Ronald Halmos, Nancy Jackson Wed in St. Catharines Church

Acton high school's French and physical education teacher Ronald S. Halmos was married at St. Paul St. United Church, St. Catharines, to Nancy Elizabeth Jackson of St. Catharines. After a honeymoon in the Poconos Mountains, they will be making their home in Guelph.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jackson, St. Catharines. The groom, who lived on Wescott Road, Acton, is the son of Mrs. Harold Polle and the late Mr. Samuel Halmos, Windsor.

White flowers banked the altar with white candelabra and white bows marked the guests' pews. Rev. George Forsey conducted the double-ring ceremony. Lewis Jones played the organ and Mrs. R. K. Orr sang.

The bride wore a white floor-length gown of white faille with Guipure lace applique and seed pearls around the Sabrina neck line and down the front of the skirt. The full skirt had a slight bustle extending into a chapel train. A crown of Guipure lace held her bouffant veil. She carried a cascade of white shasta daisies, button mums, pink sweetheart roses and ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Charles Baker, Brampton, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Gerald Halmos, Windsor; Miss Lynn Noble, St. Catharines and Miss Kerry Marshall of Toronto. All four wore pale pink dresses and carried white shasta daisies and pink sweetheart roses. The flower girl, Kath Baker of Brampton, three-and-a-half, wore a full pink dress and carried a basket of white shasta daisies and button mums.

Mr. Jackson gave his daughter in marriage. The groomsman was Gerald Halmos, Windsor, a brother of the groom; ushers were Charles Baker, Brampton; Howard Jackson, St. Catharines, cousin of the bride and Bob Lamoureux, Kitchener.

The reception was at the Atlanta Club overlooking Lake Ontario where the mothers of the bride and groom received the guests. These included Mrs. Julius Porsar, Windsor, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meadows, Toronto, grandfather of the bride; and fellow teachers at Acton, Mr. and Mrs. R. McCallum, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. P. Sullivan, Guelph and Miss M. Way, Guelph.

The bride for travelling wore a white linen boucle dress with matching short jacket, mustard colored hat and shoes, and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

There were several showers and special events for the bride in Windsor and St. Catharines.

Former Acton Teacher Is Married in Ottawa

In a double-ring ceremony in St. John's Anglican Church, Ottawa, at 11 a.m. on Saturday, June 27, Elaine C. Humphrys and Alan Robert Capper were married. The bride, whose home is at 367 Echo Drive, Ottawa, is the daughter of E. C. Humphrys and the late Mrs. Humphrys. The groom, formerly a teacher at the M. Z. Bennett school, is the son of William Capper and the late Mrs. Capper, Stratford.

The couple are spending July and August in Acton and then go to Ottawa. They are staying in Glena Bank's house in Glenlea while they take summer courses in Toronto. The bride is a teacher at Viscount Alexander school, Ottawa, and the groom teaches at Meadowlands school, Lepean township.

Rev. Herbert O'Driscoll conducted the ceremony; the groom's sister, Mrs. J. Miller of Sarnia, played the organ.

The bride wore a white street length dress of shantung with short shoulder length veil and carried a cascade bouquet of roses and stephanotis.

Bridesmaid was Miss Joyce Downs, Ottawa, who wore blue shantung with a short veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Groomsman was Ron Capper of Moncton, N.B., brother of the groom.

Luncheon was served at the bride's home. Receiving for the bride was Mrs. John J. Scanlon wearing navy silk with a corsage of white carnations. The groom's sister, Mrs. Miller, wore green flowered chiffon with white carnations.

The bride's and bridesmaid's gowns were made and designed by the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. Humphrys.

The couple left on a trip to Eastern New York state, the bride wearing a pink three-piece suit with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

There were several showers and a tea in Ottawa.
