A JOURNALIST WEDDING.

The rarity of a newspaper wedding calls for the chronicling of one that took place Monday and the tendering of our felicitations to the interested parties. The bride and groom were Miss Ella B. Elliott ("Madge Morton") and Mr. J. E. Atkinson, two bright and talented members of the staff of the Globe. The former was assisted by Miss Kate Eva Westlake, also a member of the profession, while the groom had for his assistant Mr. Frank Yeigh, who may be called a newspaper man. Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson left for Ottawa, where Mr. Atkinson is at the head of the Globe's parliamentary staff. The interesting ceremony was performed in the Sherbourne street Methodist Church by the Rev. C. E. Manning.—Toronto World.

Conservatives in Council.

A meeting of the Esquesing Association was held in Stewarttown on Wednesday last week. There were about forty in attendance. Several matters concerning the interests of the party were discussed. The question of attending to the voters' list was up and it was decided to see that the party received justice in that behalf. The question of candidates for the next township election was talked over and several names suggested. Nothing definite, in this particular, was done, however. It was decided to oppose the present Council at the next election and put forth strenuous efforts to "turn the rascals out."

The many friends of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Gifford will be sorry to hear of the death of their youngest child.

A nine year old daughter of Mr. Angus Johnston died suddenly Sunday evening.

A VERY SAD DEATH.

The death of Mrs. Wm. Cole of the 10th line, which took place on Thursday last, was a very sad one indeed. Mrs. Cole had only been ill for four days, during which time all that human power could do was done to restore her, but without avail. She leaves a family of six children, the eldest of whom is ten years and the youngest only a few days. Mrs. Cole was very highly respected in the community in which she resided. The funeral took place Saturday to Greenwood cemetery and was attended by many sorrowing friends.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

This Association met at the Manse, Norval, on Monday forenoon. There were present, Rev. Jas. Argo, Norval, Revs. Jos. Fennell, G. A. Love, W. E. Norton, and D. M. Buchanan, Georgetown. Rev. Mr. Mr. Love read a thoughtful sermon before the Association and after a discussion of it by the members, an address was presented to Mr. Love by the Association. This was done on account of the fact that this was the last meeting of the Association, at which Mr. Love could be present. The address deeply regretted Mr. Love's departure, expressed the high regard his brother ministers had for him and wished him the choicest success wherever he might be called to labor in the future.

The following was the address:

Rev. and Dear Brother,—It is with the deepest regret that we remember that this will be our last meeting with you. We desire to express to you our appreciation of the work you have performed as a member of our Association, and also as its recording secretary. Your regularity of attendance, your uplifting zeal in the preparation of your papers, your generous criticisms and suggestions in all our discussions, have been very helpful to us. We desire to express to you also the great pleasure and profit we have derived from our fellowship with you as a Christian friend. We have always felt that it was your highest delight to interchange opinions and experiences with your brethren upon those subjects that ought ever to be a source of joy to the Christian heart. It is with heartfelt sorrow that we anticipate the severance of your connection with our Association and progress real from the community. Your faithful adhesion to the Gospel, truth and your unfinching devotion to your Master's cause, regardless of the bitter feeling that truth is sure to arouse in the hearts of the enemies of Christ, will continue to be a source of great joy to you in your future reflection over your work in Georgetown. We desire you also to convey to Mrs. Love our sincere thanks for the hearty way in which she has always entertained the members of this Association. Our best wishes and earnest prayers shall follow you to your new field of labor, that He, in whose hands it is to give the increase, may richly reward your work of faith and labor of love.

Signed

The Township Board of Health met in the Clerk's office, Creelman's Block, on Thursday.

G. H. Kennedy, Secretary.

EASTER SONG SERVICE.

The Congregationalists held a very successful song service on Good Friday evening. The attendance was not so large as the excellence of the programme was worthy of, yet was very fair. ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH.

The annual Easter Vestry meeting was held on Monday evening the 18th inst. The incumbent took the chair, Mr. T. J. Wheeler acting as secretary. The accounts for the year were read and the financial statement was highly satisfactory. Mr. W. Galbraith was again appointed minister's warden and Mr. Holdroyd of Glenwilliams was unanimously elected by the Vestry as the people's warden.

There was a fair attendance and a good feeling prevailed.

The Vestry meeting in connection with St. John's church, Stewarttown was held on Tuesday evening the 19th inst. Proceedings will be noted in next issue.

BASE-BALL.

A base-ball club from town and the Georgetown High School Literary Society Base-ball Club played in the Park on Friday afternoon. The score stood: the town 30; the High School 28. Considering the little practice they had, and the fact that two of their best players were absent, the High School boys played a very good game indeed.

THE MYSTERIOUS CAVE.

Discovered Near the New Railroad.—What Does It Mean?

Councillor Cook reports the discovery of a mysterious cave in the bush back of the semaphore, on the new branch of the G. T. R. The cave is purely artificial, and whether or not it was made for mischievous purposes is a problem yet unsolved. It has two apartments, one about 5ft. the other about 4ft. The only timber used in its construction consists of some small poles, and a few logs to keep the earth from falling in. It is said by some who have since visited it that they saw a stove in the underground dwelling, while others who were there during the past few days say that there is nothing in the way of furniture of anything to be seen. The place is quite dark, is very damp, and fully 40ft. south of the nearest habitable dwelling. It is a peculiar place in which to dwell. Whether it has been a robbers rendezvous or what it may have been, the only thing guessed at. It has, evidently, been made use of lately.
