The Georgetown Herald

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 1, 1894.

Across the Canadian lakes at Sidney this week as well as last week, Canada had reason to be proud of the stand taken. Capt. Moore of Georgetown took a high stand amongst the marksmen and helped to roll up a good aggregate in Canada's favor.

NOT THE RIGHT KIND.

The course the Royal Templar has taken upon the temperance question during the past few months has been severely criticised by a section of the press, with fairly good grounds, we think. So long as the temperance movement has amongst its leaders what may be termed professional agitators, it will not succeed as it otherwise would. Prohibitionists, who are such for revenue only, are not likely to help much in bringing about the reform that has been so long and earnestly worked for.

THE PROSPECT FOR HOPS.

Those who have hop yards in this locality (and there are a good many) are feeling somewhat anxious just now. The season so far has been tolerably favorable, but the yield will depend a good deal on the kind of weather that prevails for the next three weeks. A shower of rain is now needed badly. What the price will be no one can yet reliably predict. Old hops are quoted at 9 or 10 and probably the market for new will not open as double this. There is over 100 acres under hops in this vicinity this season.

VAN HORNE'S TWO DOLLAR WHEAT.

Wheat is now at the lowest price it has ever been, and the prospects of a rise in the future are not encouraging. Van Horne's two dollar wheat is all a myth. The new crop promises to be beyond expectation. An official report to the American Government tells of a largely-increased wheat acreage in Argentis, which seems to be the coming bete-noir of the American agriculturist. There will be good crops in Great Britain and in Europe this year, and consequently American wheat is not likely to find a much better market during the coming season than it has for a year past. The New York Herald says the farmers of the West and Northwest will be at their wits' end to know how to make both ends meet next year.—Toronto World.

BOUND TO PROSPER.

The stand again taken by our High School in the examinations is quite gratifying. In another column will be found the number passed from a number of the other schools and Collegiate Institutes of Ontario. On looking over the list it will be found that the number that have a better showing than Georgetown is very small. The reports of the other examinations will now be anxiously looked for. The new staff give reason to expect equal success in '95.

Miss A. Lindsay B. A., of St. Mary's an honor graduate of Toronto University and specialist in Mathematics, will teach the Mathematics and Physics. Miss Jennie Hunt of Niagara Falls South, who has had a year's experience in High School work will have charge of the Junior English and Modern. The Sciences will be taught by Mr. D. B. Taylor of Napanee, who was a fellow-pupil there with our former teachers, Miss Wright and Mr. Wager, and who will without doubt prove a worthy successor to them.

These come highly recommended by those whom best acquainted with their work and we have no doubt but that they will work faithfully and that next year, our school will retain the high standing it has won during the last two years.

THE POOL ROOM CASE.

Giles Arrested and Remanded Until To-day.

The Port Credit pool room case was advanced a stage on Friday night by the arrest of Jesse Giles, the proprietor. This action was taken at the instance of City Crown Attorney Curry, who caused a warrant to be issued, and Giles was apprehended at his home, 106 Massey street, by Detective Cuddy, and lodged in St. Andrew's Market Station. On Saturday morning he was arraigned in the Police Court and remanded until August 7, two sureties of $500 each being accepted for his appearance. Abe Orpen and Frank Hogarth were his bonds men. Mr. Murdoch, who appeared for the accused, questioned the jurisdiction of the city Magistrate over an offence alleged to have been committed in the County of Peel but the objection was overruled. John Hurst, High Constable of Peel, is the complainant.—Empire.

Until Christmas the same work will be taken up in both parts of Form II and then the best pupils in the Junior class will be promoted and the poorest pupils in the Senior class will be put back. At the same time the best in Form I will be promoted also. In this way encouragement will be given to those who work well in the lower classes and only those who are likely to win certificates will be found in the senior class of Form II.

It is very desirable that all who decide to attend the High School next term should be in attendance the first day of the term so that the classes may be properly organized.

THE CHINESE LOSE HEAVILY

In a Naval Engagement Between Japan and China.

The Cause of the Trouble, as Stated by Japan.—China will Fight to the Bitter End.

Shanghai, July 31.—Another fight between the Chinese and Japanese fleet was fought yesterday (Monday). After a desperate fight the Chinese ironclad, mounting about 4,000 tons, the largest and most powerful battleship in the Chinese navy, was sunk by the Chinese warships, built by Armstrong at Elswick, were captured by the Japanese. The captured vessels were called Chin Yuen and Ching Yuen. It is reported another Member, Woo Ching was also destroyed. The Chinese lost about 1000 men, most of whom were drowned. Among the killed were the German officers attached to the Chinese fleet. The Chief Yuen was a battleship of 7,000 tons. A despatch to the London Times says that China will fight to the bitter end.

