C.V.C.A. Pursues Project...

author's initial ideas. It was suggested that, as the Credit River Valley was close to Toronto, more emphasis should be placed on the recreational aspects of the reservoirs created by these dams in the Plan. This suggestion was accepted by the Authority. By now the committee became a little desperate as time elapsed and no word was received from Ottawa.

In January of 1964, a delegation went to Ottawa to impress the Department with the importance of the Plan to the valley. At this time, they were assured that there should be no trouble in financing the Plan. Now, in early 1965, two full years after the Plan was presented to the municipalities, word has been received that the federal government will not participate in the financing.

Recreation was not the aim of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority in the first place and two years of work and worry have gone "down the drain". Any land bought in those two years has been acquired with the thought in mind that work could be set aside at any time to proceed with the Flood Control Plan when approval was received.

Negotiations will now be started with the provincial government to build the reservoirs under the new scheme recently inaugurated at Queen's Park. The members hope that time wasting red tape can be cut and work can proceed in the near future.

Homemaker Clubs Reorganize "Clothes Closets" Spring Project

The 4-H Homemaking Clubs in Halton County will be re-organized during the month of February for their spring project, "Clothes Closets Up To Date". Before beginning the project the Club Leaders from each community attend a two-day Training School in Milton, on February 10 and 11. The Training School was conducted by the County Home Economist, Mrs. Kathleen Cossom.

"Clothes Closets Up To Date" is a project designed to encourage the girls to take pride in their bedroom by keeping their belongings neat and orderly. Club Members will have an opportunity to improve their storage space and to make a variety of closet accessories. These will include a laundry bag, shoe packs, a covered hanger and a decorated hat box.

All girls between the ages of 12 and 26 are invited to join the 4-H Homemaking Club in their area, by contacting the Leaders. The leaders are: Ashgrove, Mrs. Ward Brownridge and Mrs. Len Cox; Dublin, Mrs. R. MacNaughton and Jean Britton; Hornby North, Mrs. J. McKay and Carolyn Pewtress; Hornby South, Mrs. Cecil Patterson and Mrs. K. Kiernan; Nassagaweya, Mrs. Andrew Frank; Palermo, Mrs. I. Inglehart and Mrs. R. Inglehart; Scotch Block, Mrs. Elmore French and Mrs. R. Irving; Silverwood, Mrs. George Henderson and Mrs. H. Marching ton.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Laura Carlaw Funeral on Monday

Funeral service was held Feb. 8th at the Rumley - Shoemaker funeral home for Mrs. Laura Virginia Carlaw. Temporary entombment in Forest Lawn Mortuary, Orangeville, will be followed by interment in Alton cemetery.

Funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Dwight Engel. Pallbearers were Peter and John McLachlan, grandsons, Gordon Lovell, Bert McLachlan, Bob Dobson and Carl Jenkins.

Mrs. Carlaw, who had lived in Acton for the past eight years at the home of Mrs. C. L. Poole, Bower Ave., had been at the home of her daughter Eileen (Mrs. C. L. Stothers) in Islington when, after a few weeks illness, she passed away on February 6. She was 88 years of age.

Born in Northumberland county, she attended Cobourg high school and then model school at Orangeville. She taught school at Riverview near there. In 1900 she married John A. McLachlan, and they lived in Alton until he died in 1940. In 1948 she married I. Carlaw; he died at Kamloops, B.C. in 1953.

She had lived in Acton in the 40's and returned here again.

She attended Acton United Church, was active in the W.M.S. and joined the new U.C.W., although she was not able to attend many meetings. In Alton, she had been a member of the Women's Institute, taught a Junior Bible Class and enjoyed directing plays.

She is survived by sons and daughters Arthur, Chicago; Ina (Mrs. H. H. Johnstone), Vancouver; Lloyd, Egbert, Ontario; Eileen (Mrs. C. E. Stothers), Islington; Laura (Mrs. L. W. Lovell), Acton; a sister Ida (Mrs. Russell Jenkins) Alton, five grandchildren and one great grandchild.

DEDICATED DEPUTIES

Conservation Officers in Ontario are assisted by more than 1,200 deputies who work without pay to protect fish and game against poachers.
