Fourteen-year-old David Watson has been tentatively accepted by Mount Allison University School of Music, Sackville, New Brunswick, for a 10-day summer course in music from July 1 to 12. Formal applications are not yet being received but a letter has indicated he will be accepted. A clarinetist with the band, he is the second son of Mr and Mrs Tom Watson. He will visit relatives in Nova Scotia while he's away. His paper route and snow shovelling chores will help finance the course. He joined the band three years ago and anyone with band experience is put in the advanced classes at the university course.

Mrs Gordon Lambert is a patient in Toronto General Hospital

Mrs Ron Rupert is a patient in Milton District Hospital, where she underwent surgery on Monday for appendicitis.

Mr Bill Gray, who taught at the high school while Mr Clarence Rognvaldson was away for six weeks is in Toronto now but intends to go job-hunting in Florida. The young Irishman was through here last Thursday

Postponed Meeting

New Officers are Installed By Lakeside Chapter I.O.D.E.

Mrs. J. Jocque was installed as regent of the Lakeside Chapter of the I.O.D.E. when the chapter held its postponed meeting Monday in the Legion Hall. The blizzard of the Tuesday before had necessitated cancelling the meeting. Installation was conducted by past regent Mrs R Spielvogel.

Two minutes' silence was observed for a past regent, Mrs Otto Somerville. Many of the members had attended the funeral together.

Mrs H Helwig presented a gift to the retiring regent, Mrs W. L. Sproston

An invitation to attend Holy Week services was accepted, the chapter will go together on Sunday evening, March 22

Folders and stickers were handed out upholding the Red Ensign as Canada's flag. A petition has been signed by chapter members

The chapter will sponsor an Acton high school student attending the United Nations seminar this spring

A pot luck supper was enjoyed. There was a St Patrick theme for table decorations and shamrocks were given as prizes for games

—In last Sunday's church leaflet at St. Alban's, the rector pointed out that hot cross buns were first made in 1361 by a monk of St Alban's Abbey, England, and were distributed by the good monk to the poor on each Good Friday.

—Next Sunday is Palm Sunday. We are now in the two most important weeks in the Christian year. The first week, Passion Week, ends with Palm Sunday, which in turn marks the beginning of Holy Week

In the absence of secretary Sid Seitz at the Y due to his recent illness Jim Peal has been carrying on the program

Urban music festival next Tuesday and Wednesday here

Spring officially arrives this Saturday March 21

Acton I.O.D.E. is planning a souvenir booklet for their big Orange Walk here this July

Badminton sessions at the high school are cancelled temporarily due to exams and then the Easter holidays

A door collector took fire at the tannery about 7.20 p.m. Tuesday evening. The tannery whistle summoned tannery firemen

It's quite a week for senior citizens with a dinner at the United Church, an organizational meeting for the town club tonight and finally the N.H.L. Old Timers' game at the arena Friday!

Another welcome sign to add to that first robin: some of the stores are displaying flower and vegetable seeds and have sacks of grass seed ready for customers.

—Ern Hyde, a former Georgetown mayor, has been appointed a justice of the peace for Halton.

—Too much happiness is overlooked because it doesn't cost any money.

—Now they have coffee dispensers for offices that look exactly like filing cabinets. These will match the coffee drinkers who look exactly like office workers

There were many words of praise for the organization of the four-town hockey tournament. The tight scheduling was only out by half an hour at the most and the dinner at noon was served efficiently. The lads helped themselves to steaming stew

Bunches of shamrocks worn Tuesday on coats were coated with snow.

Honor Debaters, Singers At Junior Farmer Dinner

By Marilyn Wrigglesworth

The Halton Junior Farmers held their 29th annual banquet and dance at Palermo hall Friday evening. There were 30 Juniors and their families in attendance at the banquet, slightly less than last year.

Head table consisted of Mrs K Cowson, Home Economist for Halton and Peel Counties, Dennis Sinclair, Palermo Club, Lillian Finnie, second vice president, Bill Wilson, inter-club scorer, Allen Francis, Agricultural Representative, and his wife, Marian Hunter, treasurer, Fred Barnes, past president and his wife, Joe Love, first vice president, Joy Hayward, president for 1964-65, Alan Hayward, Acton club, Diane Wrigglesworth, secretary and Ed Seys, south director.

Toasts Given

The chairman of the evening was past president Fred Barnes. Introduction of head table was given by Diane Wrigglesworth followed by Dennis Sinclair thanking the Palermo United Church ladies for the delicious meal served that evening. A toast to the Junior Institute was made by Alan Hayward, who nearly talked himself into the state of matrimony before completing his speech. Marion Hunter replied to this toast. Lillian Finnie then proposed a toast to the Junior Farmers which was replied to by Joe Love

President Joy Hayward had the pleasure of presenting Fred Barnes with the past president's pin, and thanked him for the wonderful job he had done during the past year in leading the Halton Junior Farmers through a very successful year. Fred in turn presented Joy with the gavel, expressing his confidence in her ability as a leader and giving Joy his best during the coming year.

Honor Debaters

Trophies were presented to the four debaters representing Halton County last year. Allen Francis presented the J. E. Whitelock trophy. Craig Reid and Judge George Gillott each presented their individual trophies to debaters Marion Hunter, Janette Finnie, Kaye Marshall and Diane Wrigglesworth

The Ernest Irving Scholarship enables the four Clubs, Acton, Milton, Norval and Palermo to compete each year for honors within their own County, with each Club acquiring certain points for participation and attendance of County events, with extra points given to winners. The top club this year was Norval with Acton second, Palermo third and Milton fourth. Bill Wilson inter-club scorer presented the presidents with their cheques

Department Aid

Greetings from the Department of Agriculture were given by Allen Francis. The Junior Farmers in turn expressed their appreciation for the time, cooperation and assistance they have received during the past years from the Department.

For the first time in the Province of Ontario, recognition in the form of a special pin was given to Junior Farmers who have won honors on a Provincial level.

A dance featuring Rasberry's orchestra followed the banquet.

Advice is not disliked because it is advice, but because so few people know how to give it.

Ladies' Society Anniversary Brings 150 to Beth-El Church

The tenth anniversary of the Sersum Corda Ladies' Society of the Christian Reformed Church of Acton was observed at a special social evening in the church basement on Saturday. There are 29 ladies in the group and each wore a white carnation, the surprise gift of a fellow - member. Their guests from the congregation here, a busload from Georgetown and others from Guelph and Kitchener brought the number there up to 150

The room was decorated with flowers and evergreens and long tables were set up

The new minister, the Rev. W. Van Dijk, spoke briefly. He and his wife had been welcomed here at a reception the previous Sunday afternoon.

Special guests were the former minister, the Rev. Jelle Nutma, and Mrs Nutma

Each lady in the group took part in the program which included short plays, readings and singing. In the chorus were Mrs G Holstede, Mrs G. Vos, Mrs R Venema, Mrs W Gills and Mrs T De Vries. The program was all in Dutch

Coffee, sandwiches and cake were served

President of the group is Mrs A Teferink and Secretary Mrs J De Vries
