-185 (341), Brian Dunn 112-217 (329), Jim Cooney 139-165 (304), Sally Dick 145-149 (294), Craig Perkins 141-134 (275), Jackie Palmer 117-155 (272), Bob Anderson 159-102 (261), and the "Big Ten" is a "Big Eleven" this week with Allan Green 110-146 (256) and Bob Browne 97-159 (256) tieing for the tenth spot.

League standing: Top Cats 64, Hillbillies 57, Fireflies 56, Flintstones 5, Blue Bombers 49, Jetsons 38.

Headpin Hilites

In the manner of awards it was Don DeForest scoring for both the Paul's Clothing award along with the McGregor socks from Esquire Men's Shop with his single of 368 and triple of 844. Millie Stitt, who hasn't been heard from in a long time also scored a double win. Her triple of 741 rates the services of the Streetsville Dry Cleaners and her single of 312 brings home the foodstuffs from Ledger's I.G.A. With the Teen-n-Unders bowling best over their average to win and imbibe the refreshing refreshers of Reinharts, Seven-Up and Coca Cola it was Allan McKenzie, Charlene Higgins, Jerry Buchanan and Jane Fabian. Guess we goofed last week. We had Jeff Fryer winning the McGregor socks with a single of 323 and it should have been 343, so sorry old boy. In the City Zone eliminations for the BPAO All-Star 5-Pin Eastern Canada Championships held last Sunday, the Acton bowlers did not fare so well. At Georgetown, the male contingent, Frank Irvine, Bob Martin, Jeff Fryer, Terry Masales, Bob Toms and Wayne Ridley beset by corner pins and head pins failed to qualify. Jeff Fryer with a last game rush of 303 failed by 4 pins for the tenth and last spot. Wayne Ridley who had a slim chance going into the tenth and final game ran into grief. His 181 game put him into the discard. At Fergus, the girls, Verna Arbic, Anne Thomson and Joan Knight were finding the going tough. Joan Knight who turned in Acton's best effort, missed the last pot by 2 pins. Too many blows was the girls' downfall. However, there is always next year.

Did you hear about the bowler who was on his way to bowl a perfect game when he got all excited and blew his second frame. Oh well. And that my friends is it for this week, adios amigos.

Kingsway Kiwanians Offer Prizes Again

John Willmott, chairman, 4-H Club Leaders' Council, J. A. Francis, agricultural representative and J. D. Burnside, assistant agricultural representative, met with the agricultural committee of the Kiwanis Club of the Kingsway on Thursday, February 14.

Irvin Goddard, past committee chairman, was host for the evening, while chairman Edward Peachey outlined the projects which the committee was interested in.

The Kiwanis Club will again honor one member from each 4-H Club in the county, early in December. This will consist of a visit to the "Old Mill" in Toronto to meet with Kiwanians, as well as for the presentation of an agricultural reference book to each 4-H member.

POET'S CORNER

Buying A House

To judge by scratches on the floors
And marks of wear low down on doors
The recent occupants, now left,
Must of their senses been bereft,
And owned a CAT.

But further studying this place,
With scratches on the walls and base,
The answer would appear to me,
As anyone can plainly see,
They MUST have owned a chimpanzee.

The draperies are very bad,
The chewed up curtains seem to add
New evidence, that even now,
I argue with the neighbours How,
These people EVER kept a cow.

How could its outside look so new
Its inside looking like a zoo?
I found, Sir; in the basement, frogs!
The hairs on stairs belong to dogs!
WHAT NEXT? I ask of you?

"They had no cat," the agent said,
No dogs or chimps have made this mess,
But had six children since they wed
And lived their lives in happiness
Loving the Lord, His Word and Creed.

"I'll buy," I said,
And signed the Deed.

—David E. Cohen.

Spray School On Program

The directors of the Halton Soil & Crop Improvement Association planned their 1963 program at a meeting on February 11.

Meeting with the directors were J. A. Francis, agricultural representative; Howard Henry, field crop specialist, Soils and Crops Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture; and Jas. Barry, Galt, Zone Director of the Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association.

Jas. McKay, Georgetown R.R. 2, president of the Halton Soil and Crop Improvement Association, reported on the annual convention of the Ontario association.

Programs being offered by the county group this year include, pasture management competition; demonstrations; crop studies; bus tours; and a twilight meeting.

Details for the annual crops day program, to be held on Mar. 21, include the production of quality hay as a feature.

A new program this year will be a Spray School, with discussions on the use of chemical weed control for farm operators, to be held on Thursday, March 28.

Honors Again

Karen Elizabeth O'Rourke has received her marks from the Royal Conservatory of Music for her violin examination held in Guelph. She was happy to know she had again passed with honors.
