Acton's Active Living Centre looking ahead to spring trips

By Julie Conroy

Hillsview Active Living Centre- Acton

Have you picked up the latest edition of Hillsview? There are copies at the reception desk, and at the Acton Library.

On Monday, Jan. 26, Heather Beaumont (Hillsview Active Living Centre Volunteer Coordinator) held a one-hour convenor training course. I am sure everyone learned something from the information presented.

Almost 60 people attended the fundraising Italian Pasta evening on Jan. 27. There were rave reviews on the delicious pasta, and Irish tenor Michael Kelly Cavan was a great success. An Irish tenor at an Italian evening! Everyone had a great evening, is Jersey Boys. Bring a friend and relax while enjoying the music and the story of four young men whose lives changed through fame and music.

The people with the highest bids at the silent auction were: Pauline Barlow—a bottle of Glenfiddich; Shirley Broostad—lunch for six at Mason Julie; Nancy Gallone—Italian vintage red wine; Sylvia Mitchell—a beautiful crocheted afghan; Bill Lamb—a rose print picture; Marianna Fitzgerald—cast iron mail box; Karen Jakob—glass platter; Pat Urwin—print; Bryan Alder—acrylic art set. Louise Marjerrison won $75 in the 50/50. Myra Sartor and the fundraising committee would like to thank everyone who helped make the evening a great success.

The movie on Tuesday, Feb. 10 at 1 p.m.

Next Tuesday, Feb. 10 is the firm cut-off date for tickets to our Valentine Dinner on Thursday, Feb. 12.

Hopefully the weather will be kind to us over the next few weeks as we look forward to spring. The Friday morning hikers have enjoyed hiking during the cold, sunny days during January and meet at 10 a.m. to hike the various scenic trails in our area. We are lucky that there are so many beautiful, well maintained trails within a short drive of the Centre.

Trying to think spring? The Glenn Miller Orchestra and Happy Valentine trips are full, but there is still room to see Oh Canada Eh? in April. There is also a trip planned to visit the African Lion Safari in May. Drop in and see what trips interest you. You do have to get your name down early as some of the trips fill up quickly. Be aware, if you put your name on a list you are confirming you will be going. Most trips have to be paid about a month before the departure date, as tickets, meals etc., have to be purchased.

Friday lunch on Friday, Feb. 13 will be a salad, hot meat pie and potatoes and, of course, dessert.

Raising Resilient Children is topic of parent discussion

Raising Resilient Children—Preparing our Children for Life in 21 Century is a presentation by Meg Popovic, Phd. on Wednesday, Feb. 18, at 7 p.m. at Georgetown District High School Theatre. Everyone welcome. No charge.
