Mr. John Rutledge was the recipient of a valuable watch and chain accompanied by an address sent him by mail, for the very able and kind services rendered by him in the Methodist congregation of this place.

Union news has been booming in the CONSERVATOR lately. Some of my remarks aroused the ire of one of the latest geniuses who has been lying loose around there and in his last letter wrote a lengthy article extolling the virtues of a person who he supposed to be the constructor of this correspondence. This same genius after much mature deliberation has succeeded in racking his already overworked brains to develop a plan that he may be exalted above his superiors and in so doing assuage innocent people, but it was like a kick from a mule when we consider where it came from.

There was an exceedingly interesting [illegible] the other evening when the ladies favorite of Union and the heroes of the fourth, with the base ball moustache we are informed, had a considerable difficulty in holding his claim.

A large assembly congregated at Riverview mansion recently, engaged in games of different kinds and spent the evening in pleasant chat.

Mr. William Sanderson of the popular String Band renewed old acquaintances here last week.

GLENWILLIAMS.

HERALD Correspondence.

Our correspondence this week is somewhat of a sensational nature. We have been experiencing what might be termed an amateur strike. This occurred with a number of employees in Mr. Williams' hosiery, for higher wages. As far as we can ascertain, Mr. W. has been paying his employees as high a consideration for the same work done, (if not a trifle more) as any other man in the business here. We look at the facts as they exist, with our young friends. The objection was not so much dissatisfaction with their compensation as it was the nature of a Gentonian to keep space with the times. This was exemplified in this case. They have been hearing lately of extensive strikes in collieries and also in connection with the C. P. R. and we believe, while pondering in their minds these events, concluded that if there were any benefit to be derived from similar action, on a smaller scale, they would make the experiment. The probability is that the seeming difficulty will be settled in a few days. In the meantime the employees are "out."

Miss L. Martin, who was reported last week to be ill, is now convalescent.

Miss Cronby is reported to be dangerously ill.

Jos. Ruddy, who sustained severe injuries by a fall last week, is recovering as fast as possible.

Mrs. T. Board of Hamilton has been the guest of some of her Glen friends for some days.

Miss Jennie Thompson has gone to Acton to reside.

Mr. D. Reid has rented what is known as the Campbell place from J. Plewes of Balmonville.

Mr. P. Reid has rented a part of Mr. A. Smith's farm on the 10th of Esquesing. We wish both prosperity.

The benevolent societies in the town are twelve years since these societies have been organized. The Foresters have a good lodge of about thirty members. The A. O. U. W. has not been so fortunate as the Foresters as regards members, but in other respects can boast of a Lodge in a good prosperous condition, and the future looks still brighter, as there is likely to be an addition to our membership, which is due to our worthy and esteemed Bro. Jas. Owens. Since his return from the Grand Lodge at Ottawa, he infused new life and vigor, and as a consequence the prospects of the A. O. U. W. are very encouraging.

This is the seventh time Bro. Owens has been sent to Grand Lodge. At the last meeting Bro. Owens gave an address and brought in the report from Grand Lodge, and spoke with such earnestness as to our duty as individual members, that each one felt that the Lodge made no mistake when Bro. Owens was made the unanimous choice to Grand Lodge. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the Bro. for his address and complete report.

TORONTO.

HERALD Correspondence.

Rev. A. M. Philips will deliver his next (so called heretical) sermon next Sunday. Subject, "Why the Sacrifice of Christ?"

Flags have been flying half mast since the death of H. E. Clarke in the Local House last Friday afternoon. He was buried this afternoon; there was an immense crowd at the funeral. The M. P. P.'s, members of City Council and employees at the Clarke Trunk Factory were in the procession.

Gas in big quantity has been struck near Toronto (Mimico.) 50 quarts of nitroglycerine were used to "blow up" the 1300 ft. hole. It is said the noise of the gas escaping through a two inch pipe could be heard fully a mile away.

The County and the City are at loggerheads over Queen street, from Dufferin to the west city limits. The county is granting the "Toronto and Mimico Railway Co." right of way over the street, which they claim they have power to do, as the city has only a lease of the street. The city claims at the union of Toronto and Park dale they got full power over all the streets. The law must decide.

Rev. W. F. (move on) Wilson preached a sensible sermon last Sunday evening to women.

We're having delightful weather, business is picking up, building prospects are greater this year than last.

T. Eaton & Co. are still spreading their immense business. W. Brown, formerly of Acton, is one of their trusted men. Their trade this year so far is in excess of any other year.

Last Saturday's LEADER has a full account of Rev. A. M. Philip's two sermons on heresy in which he discusses the atonement and life in the blood.

It is generally believed that the majority of the people here are in favor of the "Trolley" system for street car service. Some system other than horses must be adopted by September.

The men who supply the city with milk have formed an organization to be known as "The Toronto Milk Producer's Union."

A great deal of dust is being raised over the book written by M. R. Cliffold entitled "The Social Scourge." As it implicates several of our city men, its publication has been suppressed by the crown officer.

"Alma Mater Wine" this is the heading a newspaper wrote on the University boy's election. It is one of the disgraces of the time that these young men should have such disgraceful annual fights. Several got their clothes torn off their backs, one had his arm broken and several were lying drunk.

Bob Ingersoll lectured on Monday evening in the Auditorium on "Shakespeare".

A missionary meeting was held in the above church on Monday evening 21st when the Rev. Thos. Smith of Elora, a member of Miss. Deputation, addressed the audience on behalf of home missions. The facts and figures were listened to with a great deal of interest. Rev. Mr. Aborn of Norval also addressed the meeting. It was announced on the previous Sunday that the annual collection for home missions would be taken on the next Sunday (March 27) which was done and there was a very liberal response to the call. Owing to the bad condition of the roads many from the country could not get to the church. They are expected to be heard from next Sunday.