A Japanese statement.

London, July 31.—The Japanese Legation issued an official statement of the differences which led to the rupture between China and Japan. It says Japan and China were approaching a settlement of their difficulties when China suddenly requested Japan to withdraw her fleet from Corea, and to give a formal compliance with the Chinese demands by the 20th, otherwise the whole Chinese forces were to land, and a sea advance upon the part of China was to be made. The Japanese regarded this as an ultimatum, but, acting under the advice of the friendly powers, they agreed to the proposals in principle, in amended form, at the same time declaring that if the threatened Chinese advance was made on the 20th it would be regarded as a menace to Japan. The Japanese assert that the claim that the Kow Shung was flying the British flag is unfounded. They also deny the charges that the officers and crew of the Japanese cruiser that sunk the Kow Shung were brutal in their treatment of the Chinese struggling in the water.

BALLINAFAD.

Herald Correspondence.

The Presbyterian pulpit was filled last Sunday by Mr. Hector McLean. It was a pleasure for the people to listen to a young man, a native of the neighborhood, preach the gospel as he did. The evening service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Adams.

Rev. Mr. Campbell took a holiday last Sabbath, following, as he says, the example of other great men.

Mr. George Young still takes charge of the Bible class, which, we observe, has grown considerably since Mr. Campbell came among us. In fact all morning and evening services the church is filled.

The C. E. Society, organized two weeks ago, is doing nicely. The officers are as follows:—

Prayer-meeting Com.—Miss Maggie E. McKee, Mr. Peter Yemen, Mr. Fred Huggins.

The Misses White of Shelburne are visiting at Mrs. Thompson's.

The Esquesing Council is doing a fine job of grading on the 7th line which was much needed. Donald McKay is the contractor and will no doubt do the work well, although some think he is doing it too cheaply. We hope the Council will now gravel it.

Mrs. Ferguson, after a long siege of sickness, is improving slowly.

Mrs. James R. Stewart, principal of Stratford school, and wife are visiting his mother, Mrs. A. Ackert.

Rev. Mr. Harrison of Dundalk filled Rev Mr. Adams' pulpit at Greenlaw last Sabbath.

Mrs. Adams has been ill for some little time, but is now better.

Mrs. Jamieson from Toronto is at present visiting at her mother's, Mrs. Ackert.

The hum of the threshing machine is now heard in this vicinity.

Erin and Ballinafad football teams played a match here on Tuesday evening. Result: One goal each. The Erin boys were entertained at lunch at the Thompson House by the Ballinafad boys.

Fourth Week of the Early Closing Sale

There are those who consider mid-summer of little or no consequence in retailing, who discount all statements regarding brisk business, and measure present conditions by the yardstick of years ago. It is true that trade is dull in stores that are out of the stream; but in the stream it is lively enough. The thing to do is to keep in the stream.

This store is a great mart of trade. All through July and August many classes of goods will be sold without regard to profit. Your interest is to be maintained, no matter how sultry the weather or how little the need. Like the crack of the whip or the shriek of the locomotive, business keeps active. The people continue coming after bargains. That's endorsement of the best kind. We ask for nothing more.

You understand, of course, that there's nothing to hinder anyone quoting an absurd price for an inferior article. For that matter one can claim certain things in the paper and repudiate them afterwards. You have to watch business methods and decide for yourself the underlying principle of the store's work.

The Second Floor!

What does it include? Probably not one in a hundred fully comprehend how much is represented in the housefurnishing management.

It's a delightful business anyhow, working among things to beautify homes at a time when everybody is interested in home adornment. The most commonplace furnishings to-day are luxury itself compared with a few years ago. Shows the inventive genius of the age, the event of specialists in manufacturing together with the newer, broader ideas of retailing.

The second floor contains complete assortments of—

—Fine Furniture,
—New Carpets,
—Pretty Pictures,
—Stylish Draperies,
—Choice Wall Papers,
—Handsome Curtains,
—Beds and Bedding,
—Bamboo Furniture.

The department being easily reached by quick elevators. The most important fact relating to these stocks is the Furniture display. At no time within our recollection has it been possible to buy brand new Furniture at such ridiculously low prices. The sale will continue until all the special lots are gone. There is much to see among half a hundred different departments, but shoppers cannot afford to miss the interesting displays on the second floor.

Bicycle Sale.

—New Wheels at $62.50—
—New Wheels at $69.50—
—New Wheels at $75.00—

The lowest prices ever quoted for first-class Bicycles. We bought in large quantities direct from the makers in England and can afford to discount the market with good wheels at dry goods prices. Wouldn't you like to see them?
